Sarnia Observer:—"At a meeting held on Tuesday evening, it was decided to form a Veterans' Association for the county of Lambton, mainly for the purpose of taking steps to secure the land grants to veterans offered by the Ontario Government. H. Gorman was named as president, and H. W.
Mills, secretary-treasurer. The subscription fee was fixed at $2. A resolution was passed in favor of sending representatives to Toronto, to obtain such particulars from the Crown Lands office as would enable members to select desirable locations at a small outlay. All those entitled to veterans' land grants who are desirous of placing the selection of their claims in the hands of the association can become members by calling upon Mr.
Mills, the secretary-treasurer, and paying the subscription fee. It is believed that good locations can be obtained by the plan favored by those present at last night's meeting, and that the cost will not exceed the $2 subscription, or at most another dollar. The Toronto Veterans' Association have issued circulars offering to locate claims of Lambton's "44th and Location and Colonization Association ask $10 for doing similar work." match box is, and people who usually want too much credit for it.

Miss Jean Hawkshaw, of Exeter, spent a few days here during the week.
Two more carloads of good for the municipal wood yard arrived yesterday.

Nothing varies so much as the performances of people make and their performances.

People like a man better if he has at least one idea of his own and sticks to it.

ing her daughter, Mrs. Darville, at guest of his sister, Mrs. W. H.

Zinn, at Petrolia.

is the guest of Mrs. Harry Southcott,

Every man would rather line up in front of a dry goods store than go inside with his wife.

The regular meeting of the Board of Works was postponed from last night until later in the week.

Mr. Peter Bindner, of Warton, has bought the C. P. R. Hotel, Richmond street, and taken possession.

joined the staff of the Merchants' Bank, at Berlin, temporarily.

and also the mortgage for $3,000 on the same.

The firemen had a run yesterday to 361 Talbot street, the Sylvester implement establishment, but their services were not required. An addition blaze. It was extinguished without the firemen's assistance.

REFUSED OMAHA; WANTED IN LONDON.

Rev. Dr. Young, Another Canadian Preacher, Turns Down Tempting Proposal.

Rev. Dr. Young, of St. Thomas, is another Canadian who refuses to be tempted across the border by a large advance in salary. The doctor this week notified his congregation of the First Methodist Church in the Ital-grand City that he would remain with them. He was invited to accept a prominent charge in Omaha, Neb.

Rev. Dr. Young.

It is known that more than one London Methodist congregation has approached Dr. Young or offered him a large salary. He has declined all with a view to inviting him to London when his pastorate in St. Thomas shall have expired. The rev. gentleman has an even fluency of speech and a brilliancy of thought that makes him an ornament to any pulpit.

AT THE GRAND.

A CLEVER COLORED COMPANY.

The company of colored artists who presented "A Trip to Coontown" at the New Grand last night were clever enough to please a large house. All parts of the theatre were well filled, and there was no disguising the fact that the popular piece, brought up-to-date in some necessary particulars, has lost none of its popularity. Sam Lucas, who appeared here with the original Cole and Johnson organization, was again in the cast as Slus Green, Sr., and his comedy work was bright and lively. Tom Brown and Siren Navarro were capital in their specialties, especially in the imitation of a Chinese wedding. The "Dusky Maldens" and "Coontown Belles" were a comedy lot of young women, with sweet, clear voices that won plenty of applause whether in chorus or solo. Miss Laura Walker in a melody of old Southern airs was a great favorite, singing in a rich, mellow soprano. W.
De Mount, as "Willie Wayside," is not slothful in his efforts, but he is not funny.

"WHEN WE WERE TWENTY-ONE"

TO-MORROW.

There are said to be many complications, and some of the finest and most dramatic situations ever presented in the Esmond's play, "When We Were Twenty-one," which is booked for the Grand to-morrow matinee and evening. The whole play is simply perfect in every detail. It is spoken of as a comedy full of amusing episodes, besides being "so tender that tears are seen everywhere."

"A FIGHT FOR MILLIONS" MON-

DAY.

Malcolm Douglas's "A Fight for Millions" will be seen for the first time in this city at the Grand next Monday night. The play is said to have achieved an instant and overwhelming success in New York.

"SERGEANT JAMES" NEXT TUES-

DAY.

Kirk La Shelle, whose various productions are remembered in Frank Daniel's Opera Company, "Princess Chic," "Arizona," and "Bonnie Brier Bush," announces his new, big production of "Sergeant James," a romantic melodrama, to open at the Grand next Tuesday evening. "The romance of an enlisted man" is the description of this play, and Montana is the locale.

With the prices of meat and coal dropping, the people have something to be thankful for.
