All Refined and Fastidious Persons Use It.

Hazeline is a delightful preparation of Witch Hazel and Almond Cream. Its use brings a new sensation to the skin, a feeling of cleanliness, a freshness, the complexion soon becomes youthful, nature is given a chance to throw off all impurities.

River is paid tribute. The Daily Telegraph describes the "Canadian" as "the most gallant of the Canadians," the "Globe," "Bravery of the Canadians," and the Westminster Gazette, "Death Rather Than Surrender."

THE R. C. H. I. VOLUNTEER. Halifax, N. S., April 6.—The Royal Canadian Regiment of Infantry has volunteered for service in South Africa. The offer was made yesterday afternoon by Col. White, the commander of the regiment, to the acting general, Col. Biscoe, who is in command of the British forces in North America.

CHAMBERLAIN'S MESSAGE. Ottawa, Ont., April 6.—Lord Minto recalled the following cablegram from Joseph Chamberlain, the colonial secretary: "London, April 5.—I congratulate the Dominion on heroic conduct of Canadians in action with Delarey. Deeply regret having casualties, and desire to express heartfelt sympathy with those who have given their lives, splendid traditions of Canadian valor. (Signed), Chamberlain."

THE LIST INCOMPLETE. The list of Canadians killed and wounded in the engagement at Hart's River, or Kleinhardt, on Monday last, is as yet incomplete. The cablegram received on Friday announced that four officers had been wounded, nine non-commissioned officers and men killed, and forty non-commissioned officers and men wounded.

THE ONTARIO BOYS. Of the six of them who gave up their lives for the Empire, there were two each from Toronto, London and Guelph. The other three were one each from Peterboro, Montreal, Revelstoke, Cranbrook, B.C., and Brandon, Man. Later in the afternoon the Ontario boys were taken to the departmental copy of the service roll the names of "next of kin" of those who were above reported as killed in action.

ALL SORTS OF SURMISES. All sorts of surmises are advanced as to the scope of the action at Kleinhardt, and the particular parts performed in it by the Canadians, but only one seeming qualification which the official cablegram gives to their splendid record is the intimation that some of them fell into the enemy's hands. The expression "released men report" would certainly indicate that some of the British troops engaged were taken prisoners and subsequently set at liberty by the enemy, and the fact that they were able to give the names of two fallen Canadian comrades suggests that they were Canadians themselves.

PERSONAL TRIBUTES TO THE FALLEN HEROES. Personal tributes to the fallen heroes were paid by those who had served with them in the earlier stages of the campaign. Capt. Morrison, D. S. O., referred appreciatively to the service record of Corp. Knisley, of Toronto, who was awarded a medal for gallant conduct in rescuing the nephew of Lord Roberts at Lillifontein.

DR. MACARTHUR PRONOUNCES THEM OUT OF DANGER—CAUSE OF POISONING UNDISCOVERED. All the members but one of the family of Mr. D. H. Gillies, of 604 King street, have been confined to bed since Sunday morning, suffering from the effects of some unknown poison, which was supposed to have been taken with their food on Saturday.

ON WAKING ON SUNDAY MORNING, Mr. and Mrs. Gillies, their sons (Bert, Lawrence and Fred) and three daughters (Misses Edna and Zella), were found to be seriously ill, with symptoms of poisoning, headache and high fever. He at once applied emetics, which had the desired effect of relieving the patients considerably. Today they are still very ill, but are believed to be out of danger. Miss Alma was the only daughter not ill.

DR. MACARTHUR MADE A CAREFUL examination of the different foods partaken of on Saturday by the family, but was unable to find any suspicious conditions.

THREE LONDON MEN KILLED IN AFRICA!

Ptes. Huston, Peters and Evans Dead; John Gunn Severely Wounded.

They Enlisted for South Africa Last December. Were Engaged in Monday's Great Battle at Hart's River.

The News Made Sunday a Day of Sadness—Huston and Gunn Had Many Friends Here.

Not since the sad news of how London's boys bravely fought and bled and died, on that fatal Sunday of Feb. 18, 1900, has the meaning of war come so nearly home to the citizens of London as now, when word again comes that some of the boys who marched away in January are sleeping in death on the lonely yeld of a South African battlefield. A dispatch received yesterday, at 4:30 p.m., and bulletined immediately by The Advertiser, brought the information that the list of casualties contained the names of three brave lads who went to the war from London only three short months ago.

With no conception of the stern realities of war, with their landlegs scarcely found after their long sea voyage, and with no opportunity to acquire the drill and discipline which military experts claim is necessary to the proper conduct of a campaign, they met a superior force of war-torn burghers and gallantly held their own against them and died like heroes for King and Empire.

PTE. W. G. HUSTON. Pte. W. G. Huston, one of the two London soldiers whose life was lost on the field, had been a resident of London for five years, having come here from St. Marys, where his widowed mother and two sisters are today mourning their loss.

He was a tinsmith for the Acetylene Gas Company, and was greatly liked by his employers and his fellow-workmen. He was a charter member of the Manhattan Club, and was given a heartfelt farewell on the occasion of his leaving for the front. There was an element of romance in the circumstances under which Huston stepped into the ranks of the departing soldiers. Wm. Ogilvie, of Wyoming, had been accepted, but a few minutes before the troops departed, Ogilvie's wife came to Col. Peters, D.O.C., and pleaded that her husband be not allowed to go, as he was leaving her and her two children without means of support. The commanding officer at once called Ogilvie out of the ranks and dismissed him. Huston, who after being rejected had lingered in the hope of some such opportunity as did present itself, eagerly took the vacant place and marched away with high-

BOERS FAILED TO BREAK THROUGH CANADIAN LINES

Delarey's Burghers Met a Decisive Defeat.

Our Mounted Rifles Bore the Brunt of the Battle.

Bravery of the Canadians Won High Praise From English Newspapers—Messages From Hon. Joseph Chamberlain and Lord Minto.

London, April 5.—I. N. Forca cables: The casualty list of 174 killed and wounded is an adequate proof of the desperate fighting between the British forces under Cookson and Keir and Delarey's forces.

It is feared that the official list may be incomplete, as the casualties among the Canadian Mounted Rifles, who bore the brunt of the attack, are less serious than was anticipated. Lieut. Ryan was severely wounded, and Lieuts. MacKey, Loudon and Markham slightly. FACED A SUPERIOR FORCE. Such details as have been received show that Delarey and Kemp were in
