Report of School

There will be ushered in on Dominion Day, in the year nineteen hundred and sixteen, the Semi-Centennial of Canadian Confederation—the jubilee of the Canadian people. The outstanding importance of the event and the adequate marking of it by Canadians should now begin to possess the minds of our people and lead them to plan for its celebration on a scale proportioned to the growing greatness of Canada.

We are not a demonstrative people. Those without the borders noting this have deemed us non-patriotic. From time to time, however, the deep, strong current of national sentiment has risen against some great obstruction and demonstrated to the world that patriotism is a force in Canada and as such demands consideration and respect.

No one may read the pre-Confederation debates without being deeply stirred by the sentiments uttered by our ever-to-be-remembered Fathers of Confederation. They employed their great talents for a most noble purpose when they sank party and parochial differences, as well as racial and sectarian ones, and together fought valiantly for a principle that alone could make those divided provinces great and enduring.

Surely the greatness of the measures of our own "Fathers" will compare favourably with those of the other Fathers of a European Confederacy. Surely, too, it is the highest form of economy to preserve human lives and to conserve national treasure.

In 1917 let us witness to the world that we desire to magnify the triumph of a great idea won by clear intellects and eloquent tongues in the long ago.

LOSSES AS A RESULT OF STRIKE

Three and a half million people will suffer enforced idleness if the strike continues three weeks.

Men and women employed in dependent industries who will be thrown out of work in London alone if strike continues three weeks, 500,000.

In England and Scotland the unemployed in three weeks, if strike continues, will number 3,500,000.

Loss in wages to employees daily, $1,250,000.

Loss to employees if strike continues for one month, $33,750,000.

Loss to operators, estimating profits of production and interest on investment at 6 per cent, daily, $700,000.

Loss to railroading, shipping, to employees in allied and dependent industries will be almost beyond computation in the course of two or three weeks.

WAS A CONFIRMED DYSPYPTIC

Now Finds It a Pleasure to Enjoy Meals

Here is a case which seemed as bad and as hopeless as yours can possibly be. This is the experience of Mr. H. J. Brown, 34 Bathurst St., Toronto, in his own words:

"Gentlemen—I have much pleasure in mentioning to you the benefits received from your Na-Dra-Co Dyspeptic Tablets and can cheerfully recommend them. I simply had confirmed dyspepsia with all its wretched symptoms, and tried about all the advertised cures with no success. You have in Na-Dra-Co Dyspeptic Tablets the best curative agent I could find. It is now such a pleasure to enjoy meals with their consequent nourishment that I want to mention this for the benefit of others."

The fact that a lot of descriptions or so-called "cures" have failed to help you is no sign that you have failed to go on suffering. Try Na-Dra-Co Dyspeptic Tablets and see how quickly this sterling remedy will give you relief and start your stomach working properly. If it doesn't help you, you get your money back. Write a postal order to Na-Dra-Co, 1411 Broadway, New York, N.Y., or to the National Drug and Chemical Co., 34 Canada, Limited, Montreal.

Mr. J. E. Arseneault, a Justice of the Peace, and station master at Wellington, on the Prince Edward Island Railway, says:

"Four years ago I slipped in the station and fell on a freight truck, sustaining a bad cut on the front of my leg. I thought this would heal, but instead of doing so it developed into a bad ulcer, and later into a form of eczema which spread very rapidly and also started on the other leg. Both legs became so swollen and sore that I could only go about my work by having them bandaged. My doctor said I must stop work and lay up. "After six months of this trouble I consulted another doctor, but with no better result. I tried all the salves, liniments and lotions I heard of, but instead of getting better I got worse. "This was my condition when I got my first box of Zam-Buk. Greatly to my delight that first box gave me relief. I continued to apply it to the sores, and day by day they got better. I could see that at last I had got hold of something which would cure me, and in the end it did. "It is now over a year since Zam-Buk worked a cure in my case, and there has been no return of the eczema."

Such is the nature of the great cures which Zam-Buk is daily effecting. Purely herbal in composition, this great balm is a sure cure for all skin diseases, cold sores, chapped hands, frost bites, ulcers, blood-poison, various sores, piles, scalp sores, ringworm, inflamed patches, cuts, burns and bruises. All druggists and stores sell at 50c. box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., upon receipt of price.
