Dorothy Dix

*The Overworked Wife Whose Husband Is Too Pleasure-
Loving—Shall She Marry
the Unknown Man?*

Dear Dorothy Dix—I am the young mother of two children, both babies. My husband is kind at home, makes us a fair living, but is out of town a great deal at his company's expense, with no limit to the money he can spend. He has a good time and easy work, and I have found out that he has flirtations that I am afraid to investigate for fear that I will find them worse than I know. I am worn out with caring for the house and babies and have no pretty clothes, though my husband dresses handsomely; and he objects strenuously to my hiring anyone to take care of the children, so that I might have a little outing or rest. He never takes me anywhere.

Now what am I to do? I am losing my youth and good looks. I am tired of submerging my own personality, but I hate to break up my children's home. My husband is foolish about his babies, and I am not prepared to make a living. Can you advise me?

A TIED MOTHER.

Answer: When I hear pitiful stories like yours, poor, little, tired mother, and they are told to me a dozen times a day, I wish that I could back all of such husbands as yours up against a wall and shake a little sense into their dumb, stupid heads.

For, without intending it or realizing it, they are torturing to death the wives they really love, and they are throwing away the most beautiful and priceless thing in the world.

They have all the material for happiness in their hands and they are letting it slip through their fingers. They are letting their wives' love die of neglect, and then some day they are going to wake up and wonder why marriage is a failure, and why the women they married have turned into shrews and peevish, complaining, nagging wives instead of being jolly, loving pals as they were when they were first married.

DOROTHY DIX.

Dear Dorothy Dix—I am a lonely woman living in a small place where there are few men, and these few are all married. In desperation I answered an advertisement in a matrimonial paper. I have received a number of answers, but one especially interests me. Do you think I would be running a great risk to go out west to marry him? He says he is wealthy, and I never have had much. It is very alluring, but I thought I would write and consult you before deciding fully.

LOVELY.

Answer: Let me entreat you, lovely, not to do such a foolhardy thing as to go out west to marry some man whom you have never even seen and of whom you know nothing on the face of the earth. There isn't one chance in a thousand that he is even decent and respectable, to say nothing of being the kind of man that you have always thought that you would marry some day.

The right sort of men don't get their wives through advertising in papers for them. They don't want to marry the kind of women who would answer an advertisement and who would be willing to marry a man, sight unseen, because they are so crazy just to get married that they will take anything in trousers.

How can you have lived to be your age without knowing that the men who advertise for wives are nearly always crooks and adventurers, with some evil purpose in view? Don't you ever read the newspapers? If you do, you must have read of dozens of cases in which bigamists get their wives that way. There has been more than one case in which men married women with a little money and killed them, and then advertised for other

HUNT CLUB HOLDS GOLF FIELD DAY

Mrs. Geo. Little Wins Twice
During Interesting Competitions Yesterday.

Regardless of the hot weather yesterday, the golfing ladies of the London Hunt club met on the course early in the morning for their scheduled field day. The morning was taken up with driving competitions, and in the afternoon there were competitions in putting and approaching, and also a sealed hole competition.

At 12:30 there was a club luncheon, with about 40 members present. Following the afternoon's program practically all the members returned to the clubhouse for afternoon tea.

The morning results were as follows: Silver medal class, Mrs. Alma Stirling, first, and Mrs. E. B. Manning, second; bronze class, Mrs. A. J. Wright and Mrs. Eric Reid.

Mrs. George Little was first in the silver medal class for the putting and approaching, while Mrs. Stirling, Mrs. Ronald Harris and Mrs. George Bolton tied for second place, and in the bronze medal class Mrs. Ernest Williams and Mrs. Leslie Turner tied for first place and Mrs. W. C. Falls was second.

The silver medal class in the sealed hole competition was won by Mrs. George Little, while Mrs. W. G. Webster was first in the bronze medal class, and Mrs. Claude Brown second.

BOYLE MEMORIAL CLUB ELECTS MRS. TENNANT

Last Year's President Returned by Acclamation of Members.

Mrs. J. F. Tennant received an acclamation when she was returned as president of the Boyle Memorial Mothers' club at the annual meeting held last night at the school. Other officers for the coming year are: Vice-presidents, Mrs. F. Turnbull, Mrs. H. Walker; treasurer, Mrs. G. Raynard; secretary and press reporter, Mrs. M. Edwards; convener of visiting committees, Mrs. J. Marks and Mrs. T. Smith; refreshment convener, Mrs. J. Reynolds; child welfare convener, Mrs. H. Doan; program convener, Mrs. A. Greenslade.

Plans were made for a picnic to be held at Queen's park during the last week of June. Mrs. Charles Turner presided over the election and during the evening delightful solos were rendered by Miss V. Kernohan. Excellent reports for the year were presented by Mrs. F. Stokes, the secretary; Mrs. Ball, the treasurer; Mrs. Creary, for the sick committee; Mrs. McKay, for the relief committee; and Mrs. M. Thompson for the child welfare committee.

EALING MOTHERS.

A very small meeting of the Ealing Mothers' club was held last night in the school, with Mrs. Mark Ayres in the chair. Arrangements were made for a picnic to be held on July 15 at Springbank, and Mrs. J. Knowles was named convener of the sports committee.

The diocesan executive of the Huron W. A. arranged a delightful informal tea at Huron college yesterday for the members of the W. A., and the delegates to the conference now in progress at the college. Tea was served in the garden, with Mrs. David Williams and Mrs. Frank Anderson presiding over the tea. Miss Jean Waugh was in charge of the arrangements.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Price, Colborne street, entertained recently in honor of Mr. Jack Robinson and his bride, formerly Miss Dorothy Edwards of Hamilton, who have just returned from their wedding trip. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson were presented with a handsome clock, the gift of the Gerhard Heintzman staff. The Bonie Hart orchestra was in attendance and during the evening Mr. J. Armstrong, Miss Mullins and Mr. W. G. Short took part in the program.
