June Weddings

COLE—WRONG

Trinity church, Aylmer, was the scene of a very pretty wedding Thursday evening, June 5, when Harriet Marion, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Wrong, became the bride of Richard Cyril Cole, son of the late John Cole, of Woodstock, Ontario. The Rev. Chas. Miles M.A. officiated. The church was prettily decorated with spiraea, lilacs and hawthorne for the occasion.

Promptly at the time appointed the bride entered the church on the arm of her father, to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Mrs. W. Glen Campbell, looking very sweet in a simple gown of white georgette crepe, with embroidered bodice and skirt. She wore a full length bridal veil of tulle caught with orange blossoms, carrying a shower bouquet of roses and lily of the valley. She was preceded up the aisle by her two flower girls, Miss Margaret Arkell, cousin of the bride, and Miss Margaret Canfield, niece of the groom, both wearing frocks of white organdie, one with shell pink sash and ribbons, the other with green, carrying dainty baskets of flowers. They were followed by Miss Charlotte Mann, of Windsor, bridesmaid and cousin of the bride. She wore a blue green gown of georgette crepe over silk and Miss Kathleen Hill as maid of honor, who wore a gown of shell pink georgette crepe over silk both wearing black hats of silk tulle and pink roses with streamers of black velvet, carrying bouquets of sun set roses. George Archer, of Toronto was best man. The ushers were Messrs Harry and Norman Wrong, brothers of the bride.

Mrs. Wrong, mother of the bride, was gowned in black georgette crepe over silk, the bodice braided with silk and jet over white, with black hat trimmed in ospreys, and blue flowers and corsage bouquet of lily of the valley and sweet peas.

Mrs. Canfield, sister of the groom, was becomingly gowned in turquoise blue georgette crepe over taffeta, silk bodice embroidered, jet black hat, and corsage bouquet of roses.

During the signing of the register. Grover Beebe sang in splendid voice the beautiful solo, "O Promise Me."

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on Pine street. The guests were all relatives and near friends of the bride. Those from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Canfield, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Lefler, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cole, all of Woodstock; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Cole, of Lakeside; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Arkell, of Ingersoll; Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Arkell, of Hamilton; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Arkell, of Niagara Falls; the Misses Wilson, of London; Mrs. John McCausland, Mrs. Goode, Mr. and Mrs. D. Ferguson, Miss Ferguson, Lieut. Norman McCausland and Mr. John McCausland, of St. Thomas; Mrs. Howard Adams, of Detroit; Miss Pearl Brown, of Brantford; Capt. Gregor Ferguson, of Toronto; Miss Edith and Mr. Wm. Rundle, of Sparta. One of the pleasing features of the wedding was the number of returned soldiers present—Capt. Gregor Ferguson, Lieut. Norman McCausland, L. A. Cole, Hugh Hill, Douglas Fear, Eric Bingham and Harry Wrong.

The bride travelled in a navy blue tailored suit, with sand vestee embroidered in henna and blue hat, with sand wing to match.

BAMBRICK—ST. CLAIR

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvey St. Clair, of Malahide was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding Tuesday morning, June 3rd, when their only daughter, A. M. Edith E., became the bride of Elston Windsor Bambrick, of Windsor, Ontario, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Bambrick, of Malahide. At 11 o'clock, Miss Ina Bambrick, sister of the groom, looking pretty in a dress of pale blue, took her place at the piano and as Mendelssohn's wedding march pealed forth, the bride, lovely in a navy tailored suit of French serge, with corsage bouquet of white sweet peas, entered the drawing room accompanied by her father, and the marriage service was read by the Rev. Dr. R. H. Barnby, S.F.D., Springfield in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends of the bride and groom. Miss Claudia Staley made a pretty bridesmaid, dressed in navy tailored suit, with corsage bouquet of sweet peas and rose buds, while Andrew St. Clair, brother of the bride, assisted the groom. During the signing of the register, Miss Edith Irene Hunt, cousin of the bride, sang very sweetly "O Promise Me." The groom's gift to the bride was a diamond and pearl pendant, to the bridesmaid and pianist, gold pins, and to the groomsmen, a set of gold cuff links. After a dainty wedding breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. Bambrick left for Windsor, Ont., where they will make their home. Mr. Bambrick enlisted and trained with Elgin's Own, 91st Battalion, at St. Thomas, and with them fought for his king and country, returning wounded less than a year ago. Both the bride and groom are well and favorably known, and their many friends and acquaintances wish them a happy and prosperous wedded life.

COILENE CORSETS

THE BONING OF COILENE CORSETS

As a lady appreciates, the boning of a corset is of very great importance. The kind of boning and the arrangement of the bones very often individualize the corset. We use an exclusive boning known as 'Coilene.'

Coilene is an interlocking, woven wire bendable in any direction, flexible as the body, ventilate, resilient, rust proof and unbreakable. We use it in both heavy and light weights.

As a boning, Coilene is particularly adapted for the present fashions, as never has there been such a demand for a soft flexible corset as now. From a health viewpoint only, aside from the comfort derived from the flexible corset, it is a boon indeed. We have been using Coilene for years and appreciate its merits more and more each year we use it.

Charming Summer Dresses

Now is the time to anticipate the summer dress requirements for every occasion. Our assortment is replete with crisp, fresh and new styles, sheer, cool-looking and daintily made. Dresses of every description and at every price. Some are of crepe de chene, some of georgette, some silk and some combinations. But especially attractive are those developed from voiles, ginghams and sheer wash fabrics. Trimmings show embroidery, lace pleats and hemstitching.

You couldn't imagine how really pretty these Dresses are, Come and see them

There is No End to the Arrival of Pretty Summer Blouses

So persistent is the demand here that blouses vanish immediately from our counters, making it necessary to constantly bring new ones in to replace those passing out. Among the latest are some exquisite enough to be Parisian, and others of charming simplicity, but none the less chic. In style, variety and pricing ours is indeed a waist collection de luxe. Even if you have "waists enough" you will want one of these.
