PATROL SINKS SUB.

LONDON, To-Day.

Near Blacksod Bay, on the western coast of Ireland, an armed patrol steamer was the victor in a fight with a German submarine in British coastal waters. While the steamer was in Blacksod Bay, word was brought that a German submarine was firing on a merchant ship outside Achil Head. The patrol steamer went right out and an hour later sighted a submarine painted black, about two miles off. When the patrol steamer was about 800 yards off she began to use her guns. All the shots were effective and the submarine attempted to get away, but the patrol steamer maintained its fire. Suddenly a lot of smoke was seen coming from the aft side from the conning tower of the U-boat, and it stopped. Its stern then began to sink and soon the conning tower disappeared, and only the fore part of the sub. was above water. After a moment the sub. disappeared entirely, leaving a large cloud of smoke. The patrol steamer waited about the vicinity for two Hours but saw no further trace of the U-boat.

Sir J. Fortescue Flannery, member for Maldon Division of Essex, announced to-day that he would call attention to the First Lord of the Admiralty, in the Commons, to the remarkable heroism and seamanship displayed by the American crew of the destroyer Parker in rescuing nine survivors, including the unconscious navigating officer, of the hospital ship Glenart Castle, sunk in Bristol Channel late in February.

Marine Enquiry.

(Wednesday's Proceedings.)

CAPT. JAMES' CAREER.

Chief Officer William James, sworn and on being examined by Mr. Dunfield, said: I was first officer on the Florizel on her last voyage. I am a master mariner. My certificate is No. 376. I have been in her on different occasions since 1911. I went to sea when 17 years old. In Dec. 1900 I came out to Newfoundland. I am a native of Greenwich, Scotland. I am 35 years of age. I was sent out by Baine, Johnston & Co., and I then served my apprenticeship on the Lavinia, which lasted 5 years and 3 months. I passed as ordinary mate and got my certificate in 1906. I then went to sea in the s.s. Stord, owned by Revillon Bros., which voyage lasted a little over a month. I went to Hudson Bay and back as chief officer. I next sailed as mate in the Clementine, owned by A. Goodridge & Sons; from her I went to the Cordelia as mate. I next joined the Adventure as chief officer in 1908. I remained on her for one and a half years. I was at the ice in her. She is an ice-breaker. She had a cutaway bow and was specially strengthened. I had a lot of experience in slob ice in her. I was sometime in Goodridge's Bella Rose, and the Attila owned by Baine Johnston. I went across in the s.s. Aurora to London when she was sold. I went as chief officer. I joined the Red Cross Line and came out in the s.s. Stephano when she was new. I had experience in her in ice coming from Halifax and New York. I was appointed as third officer in 1911 to the Florizel. I was next transferred to the Rosalind. I was in her nine months, till navigation closed on the St. Lawrence. I was again transferred to the Stephano as 3rd officer but after one trip I was again transferred to the Rosalind and remained on her till she was sold in 1912. I was again sent back to the Florizel as third officer and remained on her till 1914. I was then transferred as second on the Stephano and was on her till she was torpedoed in October, 1916. I was on the Stephano for two winters. I was put in charge of the Neptune in Dec., 1916 for one voyage. In February, 1917 I was in charge of the s.s. Ranger. I was in charge of her till I was transferred to the Florizel on her last trip. The Neptune and Ranger were wooden ice-breaking ships. I had experience in the ice with the Neptune.

Injured at Cemetery.

Yesterday afternoon a man named Murphy, employed by Mr. S. G. Collier, had one of his legs badly injured while attending a funeral at the C. of E. Cemetery. The accident was caused by Mr. Murphy stepping on one sharp spikes that formed part of an ornamental fence surrounding a grave. Cutting through his clothing it inflicted a severe wound in his leg from which the blood flowed freely. He was immediately taken to the General Haspital where his injuries were attended to. He was afterwards sent to his home off George Street.

RUNAWAY HORSE. — While the Reid Nfld. Co.'s sweeper was going west yesterday afternoon a horse owned by Cabman John Murray, standing in front of Dicks & Co., on Water St., became frightened and bolted. The terrified animal was brought to a standstill by Cabman Gladney opposite Trapnell's. The sleigh and harness suffered some damage.
