Interesting Lecture.

Canon Tucker lectured to a large audience in Convocation Hall at the Western University last night on "The Boxer Movement in China." The speaker condemned the treatment of the Chinese by the foreign troops, and said it was largely responsible for the outbreak of the Boxers.

Sarnia Pickpocket.

In the police court at Sarnia yesterday the young lad who went through the pockets of several London ballplayers in the Victoria Opera House Monday night, made restitution of the money and articles stolen. He pleaded guilty to the charges and was released on suspended sentence.

Surprised Popular Boy.

Master Harold Hicks, of 242 Hill street, was surprised last evening by a large number of his schoolmates who gathered at his home in honor of his birthday. An enjoyable evening was spent in music, games, etc. After doing full justice to the good things provided, the young people departed in the early hours, all having had an enjoyable evening.

Wedded in 1844.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Strong, of Dufferin avenue, today celebrated the sixty-fourth anniversary of their marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Benjamin Cronyn, on March 14, 1844, in this city, and Mr. and Mrs. Strong have lived here almost continually since that time. London numbered very few citizens and houses in the year 1844, and Mr. and Mrs. Strong, it is needless to say, have been the witnesses of many great changes since that time.

A Disclaimer.

The local hackmen who do business on the stand complain that an announcement in the papers that a local hackman has agreed to take patients to the smallpox hospital at so much per head has done them an injury. They claim that people think it is one of their hacks which will be used, when as a matter of fact, none of the hackmen on the stand have any connection with the matter. The gentlemen who own hacks and who are on the stand are Messrs. Patrick

A "RARE BIT" OF PLEASURE

That hosts of men do not enjoy—genuine shoe comfort.

They're dead to it, simply because they've never worn

Astoria Shoes
$4, $4.50 and $5.00

They imagine they've enjoyed it in other makes. Whereas in reality it was only a counterfeit. Astorias are most comfortable because they're most accurately moulded to the lines of the human foot. At the same time they're the acme of correct style. It will pay you to get better acquainted with Astorias.

WEEKLY TOURNEY

Of the Tecumseh Whist Club Held Last Evening.

The weekly whist tourney of the Tecumseh Whist Club was held last evening in the clubrooms, when a splendid evening's play was enjoyed.

Messrs. Sanders and Doggerell were high for the north and south, finishing with a score of plus 3.

The east and west competition finished a tie, Messrs. Rider and Wyckoff and Benson and Parks having a score of plus 1-3.

MASQUERADE BALL

Held in the City Hall Last Night by Local Cigarmakers.

The masquerade ball given by the cigarmakers in the city hall last night proved a most enjoyable affair.

Over one hundred were present and the special prize for waltzing was won by Miss Mary Donaldson and Mr. Blackwell.

Music was furnished by the orchestra of Tony Cortese.

The committee in charge of the affair were William Galpin, chairman; R. A. Schreiber, W. Jones, E. Bonny, J. Watson, W. Hyslop, J. Hevey and A. Borland.

Although the price of tea at the gardens increased enormously during the past year, the "Salada" Tea Company did not once withdraw an iota from their high standard of what constitutes the best in teas. The advance in price, however, has at last compelled them to raise their lower-priced tea from 25 cents to 30 cents per pound.

Glasgow was visited by great darkness at noon the other day. Street lamps were lighted and shops had to switch on the electric light. The darkness was as black as night.
