ERIEAU

The Popular Summer Resort Had Many Chatham Visitors Yesterday.

Among the Chathamites who yesterday Sundayed at the Eau were A. Park, W. E. Campbell, Tom Campbell, Mr. Woodhouse, S. B. Arnold, C. C. Greening, G. K. Atkinson, A. F. Falls and wife, T. J. Rutley, W. H. Harper, James Holmes, F. F. Quinn, W. R. Hall, Geo. B. Merritt, Jr., Miss Bounsell, Geo. Bounsell and family, C. E. Beeston, H. A. Hall.

A. Park's beautiful skiff "Evelyn" has arrived at the Eau. Jim Sheldon's house has been painted, and looks well.

Tom Campbell, Woodhouse, and Fritz Falls caught a nice mess of fish Saturday night, some of them were sent out on the train Saturday.

The Eau was too rough Sunday for boating. J. E. Thomas' sail boat looks fine with its new coat of green paint. She has not been put in the water yet.

The Baden Powell has been painted white, but has not yet been launched for the season; her new spar and scow came out on the train Saturday.

The Stephenson estate cottage "Chicopee," has a sign on "To Rent, apply to Thos. Scullard."

Miss Bounsell has had her cottage painted and has rented it to Cleveland people for the season.

The "Pioneer" cottage is improved with a fresh coat of paint.

The Kaupgrover is open, and doing business. A good line is kept of all needed at Chatham prices.

The yacht Winina is at anchor in the Eau. S. B. Arnold and C. E. Beeston went out to launch her Saturday.

Unless some repair is made to Centreville platform, some one will be hurt, as some of the planks are rotting. It is hoped by the residents of Centreville, who are more numerous than any other part of the Eau, that the Lake Erie will build a covered platform.

There is no means of life saving at the piers, and should anyone fall over there is nothing to catch hold of as the piers are constructed without leaving an opening between the timbers. The government should put ladders up from the water and provide life preservers at intervals on the piers.

The Lake Erie are making good progress in their spiling for their coal hoists.

The new tank has been painted. A merry-go-round has arrived to make the young enjoy the summer.

W. R. Fellows has his boats all in shape for the season.

A petition is being circulated and signed by the voters, to the township of Harwich, to appoint someone to look after the sanitary condition of the Eau, during the summer. This is a move in the right direction.

Will Campbell has donned his khaki sweater and Arch Park, was seen in his red sweater as usual. With these two familiar objects the Eau looked natural.

SERVICE OF SONG

Devotees of the delightful in sacred song—and there are many in the Maple City—thronged the Park street Methodist church last evening on the occasion of the special musical service, presented under the direction of Miss Ethel Webster and signaling the last Sunday of Miss Lillian Pratt's contributions as organist, prior to her departure on a tour in the Old World.

The service was exceptionally pleasing. The large choir included 32 voices—twelve sopranos, six altos, three tenors and eleven basses—and sang with strength and expression. The two choral selections, "Blessed is He that Cometh," and "By Babylon's Waves," both by Gounod, were well rendered and very enjoyable, the bass solo in the latter being splendidly sung by J. W. Plewes.

Other very appropriate numbers were the solo, "Fast for To-day," by Horace S. Davis, and the duet "O Loving Saviour," by Misses Webster and White.

Bingham's inspiring solo, "The Promise of Life," was exquisitely sung by Miss Webster, who is the possessor of a clear and rich soprano voice, which admirably combines strength and sweetness. Miss Webster sings with wonderful power and expression and will prove a valued acquisition to Chatham's already celebrated vocal circles.

A major moiety of the success of the service is due to the excellence of Miss Pratt's contributions as organist. Her dual voluntary selections, Sullivan's Lost Chord and Andantino by Lemaire, were magnificently played, and the more subtle and delicate manipulation of keys and stops, which has evidenced Miss Pratt's genius as an accompanist, were exhibited throughout the choir work, and aided materially in imbuing the singing with expression. In no part of the service was this demonstrated to greater effect than in the singing of that martial hymn, "Onward, Christian Soldiers."

CO. COUNCIL IN SESSION

It was moved by Mr. Ross, seconded by Mr. Robinson, that this Council issue debentures of about $400 for repairs to Kent Bridge and $8,000 for jail and county property repairs.

The report of the Finance committee was referred back to permit of the Treasurer's estimates being reconsidered.

The Council resumed Saturday morning with Warden Rankin in the chair.

Lawyer Watson and D. Davy were heard within the bar in reference to repairs required by the Ridgetown C. I. The gentlemen were both trustees. They had the plans of the proposed repairs and asked a grant of $1,200 from the County.

Mr. VonGuten said that he had seen Ridgetown Collegiate Institute and was surprised. The interior was dark and dull and the seats were out of repair. The Chatham school was a model of neatness. He appreciated it as being a splendid institution. The County helped both schools, and why should the Chatham C. I., a purely city school, be favored at the expense of Ridgetown C. I., a County school. The grant should certainly be made.

It was moved by Mr. Beyer, seconded by Mr. Crowder, that this County make a grant to the Ridgetown Collegiate Institute of one thousand dollars for repairs. The motion was referred to Finance.

Mr. Morrison said Ridgetown had got a $1,000 towards their new town hall.

Mr. Sifton said that the town hall was Ridgetown's own, while the R. C. I. belonged to the whole County. Mr. Sturgis said the grand jury had visited the school and felt that the school needed repairing. He didn't consider it as safe to send the pupils there until repairs were made.

The Council then adjourned for dinner.

Records are not broken by chance or accident. Sales have been biggest because values have gone ahead of all previous years. Value, variety and style—each keyed a little higher than ever before. Just a word of prices, but you cannot judge without seeing the stock.
