AUSTRIAN OFFICIAL

Vienna, Nov. 2.—The general Italian offensive, which has been in progress for a fortnight, has been met successfully by the Austrians, war office announcement says, and is beginning to decline. The announcement follows:

The third Italian attack against our coastal front, which began on October 18, and was renewed with fresh troops on October 22, begins to fail. "The enemy advanced on Sunday against the northern edge of the lofty Dobrodo plateau with strong forces which, however, were weak at several points. The attack was in vain and no longer general. Though the battle may again flame up, the attempted offensive on the main front with at least 25 infantry divisions (300,000 men) which the Italians commanded with brave words, has collapsed on the unshakable wall of our victorious troops.

On the Isonzo front the battle of a fortnight's duration represents a gain for our arms. Our front throughout is unchanged. Likewise the defenders of the Tyrol and Carinthian fronts retained firmly the positions they have heroically held since the beginning of the war.

Through these successes our army has proved again how idle and untenable are all the claims of our erstwhile ally to the southwest frontier territory, which he thought he was able to conquer by a treacherous attack in the rear.

In the battles of the second half of October, the enemy lost at least 150,000 more men."

Laid at Rest

F. J. MARKS.

The funeral of Mr. F. J. Marks took place yesterday from his late residence, 25 Walter Street to Mount Hope cemetery. The service was conducted by Mr. Cook of Toronto, assisted by Mr. Murray.

You'll Find Our Eyeglasses Equally Satisfactory

They are made to stay on without pinching. Not every pair of eyeglasses will do this. And the style of the mounting is not always at fault. No matter how well a mounting is constructed, it must necessarily be carefully adjusted to fit your particular nose or it cannot give satisfaction.

These little adjustments must be made by an optician who knows how. We have gained that knowledge from long experience.
