appointed to take testimony in the divorce proceedings of Thomas Carlin against his wife, Mary Carlin, will file his report in a few days. The affidavit of the libellant charges, among other things, desertion and neglect of household duties. The parties live in Allegheny. The defendant did not appear at the hearings, and the principal witness examined was the husband. Ha alleged that his wife, during the spring and summer of last year, was a frequent visitor at the baseball games played by the Allegheny club. When she was not able to get in she used to go to the residence of a family near the park and anxiously wait to hear the result of the innings.

"I, remonstrated with her," he said, and told her that she was allowing her children to go to the dogs by her neglect. wife, Mary Carlin, will file his report in a and give it a trial.

"Il remonstrated with her," he said, "and told her that she was allowing her children to go to the dogs by her neglect. Supper was never ready when I got home in the evening. The children were dirty and crying for their "mamma." She would often bet small sums on the Alleghenies winning, and as that finally became a rarity it her better the conduct ahe told m. The help, as she had no time to attend to her household dittles. It finally becames a bad that I had to leave her, and the least I heard of her she was talking about joining a female baseball oinb."

Both parties to the suit are young, and the wife is rather prepossessing. The sum of the suit are young, and band is at presses.

Both parties to the suit are young, and the wife is rather prepossessing. The hus-band is at present taking care of their children. Other witnesses examined corohildren. Other witnesses examined corroberated the testimony given above as to the wife's fondness for baseball. One witness said: "I have seen a good many men wild over baseball, but Mrs. Carlin beats them all. She had a sort of mania for it."

New YORK, April 18 .- Four Belgian glass blowers were detained on their arrival here to day at the instigation of the knights of labor. It is stated the men were imported in violation of the new anti-foreign labor bill. The window glass workers' association proposes to make a test case of it. The men do not admit that they are under contract but say they are willing to work for $13 a week. The regular rate is $20.

—Mrs. George Simpson, Toronto, says:

"I have suffered severely with corns, and was unable to get relief from treatment of any kind until I was recommended to try Holloway's Corn Cure. At er applyingsit for a few days? was enabled to remove the corn, root and branch—ro pain whatever, and no inconvenience in using it. I can heartily recommend it to all suffering from corns."

—No time like the present for seeking medicinal aid when what are foolishly called "minor ailments" manifest themselves. There are no "minor" ailments Every symptom is the herald of a disease, every lapse from a state of health should be remedied at once, or disastrous consequences are likely to follow. Incipient dyspepsia, slight costiveness, a tendency to biliousness, should be promptly counteracted with Northrop & Lymn's Vegetable Discovery and great blood purifier, and the system thus shielded from worse consequences.

—Mesers. Parker & Laird, of Hillsdale, writes: Our Mr. Laird having occasion to visit Scotland, and knowing the excellent qualities of Dr. Thomas' Relectric Oil, concluded to take some with him, and the result has been very astonishing. We may say that in several instances it has effected cures when ailments had been pronounced incurable by eminent practitioners.
