LIVE HOGS TOOK JUMP PRICE ROSE TO $8.50

The Offerings on Local Market Today Were Very Light —The Quotations.

There was practically no market this morning, as the country roads are reported to be still badly drifted.

Live hegs took another advance, selling at $5.0. There was only a very small supply offered, however, even at that Hay was noticeable by its absence, as were also oats, not a load of them hav-ing been offered at a late hour this One load of wheat sold for $1 %. There is every chance that there will be a very brisk market the first day that the weather is favorable, as many of the darmers have not been able to get to the city for some weeks now, and there must be a good deal of the differenct varieties produce awaiting sale. There is a very strong demand, too, for oay and oats, as the supply in the last week or so has been very insufficient to meet the d mand.

Inspector Edwards Tells of Passing Through the Ill-Fated Train.

Inspector Edwards, who was lecturing in North Bay on Friday night, saw the ill-fated train that plunged into the Spanish River.

As he stepped off the train from Toronto the wrecked train was just pulling into the North Bay station.
"I had to pass through it to reach the platform," he stated to The Advertiser. "I looked but did not know any person on it, so I went up town. About 5 o'clock word came to North Bay that the train was wrecked and a great
