The Poet's Corner. Boy and Schoolmaster.

You've quizzed me often and puzzled me long, You've asked me to cypher and spell, You've called me a dunce if I answered wrong, Or a dolt if I failed to tell

Just when to say lie and when to say lay Or what nine sevens may make, Or the longitude of Kamschatka Bay. Or the I-forget-what's its name lake, So I think it's about my turn, I do,

To ask a question or so of you.

The schoolmaster grim hopened his eyes, But said not a word for sheel surprise.

Can you tell what 'phen-dubs" means? I can.

Can you say all oif by heart
The "onery tweery ickery ann."
Or tell "alleys" and "commons" apart?
Can you fling a top, I would like to know.
Till it hums like a bumble-bee?

'Anyou make a kité yourself that will go
'Most as high as the eye can see,
Till it sails and soars like a hawk on the wing.
And the little birds come and light on its string?

The schoolmaster looked, oh! very demure, But his mouth was twitching. I'm almost sure. Will answer, fire away; but not a line Committee. Can you tell where the nest of the oriole swings, Or the color its eggs may be?

We have been all along surprised how the dectors of Lemnox persuaded themselves to elect A. H. Roe as their representative in the Legislature. That surprise has been increased upon reading the evidence taken in the case of Roe v. Snider, and published in the Exposs. The defendant was a clergyman, who in the interests of respectability, decocycly and morality, did what he could to induce the people to reject Roe, Tory candidate, whom he had understood to have called the Saviour a bastard and a thief, and to have addressed to Virgin Mary even more opprobrious terms. Roe heard of Snider's actions, and be cause the latter would not apologise for his alleged slander he was prosecuted, the trial commencing at the Najanec Assizes on Thursday, continuing on Friday, and ending in the nonsuiting of plaintiff.

There were but three witnesses for the prosecution, once who heard Mr. Snider's recital of Roe Sa language, the M.P.P. Himself, who denied emphatically that he ever used the expressions imputed to him, and one who corroborated what occurred as regards Roes conner-with the correct of the corroborated what occurred as regards Roes conner-with the corroborated what occurred as regards Roes conner-with the recital of Roes Sa language, the M.P.P.
