A CHINESE VIEW.

The Christian missionaries who luckily succeeded in escaping death at the hands of the fanatical Boer hordes, and who are now either in the Chinese coast towns, in Japan or who have crossed the Pacific, will hardly increase the sympathy felt for them by the memorial which they have presented to the Powers in which they express their views and make their suggestions as to the permanent settlement of all trouble such as at present exists.

It will be quite impossible to have peace in China so long as foreign missionaries are allowed to interfere with the institutions of the country, and no government at Peking can be strong enough to protect unpopular missionaries throughout so vast an empire.

THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT.

It would seem by an editorial in the Sunday issue of the Victoria Colonist, which is the organ of Premier Dunsmuir, that a decision has been arrived at by the head of the Provincial cabinet to put the Provincial administration on a somewhat different footing from that which is the organ of Premier Dunsmuir.

It would be the wisest thing that Premier Dunsmuir could do to make his cabinet strictly non-political and fill it with the shrewdest and best men to be found in the House.

KRUGER'S FLIGHT.

Boer prisoners are still being conveyed to the island of St. Helena for safe keeping till the trouble in South Africa has been settled, and the last convoy that arrived there found General Cronje and his captive companions preparing a big celebration of Oom Paul's birthday.

In London, the other day, two Kruger relics were disposed of at auction, and there was quite keen competition for their possession.

FRANCE SPOILING FOR A FIGHT.

While France is apparently deeply interested in the disposition of the Chinese question, and is as anxious as any of the other European nations to obtain her due share of the spoil, if any division is to be made, neither her people nor her government are as desirous of Chinese territory as they are of obtaining a long looked for revenge on Great Britain.

RHODES IN POLITICS.

With the successful termination of the South African war Cecil Rhodes, "the Cape Colossus," is again about to enter the political arena.

admiration and regard of the British residents in South Africa, and when he is again elected to the House, he may be very certain that his immense ability and force of character will do the rest in making him what he was formerly, the most powerful man in Cape Colony, which means in all the British possessions in the south of that continent.

LOW GRADE COPPER.

In many copper mines the richer bodies of ore have been exhausted and the remaining rock is of a character too poor in metal to repay the expense of bringing it to the surface and working it for its metallic contents.

FIGHT IN THE PHILIPPINES.

Despite the number of troops which have been sent to the Philippines and the amount of money and energy which has been expended in the campaign there, the war still hangs on and the subjugation of the natives seems to be as far off as ever.

MURDER FOR INSURANCE.

Some five years ago in Eastern Canada there was a regular epidemic of murder for insurance, and in the course of a year and a half five celebrated trials were heard in Ontario alone.

the same band of ruffians. It is possible that the danger of detection and the fear of death at the hands of the executioner is not sufficient to deter those reckless and abandoned characters, who seek in this world to prey on human life and society, and that some other form of punishment must be added to render the law effective.

LIPTON WILL TRY AGAIN.

Sir Thomas Lipton has decided to make another attempt to capture the America's cup, and is building a new boat for this purpose.

SCATTERING THEIR WEALTH.

Andrew Carnegie, according to the despatches, has given the town of Hawick, Roxburgh county, Scotland, the sum of £10,000 sterling with which to found a public library.

Considerable capital, of a political nature is attempted to be made by the Conservative organs in the East out of the letter written by Mr. H. H. Cook, in which he severs his connection with the Liberal party.

LABOR CANDIDATES.

A number of the Conservative papers of Ontario, and among them the Toronto Telegram, are attacking Mr. Ralph Smith and are attempting to persuade the labor candidates in the east, that they cannot accept him as a leader.

It has been said that it takes from but three generations from the peddler to the millionaire, and three generations bring the family back to the peddler again.

puts him out of the list of labor candidates. In addition to this the Toronto Telegram accuses him of having done his best "to strike down a government in British Columbia which was pledged to operate the best theories in the platform of the people's party."

LABOR CANDIDATES.

The whole intention of such articles as this in the Telegram is to assist such Conservative candidates as Mr. E. F. Clarke, who in the last parliament was one of the members for West Toronto.
