TO THE FRONT ONCE MORE. TO-THE CIVIC ELECTORS OF ST. JOHN'S.

TADIES & GENTLEMEN:—As you were kind enough to give me your valued support on the many previous occasions I sought election at your hands, I have decided to again solicit your esteem and confidence for four years more as one of your civic representatives.

civic representatives.

During the several terms I have had the great honor of being a member of the Municipal Council Board I have consistently practised the policy of conforming to your desires in so far as the civic revenue permitted.

I shall be very pleased indeed to again do my utmost towards bringing about many more essential improvements that are still necessary, and, therefore, feel that as you have so highly approved of my civic record in the past you will be pleased to again remember me on polling day.

To The Electors of The St. John's Municipality:

LADIES and GENTLEMEN .-

Having been requested by a large number of citizens and friends to place myself as a candidate in the forthcoming Municipal Elections, I have decided to comply with their request.

After making this decision, I promise, if elected to give my best attention to all matters for the welfare and advancement of the City. In making this appeal to all taxpayers, and in the event of not being able to call on you personally, I ask for your vote and

Respectfully Yours,

Kenneth Ruby.

"Please find my sister. Miss Katie Finney, and send her home. My mother is dying, and she wants to see Katie. We haven't heard from her for eight years. Won't you please send her?" The above is an extract from as pathetic a letter as Chief of Police Palmer has ever received in his mail. Steps have been taken by the poli to locate the missing girl, but it believed she has left the city. The letter was written in Cappa hayden, a tiny fishing village located in the Ferryland district, some 70 miles from St. John's, Nfid. It was penned by the girl's younger sister, Lillian, and while couched in simple language, it bears a poignant appeal. "We haven't heard from her for eight years," is the touching plea that the child puts in her note to the Chief of Police. "Mother is dying, and wants to see Katie."

On the envelope enclosing the precious letter, underneath the address, is the one word, "haste."

Whether the mother has since pass ed away still pining for the missing daughter, is a matter for speculation, but Deputy Chief Barrett gave the assurance that everything .. was . being done to trace the whereabouts of the girl. He further stated that she had been employed in a local restaurant some time ago, but has not been seen about town since, and it is feared that she may have gone to some other part of the country.—Halifax Mail.
