

Huntingfield.

It is reported that Mr. E. Teskey intends to return to his farm. A year or so ago he rented it to Mr. Hutchison, but he soon got tired of village life and we welcome him back to this neighborhood again.

There was a great Reform meeting held in Mildmay on Friday night last, several from this neighborhood being present. The meeting was, of course, strongly in favor of Truax.

Sleighting is simply elegant. The roads are fine while the woods is not full enough of snow to make chopping and logging difficult. The consequence is that all who can are busily employed in cutting wood and saw-logs.

Death has claimed another victim in the person of Mr. Wm. Wynn, who died on Monday evening last after a short illness of only one week. He had reached the advanced age of 86 years.

Mr. Thos. McMichael has been quite poorly for the past few days. We hope soon to be able to see him out again.

The Grip has not entirely left this section yet. Mrs. S. Vogan had an attack of it last week, but is now much improved.

We expect to see Mr. Thos. Ritchie home again soon completely cured.

Belmore.

Mr. J. Terriff of this place led a young lady from near Clifford to the hymenial altar last Wednesday, 3rd inst. They are now living in Belmore. We wish the couple joy, happiness and prosperity.

Mr. Geo. Brimmer arrived home last Saturday.

Mr. Jas. Flemming was away attending the funeral of his brother-in-law. This is the second brother-in-law they have buried within a few weeks. His sister Ellen who was sick there for some time returned with him.

Mr. Jno. Wisner was married on Monday, 1st inst.

Mrs. (Rev.) A. C. Stewart was called away last Thursday to Toronto to see her mother, who is sick.

The excitement is raising over the coming elections.

Fordwich.

MARKET REPORT, Tuesday, Feb. 9th. (Reported for the GAZETTE by Wilson Bros.)

A large number of people from this place attended the concert in Wroxeter last Wednesday evening. They thought it was a grand success.

Part of the brick of the front wall of Mr. Wyness' store gave away on Thursday at 12.30 P. M., and came to the sidewalk with a crash. But happily no person was on the sidewalk at the time or they would have been instantly killed.

It has been reported that some persons of this burgh had been helping themselves very freely to some wood belonging to the school. They were tracked for some distance. The trustees have put doors on the wood-shed, so the intruders will have to visit some other place or else find wood in a different manner than stealing.

Messrs. Stinson and McDermott shipped two car-loads of cattle from this place on Thursday last for Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Hepinstall of this place are at present visiting their son in St. Thomas.

Mr. Chaplain Harris of Manitoba has been visiting his father, Mr. Daniel Harris.

The lecture which was to have been given in the Methodist church last Thursday evening by the Rev. Mr. Smith, of Harriston, on "Ireland and the Irish," was not given on account of Mr. Smith being very ill. Very many were disappointed and hope to hear him soon.

Mr. Amos Willis has been suffering very bad with la grippe.

Mr. Rapp, of Listowel, was in town last week.

Messrs. Bolton and Rapp were around with a petition to get licence for the Arlington House but failed. Mr. B. was once a great temperance man. What is he now?

Mr. John Clegg, of Gorrie, is talking of moving to this place.

A machinist from Galt has been placing the machinery in Mr. Dick's new mill.

Mr. Jos. Crosier, of Drayton, was in town last week.

Mr. A. G. Whitner, of Belleville, gave Fordwich a call on Tuesday morning.

Mr. Jas. McDermott is visiting friends in Simcoe county.

We are pained to report the death of Mr. John Gibson, a promising and highly esteemed young farmer living a few miles east of here, on the 6th concession, which occurred on Friday last from some unknown illness. He had been ill for a week or so with an ordinary illness, and was recovering nicely, but he suddenly took an unforeseen turn for the worse and in spite of the best efforts of two skilled physicians, he died at one o'clock p. m. Deceased was a strong, robust young man of only 26 years, of a genial, jovial disposition and his death came not only as a surprise but as a heavy blow to his hosts of friends. He leaves behind to mourn his loss, a father, mother, five brothers, four sisters, a wife (formerly Miss Scott, of this village) and one little child. His funeral occurred on Sunday last and the procession was over one mile in length.

Mr. H. Haase sold his house and lot, one acre, near Strome's mill, the other day, to Mr. J. Moss, who returned from Manitoba last fall.

Mr. James Spence, brother of Dr. Spence, is expected to take possession of the temperance house here on April 1st next.

Mrs. Andrew Wilson, accompanied by Masters Blair and George Wilson, is visiting with her brother, Dr. John Bell, Detroit, at present.

Mr. James McCracken, of Bluevale, spent Saturday and Sunday at Mr. Paul Powell's, Glenfarrow.
