Mr. W. H. E. Schmalz, Gentleman-at-Arms of the Royal Military College at Kingston has come to spend his vacation with his parents Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Schmalz, Queen Street South. Mr. Willie has just in his first year at the college and has done excellent work. He passed high with honors from the first into the second class. He was first in military engineering and surveying and second in Geometric Drawing. His work in drawing was shown to General French on the occasion of his recent visit to the college, and he was highly complimented. The out door work—rowing, tennis, gymnastics, drilling, bridge building, musketry, artillery work, swimming and long route marches, is splendid physical training and he is being greatly benefited by it. We congratulate Mr. Willie on the good progress he has made.

Margaret Anglin as "Antigone." San Francisco, July 2.—Before an audience of 8,000 persons gathered in the Hearst Greek Theatre, on the campus of the University of California, Margaret Anglin and her company appeared last night in a magnificent production of Sophocles' "Antigone." In artistry and in interest, beauty and illusion, the performance surpassed all expectations on the part of the public, while Miss Anglin's wonderful playing of the part of Antigone is declared by those who have followed her to be the finest work of her career.

Baron Is a Spy. St. Petersburg, June 30.—Baron Sternberg, who was placed under arrest a few days ago by the secret police, after a search of his apartments, has been formally charged with communicating to Austria a report of a secret sitting of the Duma dealing with the new distribution of the Russian army.

Couldn't Make Her a Good Girl. Chicago, June 30.—A man registered as "Frank Thompson" shot and killed an unidentified woman and then killed himself in a rooming house here yesterday. The man left a note, in which he declared that he had failed to "make a good girl" of his companion.

Aviator Curtiss Drops Bombs. Hammondsport, N.Y., July 2.—Glenn H. Curtiss, in the mimic war tests of the aeroplane which he is making over the waters of Lake Keuka, in the presence of officers representing the navy and army, hit the battleship target beneath him in 15 of his 22 efforts, the remaining seven shots missing the target by distances ranging from 30 to 50 feet, with one exception. The aviator achieved these results while flying at a fast rate of speed at altitudes ranging from 130 feet to 900 feet, the greater number of shots being attempted from heights of about 300 feet.

The weather conditions left nothing to be desired. The chief problem which this second day's test was intended to solve was whether an aeroplane in its rapid flight through the air is capable of hurling a projectile at a battleship with sufficient accuracy to hit a target within a given number of rounds. Curtiss was first allowed four trial shots at a target which represented the bow of a battleship lying on the waters of Lake Keuka and measuring 500 feet in length by 90 feet in width. Two of the trial shots hit the target, two fell without.

In 20 feet of it. Then, in 14 flights at various elevations in the morning, 14 missiles were dropped. Of these ten hit the target, the other four falling within 50 feet of it. In the evening Curtiss made four more attempts to hit the target. Three were successful, one from a height of 900 feet.

Students Use Revolvers. Lemberg, Austria-Hungary, July 1.—The two groups of Ruthenian and Polish students of the University of Lemberg got at each other yesterday, and before the police had separated the combatants, many of the students had been seriously injured.

The feud, borne of racial jealousy, is as old as the university itself, and periodical clashes have occurred. For some time the bitter feeling has been held in bounds by the university authorities, but it broke with pronounced fury and led to a fierce battle for the possession of the campus. Hundreds of students were involved. Many of them had revolvers and these were used. When the firing began, a strong force of policemen was summoned, and the fight became a three-cornered affair. The officers finally succeeded in driving the students to cover. Broken heads were the rule, but in numerous instances injuries of a grave nature were found to have been inflicted.

Mrs. Vanderbilt Files. New York, July 2.—Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., made a flight in an aeroplane with Clifford B. Harrison over the Hempstead Plains Thursday night. Three thousand persons who went to Mineola in the hope of seeing one of the world's wealthiest little women climb on the steel behind Mr. Harrison's seat in his big skeleton-like craft, but only a few of them knew her identity.

They simply saw her sit apparently motionless in her seat, some twelve feet above the ground and wave her hand when the machine started off. After it alighted and Mr. Harrison asked her how she liked it she simply said:

"It was perfect splendid."

Then she stepped into her automobile and whisked away.

J. S. Robertson Resigns. Toronto, July 2.—Mr. J. S. Robertson, for nearly ten years executive secretary of the National Security Association, has resigned in order that he may devote his time to personal business and private affairs.

Will, don't Mr. Robertson first associated himself with this work, there was only one satisfactory in Muskoka, having accommodation for security five parties. Today there are four sanatoria, that have grown from the one room—two in Greenhurst, and two near Wrentham, with a total accommodation of the hundred and ninety-five beds.

Killed In an Elevator. Philadelphia, July 2.—John William Halahan, Jr., one of the most prominent of the young members of the Philadelphia Bar, was killed last night Thursday night when he stepped from a hotel elevator at Cape May, N.J., after the car had started. He was caught between the car and the floor, his neck being broken. Mr. Halahan, who was 25 years old, married Elizabeth O'Day, a daughter of the Duke O'Day, the Standard Oil millionaire.
