Had Confidence in the Men.

The transaction with the Kamloops Tumber Co. was the next matter inquired into by Mr. Shepley. When the proposition was first submitted by Mr. Foster, Col. Davidson, having had experience in lumbering, was "chary" of it. Mr. Foster informed him that Messra Irwin and McCormick were going into it, and that they had an option upon the limit and mill. As he knew these gentlemen to be experienced lumber men, and had great confidence in them, he replied that if they were going this it he would be prepared, if he had money of his own available, to put it in the project. He was informed that Mr. Fowler was also going into it, and he understood the parties were putting their own money into the transaction, ur, what was the same thing, they were responsible, and the Union Trust was advancing the money. Personal interests Not Disclosed.

He had no knowledge that Messrs. Fowler, McCormick and Irwin, who inspected and reported on it, had any personal interest in any of the property, and was not aware that the real price of the Kamloops property was $170,000, and not $225,000. He did not remember what was paid for the Okanagon property, but thought the company was getting a fair deal from Messrs.

Towler, Irwin and McCormick. He was not aware that all the money, including operating expenses, that had been paid into that puberly, for which the Kamloops Co. paid $177,000 and $42,000.
Additional for the logs cut was $00,000.
Neither was he aware that Mr. Foster had an interest in the ownership of the stock held by Mr. Fowler.
With respect to the transaction between the Great West Land Co. and Messrs. Pope and Fowler, Col. Davidson said he thought all the lands selected by the parties helding the option were being turned over, and was not aware that Pope and Fowler held back 7,000 acres for themselves.
Mr. Schofield's Evidence.
Mr. Schofield, general manager of the Standard Bank, said he had joined the land purchasing company at the suggestion of Matthew Wilson. At the first meeting Mr. Foster thought it better to have only 50 per cent, peid up, and $2,000.

As to the 7,000 acres of land lost in the shuffle, he had been told they were under water. He did not know that the company paying for 200.000 acres was getting only 193,000. The details of the 8,640 acres' deal were also kept from him. As to the giving up of the bonus stock, he thought it was because the Union Trust were anxious to become mortragees.

to become mortgagees.

To Matthew Wilson, Mr. Schofield admitted he knew from the start the syndicate was making 50 cents an acre.

R. E. Levesconte made a statement that the $250,000 Fowler-Ryan option. which he had said was drawn by him, was only of his composition, with the exception of one entry which had been

Mr. Wilson Volunteers a Statement.

Mr. Matthew Wilson, K.C., asked that he be allowed to put in a written statement of his position.

Mr. Shepley, while glad to receive any statement by Mr. Wilson, declined to allow it to go on the record.

Mr. Wilson intimated that he would give a copy to Mr. Shepley, and that he intended giving his statement publicity.

Mr. Shepley admitted that he could not prevent Mr. Wilson giving any statement to the press, but said he strongly deprecated such a course. Mr. Wilson must, however, be the judge of his own method.
