joyed. The little fellow soon became too heavy for the thin, weak arms of the 'little mother,' and it was but seldom that she could muster courage and energy enough to carry him down the steep stairs, which was his only breathing ground.

"The day came when even the slightest exertion was impossible for poor Mary, and she was forced to depend upon the kind services of neighbours as poor as she was herself. Mary failed rapidly. She was soon confined to her bed, and then I procured the services of one of my 'helpers' who took up Mary's work where the 'little mother,' in sheer helplessness, had laid it down.

"On one of my daily visits, as I stood in the doorway, unannounced, I heard the murmur of childish voices. A little friend of Mary's was sitting with her and had been laboriously spelling out some verses of the Bible.

"'O Maggie!' I heard Mary say, 'Whatever will I say to Jesus when I meet Him and He asks me why I did not go to church and why I did not pray? You know I was so tired, Maggie, so tired, I just couldn't.'

"'Never mind, Mary,' the other child replied. 'When you see Jesus just show Him your hands, and He will understand.'"

A FUNNY FRENCH BEAR.

I wonder what Bruin thought of it all? For years he had looked up at just such little girls; and now one was actually in the same pit with himself. True, it was smaller than the children who usually peeked

To Awaken
the Liver

Coated tongue, aching head, biliousness, indigestion, constipation alternating with looseness of the bowels, feelings of depression and ill-temper.

These arise from sluggish, torpid action of the liver.

Relief comes after the use of one of Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and cure with a few weeks after the use of this great regulator of the liver.

With the liver right there is usually no disturbance of the digestive system or bowels. Therefore get at the cause of trouble by awakening the liver to action by use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Mrs. L. Phillips, Virgil, Ont., writes:—"I have used a number of boxes of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and consider them excellent for torpid liver."

through the railings; and then it was finely dressed, and had long, flowing hair, and eyes, nose and mouth, too, just like other children.

The comical expression of his countenance as he held the wax figure within a few inches of his nose brought shrieks of laughter from the onlookers above, and no one enjoyed the fun more than the baby who had accidentally dropped the doll in the first place. Nurses lifted their little tots higher, that they might get a better view, and larger children squeezed between the French, English and American visitors, who always flock to this famous Jardin des Plantes, and who now thronged to this bear pit especially.

Their exclamations and merriment did not disturb Bruin, though, for he was too much interested in his new-found possessions. Sometimes he held it in both paws, sometimes he clasped it in one arm. It was too little a child to hug, even if he had wished to do so, and he must have wondered why it did not cry out, kick or bite, or make some sort of resistance.

Plainly, if ever a bear was puzzled that bear was. If he thought it a little human cub—and I should not be surprised if that is just what he did think—he must have had a mighty poor opinion of all those grown-up creatures who would not risk their lives to save the little one. Accidentally his nose tilted the stylish hat off, and when, some few minutes later, his huge paw as unintentionally knocked off that curious cub's head, so that the sawdust was streaming out, I wondered, indeed, what he could have thought of it all.

Now, do you suppose he thought, as he glanced up at all those laughing people leaning far over the railing, that, because they looked like the doll, they were stuffed with sawdust, too?—St. Nicholas.
