BENTON AND ROBERTSON ARE HEROES OF THIRD

BENTON PITCHED PERFECT GAME; ROBERTSON'S GREAT EXECUTION

ONLY TWO WHITE-HOSED ATHLETES GOT TO SECOND BASE; ROBERTSON STARTED THE ATTACK, WHICH PROVED DECISIVE

New York, Oct. 10 .- Cheered on by thousands of loyal rooters, the New Tork Nationals turned desperately upon Chicago in the third game of the world series here this afternoon, and shut out their inter-league rivals 2 to 0. It was an entirely different appearing team that faced the White Sox at the Pole Grounds. For the first time since the present struggle for baseball honors began, the Giants fought and won both victory and the breaks of the game.

As was the case in the initial contest in Chicago, the struggle developed into a pitchers' battle, but today it was Eddie Cicotte who was forced to bow before the prowess of Rube Benton. Pitted against Benton, the star of the White Sox hurling corps found a rival as skillful as he in generalship, and who refused to allow Cicotte's teammates a run to ease the strain. Only six of the visitors reached first on hits and on a fielder's choice, and of these only two saw second base. Glants Played With Dash

Behind Benton, the Giants played with a dash and brilliancy which were com-pletely missing in the two preceding missing in the two prec Despite Cicotte's fine control an deceptive curves, they smashed into the delivery of the White Sox pitching star delivery of the White Sox pitching state in the fourth inning and hammered out the two runs which spelled victory and restored their confidence for the contests to come. After the game, the Nationals expressed the belief that they would be able to repeat tomorrow and start westward Thursday night on even terms with American league opponents for the fifth game of the series, set for Saturday in Chicago. Among the fans tonight the name of Dave Robertson is praised in calal proportion with Benton. Robertson and Benton

Between them, these two diamond stars brought about the downfall of the Chicago nation when the outlook for a break of defeats was none to bright. For three and a half innings the opposing boxmen nad proved invincible and the thirty-odd thousand fans present were settling down for a hurling duel when Robertson sprang into the limelight of fame. He ended the White Sox fourth ming, attempting to penetrate the pitch ing of Benton with a great running catch ing of Benton, with a great running catch of Gandil's long, sizzing drive to right field, when he hurled himself against the concrete wall of the grandstand, and plucked the ball with one hand as it was about to strike the wall. If he had missed catch Gandil's hit would have gone for at least a two-bagger.

But Robertson was not done. He doffed his fielder's glove and stepped into the batter's box and picked one of Cicotte's sharp-breaking low balls, and drove high and far into right center.

The ball sailed upward and onward under the force of the blow until it seemed ton could not fathom Cicotte's curves, and struck out. As Burns came to bat Umpire Klem took the ball away from Catcher Schalk, and after examining it carefully, threw it into the Giants' dugout, while the crowd, scenting the "shine ball" becard vigorously. when Cicotte hurled up a new ball

Burns hit a puzzling slow grounder toward third, which scored Holke, who was half way to the plate when the bat met the ball. Clotte finelly captured the ball, tried to retire Burns at first, but his throw was wild and the batter continued

With Herzog at bat, the crowd was ting strenuously for a continuance of the hitting, but Gandil checked the raily with a wonderful running catch of the Struggle With slants' field captain's foul, which he peared one handed, as the ball was about to disappear among the spectators in one of the ground row of field benches. That was the end of the run-making for the day, for after that spectacular inning both Cicotte and Benton pitched well-nigh perfect ball. While both teams got runners on the bases the hits to bring them home never were forthcoming.

As was the case in the 2 to 1 win of Saturday, the winning pitcher was forced to deliver more balls than the defeated pitcher. Benton today pitched 109 balls to Cicotte's 97. During the fine innings which Benton pitched, the Giants' grenadier hurled 26 strikes, 38 balls, 14 white White Say weds five hits drove out 21 field-outs and fouled three bails.

Cicotte, pitching 97 times, secured 27 strikes, 13 fouls, gave 26 bails, and was fouled five times. The Giants reached him for eight hits, went out 16 times on fielding plays and J. Collins' two errors on Kauff's drives account for the remainder.

While there was little, if any advantage, While there was little, if any advantage, between the two pitchers, it appeared to many as if Benton had more on the ball Cicotte. His delivery came up with wide, sweeping curves, or broke with almost right angle elants which had the White Sox missing or popping up most of the time. The Chicago hurler varied his pitching to a greater extent than Beaton and his control was as perfect as usual. To those who saw his work in the first game, it appeared as if Cleotte was not exactly 'right.' Cleotte's record today was eight hits and two runs, while Benton let the White Sox down with five hits and no

Early in the game there was some attempt to start an organized booing against Eddie Collins, apparently in re-taliation for Zimmerman's treatment rlier in the series, but this was soon seed down. In every other respect the control was all that world series contests should be. The sky was slightly overcast and there was little wind, but the cold, damp atmosphere made wraps necessary. Who Starts Today?

With Cicotte turned back for a few days at least, the Giants' supporters are looking for McGraw to start either Schupp or Sallee in the next game, but the New statement that at last the team had got going, and that he expected them to con-tinue the winning pace from now on. So far as could be learned from the Chicago team headquarters, Manager Rowland's choice for tomorrow's game probably will lie between Faber and Russell The Box Score
