Philadelphia, thinks he has located her, t would be an easy matter to have me identify her. But she is dead. You may rest assured of that. "The story about her being here yould have had more weight if I had ot gone over to explain my friendship with Mrs. Crippen. See, we met as theatrical people. Crippen, in his de-fence, declared that instead of being lead she was in America with me. I went over on the same ship with Theresa Hun, her sister. With Inspector Dew I went to the Crippen esidence and identified my pictures. I told him everything the same as testified. There was nothing to conceal. She is not alive. Crippen's guilt was fully established." Croup is most prevalent during the ry, cold weather of the early winter nonths. Parents of young children should be prepared for it. All that is needed is a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Many mothers are never without it in their homes and it has never disappointed them. Sold by
