The Toronto World.

FIFTH · YEAP.

TUESDAY MORNING. FEBRUARY 26, 1884.

THE NEW ROUTE FOR WHEAT EX-PORTATION.

part in moving the resolution in ques

The Laws of Labor.

nen refusing to work on account of a re-

Perished in a Dakota Blizzard.

ixed at three years.

say the number is unlucky.

A Fatal Number.

Will Not Invade Manitoba

can organization here for the purpose of can organization here for the purpose of invading Manitoba. The rumor was started by one Maguire, formerly of Chi-cago, who made himself conspicuous by his eccentricities.

Norton Defeats Nixey.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.-In a glove fight between Charles Norton and Joseph Nixey to-night in the presence of several hundred pectators three rounds were fought, and Norton was declared the winner.

A Woman to be Hanged.

Haight, for the murder of her husband was sentenced to-day to be hanged or April 18.

UNITED STATES NEWS.

Rev. W. Wilson, a colored methodist reacher at Baltimore, has been suspended

Two young women from Bainbridges

Ga., were shot and killed by an unknown assassin at Railroad Camp near Tampa,

Wall Street Names.

From the New York Critic.

A friend-a broker-sends the following ingenious arrangement of the names of r immorality.

Fla., vesterday.

egistry free of duty.

MORRISVILLE, N. Y., Feb. 25.-Mrs

SANBORN, Dak., Feb. 25.-Fred Nelson

nd two daughters, aged 10 and 12, left

PRICE ONE CENT.

HARRY LEE'S STAGE MASH

TOSEE MY HOTHER-IN-LAW

GOVERNOR DEWDNEY'S VISIT TO THE PACIFIC PROVINCE.

Mis Was Not a Political Mission - Mr. Blake's Little Joke-A Batch of Bills

Pass Three Times. Special Despatch to The World. OTTAWA, Feb. 25.—Major-General Luard was prostrated with a mild stroke of paralysis yesterday. His condition is by no means alarming, but he will be prostrated for some time.

Hon, Mr. Blake will enquire on Thursday what the cost of the C. P. R. is,-1st, from Winnipeg to 45 miles east of the Saskatchewan; 2d, from that point to Calgary; 3d, from Calgary to the summit of the Rockies; 4th, from Callender to a point 40 miles west of Callender. At a meeting of members of parliament, who are also members of the dominion alliance a committee was appointed to draft amendments to the Scott act, which is pronounced unwork able in many counties.

amendments to the Scott act, which is pro-nounced unwork able in many counties. In answer to Mr. Lister, Sir John said the next is sue of the official Gazette would contair, the new mining regulations. Mr. Cameron raised a breeze in the nouse by asking why the government had appointed Hayteer Reed to administer the government in the Northwest territories during the leave of absence of Governor Dewdney. Mr. Cameron said Governor Dewdney. Mr. Cameron said Governor Dewdney. Mr. Cameron said Governor Dewdney had been on his way here, when he was directed to proceed to British Columbia. Sir John denied that he had been re-quested to come to Ottawa, but added that he had gone to British Columbia to visit

he had gone to British Columbia to visit his wife's mother

Mr. Blake observed that instead coming to Ottawa to visit his political godfather he had gone to British Columbia to visit his natural mother-in-law. The following bills were introduced and read a first time ;- Act to amend the Canada temperance act of 1878-Robert-Act respecting the liability of the carriers, by land-Coughlin. The house in committee. The following bills passed the final stage. Act to amalgamate the board of trade of Toronto and the Toronto Corn Exchange association-Beaty. Act to amend the act incorporating the Ocean Mutual Marine Insurance Co-Tupper.

Act to incorporate "The . provincial bank "--- MacMillan. Act to incorporate the Commercial bank

REBELS AROUND SUAKIM Mills Declared the Member for Both well by the Supreme Court. OTTAWA, Feb. 25.—There was a flutter round the obscure little buildings known as the supreme court of Canada this morn ing when the hour had arrived for deliver ing judgment in the appeal in the Both ction case. Mr. Hawkins was ab sent, and it looked as if he expected his

AU REVOIR, JOHN JOSEPH.

Chief Justice Ritchie agreed with the lecisions of Judge Galt upon all points at lying on the field at Teb. Many hundred issue. As to the ballots that had been numbered by the deputy returning officer at No. 1, Sombra, and numbers afterwards obliterated, to which appellant's counsel had attached so much importance, it was evident that the returning officer had acted in good faith. Nobody was allowed to see the ballots, and nobody knew for which candidate any of the ballots had been marked. The numbers had been oblit-erated with the concurrence of the accents erated with the concurrence of the agents of both parties, and even if the faces of the ballots had been seen by the returning officer secretly would have been sufficiently preserved by the oath of that official, whose aty it was to mark the ballot for illiter. been rest tion should be ordered, because, in his opinion, the action of the deputy returning officer at No. 1, Sombra, in numbering ballots and afterwards obliterating num-bers, had invalidated all votes cast at that bers, had invalidated all votes cast at that polling place, so that it was impossible to say who had a majority. The chief justice then gave judgment, dismissing the appeal and directing the registrar of the court to forward the neces-sary certificate of Mr. Mills' election to the speaker of the house of commons. Hon. David Mills is expected here to-morrow evening, or next day at the latest.

Hon. David Mills is expected nere to-morrow evening, or next day at the latest, to take his seat in parliament. It is said that the members of the reform association intend giving him a welcome reception.

Suicide of a Schoolboy.

was returned.

nany friends in his suit.

ably take two days yet to finish her

A Fatal Oversight.

ment, but he would like to know what it was fighting for. The Marquis of Hartington deprecated any discussion of the subject, which, he said, was untimely. He believed Os-man Digma had accurate and com-plete knowledge of news telegraphed to Suakim from London. As Osman Digma, he said, had declared his intention to even the English into the sea it might From the London News. At West Bromwich yesterday an inquest was held on a boy aged 12, named James Welsh, who committed suicide by hanging himself with a strap from a hock in the ling of the kitchen of his parents' house. e evidence showed that deceased had relieve Tokar and protect Suakim, but the ceiling of the kitchen of his parents' house. been troubled in his mind about not being able to pass the examination of the school board. He had also been punished by one of the assistant teachers, although against the regulations of the board. He com-plained that the work set him at school was too hard, but the master danied that he rders might he enlarged It would be thing further. Mr. Gladstone said that neither the London nor the foreign press influenced the government. It was influenced by an innate sense of its duty and responsibility England was bound to defend Suakim too hard, but the master denied that he had been set harder tasks than other boys

WARNED OFF BY THE MEN-OF-WAR'S CANNONS. An Attempt to Discuss the Situation Parliament Sat Upon-The Black Troops in Line.

SUAKIM. Feb. 25.—Admiral Hewitt has sent an order for 500 black troops to go and bury the dead of Patha Baker's army lying on the field at Teb. Many hundred bodies are lying unburied, filling the air with a noxious taint. An outbreak of cholera is feared in the camp. The blacks who refused to proceed to Trinkitat yes-terday left for that place to-day on being assured they were not wanted to fight. A cavalry reconnoissance was inade to-day SUAKIM. Feb. 25,-Admiral Hewitt has cavalry reconnoissance was inade to-day oward Teb. Arabs were found in force toward Teb. Arabs were found in force between Teb and their earthworks were thrown up by Baker Pasha. Every sign indicates that Osman Digma means to contest the advance of the Birlish troops. The report that El Mahdi was marching toward Khartoum is confirmed. His inac-tion after the victory at El Obeid is ex-plained by the fact that the sheikhs of the principal tribes wished to zo home with principal tribes wished to go home with their spoils in order to attend to harvest. He proclaimed holy truce during the months Moharran and Saffar, ending on the date of the anniversary of the prophet. That time having expired, the campaign will have heen resumed

SUAKIM, Feb. 26 .- The men-of-war fired luring the night to keep the rebels at a CAIRO, Feb. 25.-Seven thousand Arabs CAIRO, Feb. 25.—Seven thousand Arabs have reinforced the army of Osman Digma, who has taken command in person. He has altogether 18,000 men against 5000 British troops. Two Egyptian battalions, with two Gatling guns and twenty tons of ammunition, will start for Assouan on Thursday and the English troops will fol-low. Gordon continues to send cheering telegrams to this city. El Mahdi has ap-pealed to the Moslems of India to support Islam. duction in pay. AMESBURY, Mass., Feb. 25.—A hundred and twenty spinners at the Hamilton mill struck this morning.

LONDON, Feb. 25.-Gladstone's confi dence in Gordon continues as firm as ever. He asserts Gordon's decree is in no way posed to the act abolishing slavery. Labouchere, in the house of commons and two daughters, aged to and 12, left home shortly before the recent storm burst, for the purpose of getting some hay. The body of Nelson was found five miles from the place whence he started. His two children were not found. CHARLOTTE, N. C., Feb. 25.—Rev. T. G. ay, moved to adjourn and discuss matter relation to the troops on the Red sea. He asked the government to repudiate its lood-thirsty policy. Joseph Cowen (radical reformer) said he

Thurston, a presbyterian minister, and his daughter were drowned at Oxford ford Saturday. was unwilling to embarrass the govern-ment, but he would like to know what it sweep the English into the sea, it might be advisable to advance instead of await-

The Hudson's Bay Channel to Become HON. MR. ROSS AGAIN GETS BACK NEW YORK, Feb. 25.-The Tribune ha AT THE MAIL. an editorial drawing attention to the efforts made to develop the new route for the exportation of wheat yis Hudson's bay, and

Mr. Creighton wants to know where the Creameries are to be Located—A Mus-koka Dam Silde Subject. argues that if circumstances are found favorable it may be a formidable competitor After routine in the legislature yes Hon: Mr. Ross (Huron) rose to a question of privilege and denied that he had said, as tated in the Mail, that the province derived revenues chiefly from sources that were changeable in their character? Mr. Creighton moved for an order of the house for a return showing the location of the three creameries erected under the act passed at last session of the legislature ! the cost of each, and the names of the Minister West to Congressman Hewitt. WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—The letter of Minister West to Congressman Hewitt in relation to the visit paid him by Hewitt after the O'Donnell resolution, has been made public. West says: "I did not re-gard what you said to me in the light of an apology for the resolution, but as an explanation of the peculiar circumstances which repeated the provide the provide the same set." explanation of the peculiar circumstances which prompted it on your part in the in-terest of friendly relations between the two countries. I may add I could not presume there was any evidence from what you said of any want of sincerity on your EAST HAMPTON, Mass., Feb. 25 .- Th peratives of the Williston's mills struck against a reduction of wages to-day. READING, Pa., Feb. 25.—The Reading hardware company here started its several foundries to-day with non-union men. The works have been idle since christmas, the

THE CREAM OF THE HOUSE

Saturday. What Mr. Springer Would Do. WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Representative Springer to-day introduced in the house his proposed constitutional amendment making the presidential term six years, rendering the president inelligible of re-election in the next succeeding term, pro-viding for a direct vote for president in each state, and abolishing the electoral college. The term of a representative in congress is the friends and opponents of the propose new bylaw prohibiting the sale of liquo in grocery stores were hard at work. The friends of the bylaw were well organized, and carried the day. Below is the vote as the carled the day. Below is the vote as the carled the day. Below is the vote as at the Grand opera house with Rice's Surprise Party, is the lady whose name has been so frequently coupled of late with that of Harry Lee, the alleged forgerer of Cincinnati, now imprisoned in the county jail. She is petite, piquant and decidedly 663 731 355 484 626 481 780 263 384 442 A World reporter saw her last night after the performance in regard to her rela 5209 tions with Lee.

WHAT KATE CASTLETON SAYS ABOUT THEIR RELATIONS.

311

HAPPY HYMEN IN THE WARD.

Marriage of a Six-Foot Gentleman of Color and a Diminutive White Miss

The victory of the license bylaw was not the only thing which ruffled the erstwhile peaceful bosom of the Noble Ward last an hour Assistant Manager Balster said he evening. There was a marriage there ment. Mr. Meredith followed in the same lines, loudy accusing the government of having used the creamery bill for corrupt pur-poses. Mr. Fraser said that as far as the infor-mation went it had last year been deemed a good thing to erect creameries. The matter had been strongly urged on the government, and they had been impressed with the advisability of their erection. After further inquiry had been made they had discovered that they had made a mis-take in the matter and were endeavoring to rectify it. Mr. Morris, after reading from the re-ports the statements of the ministry as to the urgency of the matter last session took cocasion to ask them to again reconsider at first as if the entire structure was a com-plete wreck. The list of injured are: L. J. Bolster, assistant manager, cut about the neck and face; H. W. Tilton, A. Dunswere driven to the residence of Mr. James H. Williams, where a princely repast was served up and a delightful evening spent. Among the invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. Nutt, Mrs. Eliza Kemble, city mismary, Miss Emma Williams and others.

wards. St. Andiew's St. David's St. Jawes' St. John's St. Lawrence St. Patrick's St. Paul's St. Stephen's St. Thomas' 634 601 318 707 625 422 849 342 537 485 5520 Majority for bylaw

the three erremines errested times the errested of the legislation of the le bank of Commerce buildings, Yonge and Colborne streets, quit work without turn ing off a gas jet, at the same time turning off the metre. The air tight iron compart ment was completely filled with the explosive light when the door was opened this morning. The smell of gas was easily detected and after waiting three-quarters of

THE BYLAW CARRIED.

From an early hour yesterday morning

For.

The Majority Put Bown at $11-The Ten

perance People Jubilar

ascertained when the polls closed .

Wards.

of Manitoba-McCarthy Act to incorporate the Union Trust Corporation of Canada-Hesson. Act 'co grant certain powers to the Com mercial Cable company-Rykert. Act to further amend the act to incorporate the South Saskatchewan Valley railway company-Kelvert.

Act to amend the act incorporating the Bell Telephone company of Canada-Cam-

Act respecting the Kingston and Pembroke railway company-Gunn.

Act to amend acts relating to the Manitoba and Northwestern railway company of Canada-Cameron.

Ten unimportant bills passed a second reading.

In answer to Mr. Shakespeare, Sir John said it was not the intention of the government to give British Columbia representation in the cabinet. Mr. Mitchell is asking for correspond ence between the government and Sir John Rose or Messrs. Barring and Glynn in 1875 sively; and as we are now able to ship peaches to the old country in air-tight cans in relation to the conduct of Mr. Potter. president of the Grand Trunk, in decrying the credit of Canada and the credit of Quebec in relation to the effort of the latter to effect a loan in London on the credit of a promise for the construction of railways therein.

CE

iot

hap-vised iven late Vork, t the aired . Mc-r for will Bate, uy of thris-scrip-ns, a re of that shall said ereto, h he any whose d by

0 igned

7th, s of

ily ac

ings:

ASH

DOMINION DASHES.

The Latest and Best News Found in Canadian Exchanges.

Montreal's mortality last week was At the Hamilton hospital last year 599 atients were treated. The expenditures patients were treated. were $13,373.

Fiften families from Markham have taken up farms near Brandon and start for there next month.

Two young women were fined $4 yester lay at Hamilton for driving through a tollgate without paying fare.

Geo. Laing, an old resident of Erin, died recently from having his feet frozen and operly attending to them. Mr. Charette, the liberal candidate for the county of Jacques Cartier, Quebec, in the local house, has withdrawn from the

The Grand Trunk railway alone took 52,000 passengers into Montreal the first days of the carnival. The Canadian Pacific and North Shore took in 20,000.

Messrs Gillett, wholesale grocers of Hamilton, go to Brandon next month for the purpose of farming on a large scale. Last year they broke about 200 acres on 35-5 23, and this year they propose break-ing the remainder of the section. Their additional outfit this year consists of a additional outfit this year consists of a carload of stock and implements.

A Murderer's Escape.

PORT COLBORNE, Feb. 25.—A man named Heffernon, who a few years ago killed a fellow workman at Thorold while working on the new canal, was arrested here to-day. Heffernon escaped to Michigan, but becoming homesick came here to see his parents and was arrested. While at the depot on his way to Welland he cleverly tripped up the constable in charge and escaped to the United States again.

A Plea to Remain at Home.

MONTRBAL, Feb. 25 .- Mgr. Fabre has a pastoral which was read in the catholic churches yesterday on the evils of members of the church emigrating to the eastern states. His lordship urges the faithful to remain at home and colonize the uncultivated parts of their own prov-of his age. He had passed the fourth and was preparing for the fifth standard, but was not a bright lad. Several jurors com-Labouchere's motion was neglected. The New Lord Hampden. LONDON, Feb. 25.-Ex-Speaker Brand plained of the extent to which corporal has been elected to the peerage with the inishment was practised at some of the title of Lord Hampden.

schools, and requested the coroner to com-municate with the school board on the subject. A verdict of suicide by hanging Mr. Gladstone made in the house o commons to-day a motion which was carried, eulogizing Sir Henry Brand's long services as speaker. The Parnellites did not challenge a division, but after Parnell had stated they were unable tacitly to accurise in a vote of thanks since Peach Crop Prospects. Round St. Catharines the damage to the peach buds from frost is not so great as it to acquiesce in a vote of thanks has been in other places, and a 10 per cent some of Speaker Brand's acts had been hurtful to Ireland, they withdrew in a crop is expected. In the Niagara district, body from the house. F. H. O'Donnell protested against thank-ing the retiring speaker. O'Donnell, who has separated from the Parnellite party, is credited with a desire to lead the Irish which is rapidly assuming peach raising proportions as great as that of Grimsby, the effects of the frost have not been very severe, and a medium crop will most prob-ably be obtained. Land owners and farmparty himself in place of Parnell. Upon the speaker's vacating the chair the whole

ers are planting peach trees very extenhouse rose, and filing past shook hands with him. As he was leaving the house he was loudly cheered. peaches to the old country in air-tight cans at a very remunerative profit, and the shipping facilities from Niagara being ex-cellent, the raising of this fruit will be a very profitable investment. The Memorial Bust of Longfellow

LONDON, Feb. 25 .- A private view has

A Divorce Bill Read a Second Time. eeen given of the memorial bust of Long-OTTAWA, Feb. 25 .- The bill for the fellow, to be unveiled in Westminste eparation of John Graham from his wife, abbey next Saturday. It is pure white Margaret Graham, was read a second time marble, slightly larger than life, and repre-Margaret Granam, was read a second time in the senate today. John Graham is a well-known hotelkeeper in this city. He is proprietor of the Grand Union and Albion hotels. The story of his wife's desertion with a homely-looking commer-cial traveler has been told before. Mrs. marble, slightly larger than hie, and repre-sents the poet at his best period of old age, with noble features, flowing hair and full beard. The poet's daughters pronounce the likeness striking. The bust will be placed in a conspicuous angle in the poets' corner, between the busts of Chaucer and Dryden. It will bear the inscription left raham went to Cleveland, thence to New ork, where she is now said to be keeping by Dean Stanley: "This bust was placed among the memorials of the poets of Eng-land by the English admirers of an Ameri-can poet." The committee has invited Mr. a bagnio. The case has been the talk of Ottawa for months. Mr. Graham has Gladstone to unveil the monument. Masters and Mates Certificates. PICTON, Feb. 25,-The board of exameventeen Persons Killed by Explosions ners, consisting of Captains Harbottle, LONDON, Feb. 25 .- The boiler of the Taylor and MacWayne, appointed to exteamer Katsci from Hong Kong to Macao exploded. Seventeen persons were killed.

Eight were Europeans THE OLD WORLD IN BRIEF.

Taylor and Mac Wayne, appointed to ex-amine masters and mates of vessels, com-menced their labors to day. There are nearly 100 applications for certificates. Thirty-three were up before the board and thirty-one passed. Two failed on color and were refused certificates. It will pro-Five laborers were killed at Berne, Switerland yesterday by falling stone. It is stated Russia has invited England

) join in constructing a canal from the ea of Aral to the Indian frontier. BRANTFORD, Feb. 25 .- Dr. Marquis of this city, who was attending a young lady Baron Tennyson D'Eyencourt intends to at Mount Pleasant, left her some laudanum upport in the house of lords the bill galizing marriage with deceased wife's and a quantity of medicine in two separate Foote, the editor of the Free Thinker, phials. The nurse who waited on the pa-tient gave the laudanum by mistake for the medicine and the unfortunate lady died yesterday. Her name was Elizabeth Meadows and she was in her 16th year. has completed his year's imprisonment for blasphemy. Bradlaugh, with 2000 sym-pathizers, met him at the gate of the Caught "Short" and Bowned.

MONTREAL, Feb. 25.—Egerton Ford,
MONTREAL, Feb. 25.—Egerton Ford,
The recent interviews between Dolgorouki, the Russian military plenepotentiary, and Bismarck have resulted in the assent of Bismarck have resulted in the spring between Czar Alexandria and Emperor William.
Police That Want Washing.
MONTREAL PILOT:—The Winnipeg policemen the neatest, and the Montreal policemen the most unkept looking body of much, but a little setting up for nine-tenths of the moda. We do not expect too much, but a little setting up for nine-tenths of the remainder could do no harm.
M. Fallieres has ordered a medal to be struck in honor of the eighty-second anniversary of Victor Hugo's birth.

Mr. Meredith followed in the same lines, loudly accusing the government of having used the creamery bill for corrupt pur-

SCHNECTADY, N. Y., Feb. 25.-Engine No. 13 of the Boston, Hoosac Tunnel and Western railroad has within three weeks killed at Mechanicsville Lockwood and Delrick, employez, and James Fitzpatrick. The railway hands fear the locomotive and FARGO, Dak., Feb. 25 .- There is andation for the report of an Irish Ameri-ports the statements of the ministry as to the urgency of the matter last session took occasion to ask them to again reconsider their decision to establish a creamery at the college. Mr. Drury read from the act establishing the creameries to show that the gov-ernment had no power to locate them, that being the duty of an advisory board con-sisting of men who were elected on a non-political basis. The charge therefore of using them for corrupt purposes he urged nust fall to the ground. Mr. Young said however anxious gentle-

b) Boister, assistant manager, one about the neck and face; H. W. Tilton, A. Dunsford and Victor Armstrong, cuts on the face, hands and head; Wm. Fuller, the teller, badly cut about the head and hands seriously bruised; W. H. Drurogard, cut about the face and knee. The rest of the clerks were more or less bruised, but they were more scared than hurt. The news of the explosion caused the greatest excitement. It was rumored at first that it was a dynamite explosion, and a posse of police had to surround the building to keep back the crowd. The shoek was felt in the neighboring buildings, especially in Dudley & Burns, where the plaster was knocked off the ceiling and the employes frightened into the street. The bank premises were pretty badly wreeked. The loss is estimated at from $4000 to $5000. After a delay of an hour the bank resumed business as if nothing had occurred. Mr. Young said however anxious gentle-men opposite were to improve the methods of butter-making they were still more anxious to make a point against the government. The present action of the government was recommended by the advisory board or committee who had been sent into the western states to acquire further informa-tion and to collect such facts as would en-able them to give better attention to de-tails. tails. Mr. Creighton pointed out that the act gave the lieutenant-governor the right to locate the creameries on the recommenda-tion of the commissioner of agriculture, and not the advisory board. He however ing had occurred. withdrew his motion and gave notice that on Wednesday next he would ask for an order of the house for a return of (1) copies of all instructions given to, and reports and correspondence from the consulting board on other parsons with reference to the const To the Editor of The World : SIR:

The house shipping committee, 6 to 3, has decided to report adversely the bill to admit foreign built ships to the American correspondence from the consulting board or other persons with reference to the erec-tion of the three public creameries provided for in the estimates for 1884, and (2) a statement of all monies paid to or still due any member of such board or other person for his services in connection there-with. dencies. But it is merely the assertion of an unscrupulous bigot, without containing one solitary proof to sustain his paltry ac-cusations. How can your readers believe written or verbal assertions when they can easily see that they are prompted by a virulent hatred of their subject. Nay more, let Viator sign his true name to his next epistle and I shall demonstrate to the satisfaction of the unbiased of your readers that he has uttered more than one malig-nant falsehood. JUSTITIA. Exports of gold from the United States thus far show a very narrow margin of profit. The outward movement has not vet interfered with the course of the stock The judges of the New York State court with.

of appeals sat in their robes for the first time yesterday at Albany. The garments were paid for by each judge. The inno-vation is generally commended by the bar. Mr. Hardy laid on the table the return

Mr. Hardy laid on the table the return asked for in connection with the Muskoka dam slide and boom company. Major Grey asked when the returns asked for, with regard to the meat fur-nished to the central prison, would be brought down, and was informed amidst much langhter by Mr. Hardy that they had been brought down last week. [Viator's name is not an essential of the iscussion, any more than is that of Justitia. Deal with the statements, "not with the man making them. Ed.]

members of the stock exchange. They are PROMINENT PERSONS.

all genuine names, but I need hardly say that they are not genuine firms : Cole, John G. Saxe, the poet, is in poor health Wood & Hay; Day & Knight; Scott, Joaquin Miller hasn't written any spring Tower & Co.; Wolf & Fox ; Brown & oetry vet. Green ; Ham & Bacon ; Fisher, Fry, Eels

Co.; Baker, Taylor & Shoemaker; De Silver & Gold; White, Blacque & Gray; Burr & Hamilton; Adams, Monroe & Jackson; Joseph & Benjamin; Wood & Stone; Strong & Co.; Head & Foote; Criss, Cross & Co.; Bunker, Hill & Co; Hunting Clews & Co.; Buck The czar of Russia now mingles in societ ore than he used to.

were when he taught school. The duke of Sutherland's son and heir is

It makes Bismarck howl when he hear

M. de Lesseps is the father of a dozen boys and girls. He dresses them all alike in close-fitting undergarments and loose, sleeveless flannel frocks, which leave necks, arms and legs from knee to foot bare

Detroit typographical union initiates its first lady member this week.

She's a unionist out or in.-Evenir

ity funds have been spent of late in open ing up streets in distant parts of the city, think that our ward might conscient

I think that our ward might conscien-tionsly ask for a little improvement in that way. Why could not Trinity square be opened through to Teraulay street, as it is to Yonge street? It would give us the benefit of another thoroughfare to Yonge street. Open up that boxed up quad-rangle called Trinity square; give the police a better chance of getting about our vicinity; also open up a better chance for our fire brigade when wanted, as well as a great convenience for those who attend a great convenience for those who attend Holy Trinity church from the west. The buildings in the way are old ones, and now s the time before new ones are put up There is now a chance for our alderment do something for ST. JOHN'S WARD.

A Call From St. John's Ward.

Miss Grace Greenway, whose charmin illustrations have made the name a house hold word, is about to turn her artistic talent to home-building. She has pur-chased a piece of land at historic Hamp-stead, England, on which she intends to build herself a characteristic dwelling.

Policeman McGuiness' Funeral.

To-day at 1 o'clock the funeral of the late Policeman Patrick McGuiness will take place from the hospital to St. Michael's cemetery. The police force will attend in a body.

A STRANGE PROCESSION.

The city was very silent-in fact the city lept. The Khan stood on the corner of King and Yonge streets, meditating on the mutabil-ity of all sublimary things. Suddenly he heard lattering afar down King street. The clatering came nearer, and at last he saw a vast urmy of jugs, flasks and black bottles marcharmy of jugs, nasks and black bottles march-ing west. There were little jugs and big jugs, slim jugs and fat jugs, short jugs and tall jugs, brown jugs, white jugs, black jugs, freckled jugs, octoroon jugs, blonde jugs, forid jugs, and as each jug marched past the Khan he heard it give forth a sound resembling "glug heard it give forth a sound resembling "glug

Viator, in his letters to Mr. Blake, ridicules catholics and their political ten-dencies. But it is merely the assertion of a cork into him. It was a remarkable proce sion. Some of them were very despondent. One jug cracked his head against a lamp post and another threw himself into a sewer and broke his neck. Verily it was a strange pro-

THE LITTLE BROWN JUG.

Alas for the days of the little brown jug! Glugity glug, glugity glug

The bylaw gave it a horrible hug, Glugity glug, glugity glug. No more will its contents foam on the The temperance people have put in the plug They did it as neat as a bug in a rug, Glugity, glugity glug.

They stuck in their toes and wrestled and dug, Glugity glug, glugity glug, Glugity glug, shape in the mug. And they hit the poor jug a thump in the mug. Glugity glug, glugity glug. They hammered his count smug. They cracked his poor sides and battered his lug, They tumbled him down and sat on his plug. Glugity, glugity glug. -The Khan.

MILD WEATHER AND RAIN.

METEOROLOGICAL OFFICE, TORONTO, Feb. 26, 1 a.m. Lakes: Cloudy, mild weather with light local fails of snow or rain, followed this even-ing by west to northwest winds and partially clearing weather.

SAFE OVER THE SEA.

Date. Steamship. Reported at. New York .. Liverpool

Feb. 25-Arizona New York .. Liverpool Feb. 25-Eg y p tian Monarch .. New York .. London Feb. 25-Caspian ... Liverpool .. Portland Feb. 25-Grecian ... Portland ... Glasgow Feb. 25-Republic ... Queenstown New York Feb. 25-State of Penn sylvania... Glasgow ... New York

sylvania... Glasgow. Feb. 25 - Carroll Halifax... Feb. 25-St. Laurent ...Havre. New York Boston

Arabi Pasha is a grass-widow. MR. EDITOR: As considerable of our Ex-Gov. Samuel Price of West Virginia dead, aged 80.

President Arthur says his happiest year engaged to the charming and cultured daughter of Lord Rosslyn.

They present, even to Parisians, a peculia appearance.

himself spoken of as "the gifted but bald-headed prince of American hog-haters."

