Surnames and Their Origin

HARMAN
Harmon, Harmer, Hardin, Hadwin, Urmynson, Herman, Armard, Anglo-Saxon, also German-French.
The name of Harman is one of the great number of variations of it that are to be found throughout northern Europe, and which have come into the United States from several different countries.
As a family name, of course, it developed from a given name, that of Herman. At least, that is definitely certain so far as the English and the forms are concerned. But the nature of Herman as a given name leaves room for the possibility of not the probability, of a development in Germany.
The name is a compound of two old Teutonic words: "eor," a word denoting divinity in pre-Christian days, and "man," signifying humanity. Thus the word came to denote "divine humanity," which was the nearest method the old Teutons had of signifying "brotherhood of man" or "the general public," and it came to be used later to denote a soldier, or "guardian of the people." Afterward it came to be used as a personal name. The ancient "eor," of course, is the basis of the modern "German," meaning variously "Lord," "Sir," or "Mr." and it is regarded as possible though not likely, that in some instances the German forms of Hermann, Herrman and Herrmann developed from this rather than the given name.
Armand is the French form. The rest of the foregoing variations are all English.
Those familiar with their Roman history will recognize the Latinized form of the given name in Arminius. The given name was widespread in medieval England as Armin, Urmyn and Harmer, as well as Hardkin.

FAIRCHILD
Variations — Fairbairn, Fairbrother, Fairson, Beaufix, Beaufitz.
Racial Origin — Anglo-Saxon and Norman-French.
Source — Titles or nicknames.
The most puzzling of all family names to those of modern times are the ones which are founded on words of relationship. With the exception of "son" used as an ending, we wonder how such words as child, brother, father and the like could be used to designate or differentiate one family from another.

Try This on Your Doc.
A printer received an inquiry from a surgeon who wanted bids on several thousand letter-heads, different sizes, grades and colors, and he wanted the form held standing.
The printer wrote back: "Am in the market for one operation for appendicitis, one, two, or five-inch incision, with or without ether; also with or without nurse. Quotations must include putting appendix back and cancelling the order if found sound. Successful bidder is expected to hold incision open for sixty days, as I expect to be in the market for an operation for gallstones, and I want to save the extra cost of cutting."

NERVOUS INDIGESTION Some of Its Causes and How Relief May be Obtained.

Many people suffer from nervous indigestion. The commonest causes are worry, over-work, lack of exercise, or a general run down condition of the system. It is a disease of the nerves rather than of the digestive organs, and is corrected by giving needed nourishment to the nervous system and building up the blood.
The treatment consists largely in rest, recreation and the use of a true tonic such as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. In addition, the patient should follow a careful diet, and avoid coffee and stimulants, these being unsuitable for nervous people. As one's nerves rely for nourishment upon the blood, the latter must be built up and made rich and pure, which is just what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do. If there is loss of weight and pallor, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are especially helpful. Mrs. Adolphus Villeneuve, R.R. No. 2, Apple Hill, tells as follows how she obtained relief:—"I was so bad with nervous indigestion that I could not digest anything I took, and as a consequence was a great sufferer. I doctored for four months, but seemed to be getting worse instead of better. I lost strength to such an extent that I could hardly go about. Then my mother came to see me, and urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I followed her advice and got a supply at once. After taking a few boxes I felt my strength returning, and I continued their use, until at the end of a few months I could eat anything I desired, had regained my old time health and strength, and was in every way a well woman. I am so thankful for what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills did for me that I always advise their use when any of my friends are run down or ailing."
You can get these pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50c a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

CHILDHOOD INDIGESTION

Nothing is more common in childhood than indigestion. Nothing is more dangerous to proper growth, more weakening to the constitution or more likely to pave the way to dangerous disease. Fully nine-tenths of all the minor ills of childhood have their root in indigestion. There is no medicine for little ones too equal Baby's Own Tablets in relieving this trouble. They have proved of benefit in thousands of homes. Concerning them Mrs. Jos. Lunette, immaculate Conception, Que., writes: "My baby was a great sufferer from indigestion, but the Tablets soon set her right, and now I would not be without them." Baby's Own Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Upper or Lower?

The man, says the Epworth Herald, had just informed the agent that he wanted a berth on the train.
"Upper or lower?" inquired the agent.
"What's the difference?" asked the man.
"A difference of fifty cents in this case," replied the agent. "The lower is higher than the upper. The higher price is for the lower. If you want it lower, you'll have to go higher. We sell the upper lower than the lower. In other words, the higher the lower. Most people don't like the upper, although it is lower on account of its being higher. When you occupy an upper you have to get up to go to bed and get down when you get up. You can have the lower if you pay higher, the upper is lower than the lower because it is higher. If you are willing to go higher, it will be lower."
But the poor man had fainted.

Largest Unexplored Area.
One of the largest unexplored areas in the United States lies in a triangular space, between the Colorado and the San Juan River, in southeastern Utah. Here an area as large as some of the smaller Eastern states still remains practically unknown to white men.

How to protect goods from the attacks of worms has always been a hard problem for packers of dried fruits and cereals. A new process exhausts the air in a steel drum in which the food is placed and then fumigates the contents with carbon disulphide. Exhausting the air distends any living tissue that there may be in the fruit or cereal, whether worm or egg. That opens the pores and separates the cells so that when the gas is turned on it fills the spaces and poisons the insect or kills the egg.

Misunderstandings may separate friends far more widely than either time or space.

The Colt.
Oh, what a wild and venturesome young thing,
That playful colt that leaps the pastures bare!
It is the forth expectant of all things;
Thrilled with the magic of its sudden bound
Into the freedom it had thought to gain,
While chafing restles at its mother's side.
Behind those small, confining wooden bars.
Its trots awhile ecstatic at the change
To freedom from the bondage of the past;
With head and tail erect it scorns the barn,
Looks up and down the road, and far beyond
The world lies waiting to be won or lost.
Waiting to see how fine a beast it is;
And then the young colt learns it is alone—
Thrown on its own resources at a bound,
Around the turn a strange, discordant noise;
Nearer it draws—in panic flees the colt!
Where now its courage, joyous confidence?
On, it flies before this throbbing hum;
No sense to turn aside from out the road;
Scared little horse, some day you'll understand.

In Other Words, Pay in Advance.
Automobile tourists are likely to meet with amusing experiences in their travels round the country. The Morris family drove into a small Western town some time ago, dog tired.
"Let's go to a hotel to-night," said Billy. "I'm too tired to get this tent off and set it up!"
"All right," Mr. Morris replied. Accordingly the party sought out the one hotel in the town. "Can you give us two adjoining rooms?" Mr. Morris said to the proprietor.
"Yeah, I guess I can," was the reply. "They'll be two dollars apiece or four dollars for the two."
A minute later, laden with baggage, Mr. Morris and Billy reentered the hotel, followed by Mrs. Morris and Alice, the little girl.
"Show us to our rooms now, will you?" said Mr. Morris.
"Yes, sir. They'll be two dollars apiece or four dollars for the two of them," the proprietor replied.
"Sure, I know," Mr. Morris agreed. "I've got my hands full now; I'll pay you in the morning."
"All right," the proprietor answered nonchalantly. "I'll show you to your rooms in the morning then."
