NEW BRUNSWICK OIL.

Meeting of Petroleum Company at Moncton—Satisfactory Results of Boring.

MONCTON, N. B., Dec. 5.—An adjourned meeting of the New Brunswick Petroleum Company was held here this morning. Hon. H. R. Emerson presiding. The directors asked further time to report on the proposed subletting of areas for exploration. During the discussion it came out there had been no authorized announcement of an intention to place stock upon the market or a present intention of offering stock for sale.

Information was also given to stockholders respecting satisfactory results of boring at the wells and it was hoped within a comparatively few days to have some definite idea as to new borings in Albert county, which are being pushed with great rapidity.

The meeting adjourned until Monday, Dec. 30, when it is expected the directors will be able to report for the future.
