

THE CRISIS IN ENGLAND.

MR. GLADSTONE ASKED TO RECONSIDER HIS RESIGNATION.

Many Members Appeal to their Leaders. Note Assume Office—Lord Salisbury's Reply—A Summons to Lord Hartington.

A Request to Reconsider. LONDON, June 10.—It is rumored that the queen has sent a telegram to Mr. Gladstone, requesting him to reconsider his decision to resign.

The Tories Will Try. LONDON, June 10.—Mr. Gladstone remains in London. It is believed the Standard will return on Saturday.

They Must Obey. LONDON, June 10.—A deputation of conservative members of parliament waited upon Sir Stafford Northcote and the Marquis of Salisbury to urge them to refuse office.

A Fresh Start. LONDON, June 10.—The chief difficulty encountered by the conservatives in their discussions regarding the formation of the ministry, says the Pall Mall Gazette, is the problem what to do with Lord Randolph Churchill.

He claims to have done much in the work of destroying the liberal government, and demands his share of the spoils.

He is apparently the only man who regards him as troublesome and somewhat dangerous to have around in the national councils.

The Pall Mall Gazette intimates that a polite effort will be made to get rid of him.

If the conservatives refuse to come to London he pleads illness and sent an official messenger. Much indignation is expressed at the queen's attempt to compel all political leaders to be men of advanced age to deliberate peace, to make a journey of several thousand miles to save her trouble. She probably will have to return to London.

One is 65 and the other 75. LONDON, June 10.—The report of Mr. Gladstone's journey was incorrect. When he received the queen's refusal to come to London he pleaded illness and sent an official messenger.

Much indignation is expressed at the queen's attempt to compel all political leaders to be men of advanced age to deliberate peace, to make a journey of several thousand miles to save her trouble. She probably will have to return to London.

A Victory for Ireland. LONDON, June 10.—The centre of interest at the moment is the Irish party and Parnell. The liberalists desire everywhere to know what their action will be towards the conservative government.

Parnell is naturally elated at his great success, and says the result is a signal proof of the advantage of a policy of boldness and honesty.

"We should have expelled the ministry long ago," said he, "except for the secession of twenty members who were elected on the same principles as ourselves. It would have been impossible for government to sit in the first coalition and use it as a shield, or pass the resolutions which have broken the unity of our party."

Parnell dwells at length with much pride on the results accomplished for Ireland and his leadership. "By last night's division," he said, "I have taught a lesson to all future generations. It is his intention to continue a course which will throw public affairs into confusion and involve the state in grave difficulties at home and abroad."

Brilliant, June 10.—The general news paper impression here is that the English governmental crisis will tend to a closer friendship between England and Germany.

Lord Hartington Summamed. LONDON, June 10.—The queen has summoned the Marquis of Hartington, secretary of state for war, to Balmoral. It is not known whether he is summoned as a representative of Mr. Gladstone, or is to be invited to form a new cabinet.

News Paper Views. LONDON, June 11.—The News hopes the cabinet will persist in resigning. It says a few months of tory rule will ensure a liberal triumph in the general election.

The Times, commenting on the fact that since the division thirty or forty liberal absentees have declared they would have voted with the government, says the ministers ought to reconsider their decision, or if they can, justify to the queen an ostentatious course which will throw public affairs into confusion and involve the state in grave difficulties at home and abroad.

Brilliant, June 10.—The general news paper impression here is that the English governmental crisis will tend to a closer friendship between England and Germany.

Lord Hartington Summamed. LONDON, June 10.—The queen has summoned the Marquis of Hartington, secretary of state for war, to Balmoral. It is not known whether he is summoned as a representative of Mr. Gladstone, or is to be invited to form a new cabinet.

News Paper Views. LONDON, June 11.—The News hopes the cabinet will persist in resigning. It says a few months of tory rule will ensure a liberal triumph in the general election.

The Times, commenting on the fact that since the division thirty or forty liberal absentees have declared they would have voted with the government, says the ministers ought to reconsider their decision, or if they can, justify to the queen an ostentatious course which will throw public affairs into confusion and involve the state in grave difficulties at home and abroad.

Brilliant, June 10.—The general news paper impression here is that the English governmental crisis will tend to a closer friendship between England and Germany.

Lord Hartington Summamed. LONDON, June 10.—The queen has summoned the Marquis of Hartington, secretary of state for war, to Balmoral. It is not known whether he is summoned as a representative of Mr. Gladstone, or is to be invited to form a new cabinet.

News Paper Views. LONDON, June 11.—The News hopes the cabinet will persist in resigning. It says a few months of tory rule will ensure a liberal triumph in the general election.

The Times, commenting on the fact that since the division thirty or forty liberal absentees have declared they would have voted with the government, says the ministers ought to reconsider their decision, or if they can, justify to the queen an ostentatious course which will throw public affairs into confusion and involve the state in grave difficulties at home and abroad.

Brilliant, June 10.—The general news paper impression here is that the English governmental crisis will tend to a closer friendship between England and Germany.

Lord Hartington Summamed. LONDON, June 10.—The queen has summoned the Marquis of Hartington, secretary of state for war, to Balmoral. It is not known whether he is summoned as a representative of Mr. Gladstone, or is to be invited to form a new cabinet.

THE SENATE ASSAILED.

A Scott Act Meeting at Metropolitan Church Last Night.

The Scott act was discussed at Metropolitan church last night with well attended. Rev. Dr. Sutherland, president of the Toronto conference, occupied the chair and expressed his approval of the act.

That this meeting desires to record an emphatic protest against the action of the dominion senate in the sale of beer and wine in the counties and cities where the Scott act is in operation, as unwarranted, unbecoming and detrimental to social progress and morality that we strongly denounce the action of these irresponsible legislators in attempting, in the interests of the nefarious liquor traffic, to force upon our country retrogressive and oppressive measures in spite of the ballot protests of loyal citizens and the earnest position of suffering women and children; and that we call upon the members of the house of commons, as the chosen protectors of our country, to resist the action of the dominion senate, and to refuse their concurrence to the proposed extension of the Scott act.

Mr. Annis, in moving the adoption of the resolution, observed that Gladstone, the greatest of England's statesmen, said intemperance was the greatest enemy of our country, and of this country the same could be said. For every church there were four groggeries and for every minister there were six bartenders.

Every year there died in the country 7000 people, the victims of intemperance. The opponents of prohibition said that the Scott act was an interference of British liberty, but as a matter of fact all laws interfere with liberty.

The intemperance movement was marching on, and the last enemy to be destroyed was the senate. [Applause.]

Mr. Annis, in moving the adoption of the resolution, observed that Gladstone, the greatest of England's statesmen, said intemperance was the greatest enemy of our country, and of this country the same could be said.

For every church there were four groggeries and for every minister there were six bartenders. Every year there died in the country 7000 people, the victims of intemperance.

The opponents of prohibition said that the Scott act was an interference of British liberty, but as a matter of fact all laws interfere with liberty.

The intemperance movement was marching on, and the last enemy to be destroyed was the senate. [Applause.]

Mr. Annis, in moving the adoption of the resolution, observed that Gladstone, the greatest of England's statesmen, said intemperance was the greatest enemy of our country, and of this country the same could be said.

For every church there were four groggeries and for every minister there were six bartenders. Every year there died in the country 7000 people, the victims of intemperance.

The opponents of prohibition said that the Scott act was an interference of British liberty, but as a matter of fact all laws interfere with liberty.

The intemperance movement was marching on, and the last enemy to be destroyed was the senate. [Applause.]

Mr. Annis, in moving the adoption of the resolution, observed that Gladstone, the greatest of England's statesmen, said intemperance was the greatest enemy of our country, and of this country the same could be said.

For every church there were four groggeries and for every minister there were six bartenders. Every year there died in the country 7000 people, the victims of intemperance.

The opponents of prohibition said that the Scott act was an interference of British liberty, but as a matter of fact all laws interfere with liberty.

The intemperance movement was marching on, and the last enemy to be destroyed was the senate. [Applause.]

Mr. Annis, in moving the adoption of the resolution, observed that Gladstone, the greatest of England's statesmen, said intemperance was the greatest enemy of our country, and of this country the same could be said.

For every church there were four groggeries and for every minister there were six bartenders. Every year there died in the country 7000 people, the victims of intemperance.

The opponents of prohibition said that the Scott act was an interference of British liberty, but as a matter of fact all laws interfere with liberty.

The intemperance movement was marching on, and the last enemy to be destroyed was the senate. [Applause.]

Mr. Annis, in moving the adoption of the resolution, observed that Gladstone, the greatest of England's statesmen, said intemperance was the greatest enemy of our country, and of this country the same could be said.

For every church there were four groggeries and for every minister there were six bartenders. Every year there died in the country 7000 people, the victims of intemperance.

The opponents of prohibition said that the Scott act was an interference of British liberty, but as a matter of fact all laws interfere with liberty.

The intemperance movement was marching on, and the last enemy to be destroyed was the senate. [Applause.]

Mr. Annis, in moving the adoption of the resolution, observed that Gladstone, the greatest of England's statesmen, said intemperance was the greatest enemy of our country, and of this country the same could be said.

For every church there were four groggeries and for every minister there were six bartenders. Every year there died in the country 7000 people, the victims of intemperance.

The opponents of prohibition said that the Scott act was an interference of British liberty, but as a matter of fact all laws interfere with liberty.

The intemperance movement was marching on, and the last enemy to be destroyed was the senate. [Applause.]

STILL CHASING THE BEAR.

FAILURE OF THE FORCES TO FIND THE WILD CHIEF.

Major Steele's Last Engagement—A Pinchy Fight—The Bear's Last Days—The Hunt for the Chief.

Winnipeg, June 10.—A despatch dated Middleton's Camp, June 6, and brought by courier, shows the general with his troops, to have been at noon that day 40 miles northeast of Fort Pitt, and about 10 miles from the position where Big Bear fought Major Steele.

The seven camps of Big Bear have already been passed and it has been found necessary to keep pioneers ahead to show the trail in the bush through which he is taking flight.

Particulars of Captain Steele's last encounter with Big Bear shows that Steele had eighty men, when they were suddenly attacked by 300 of Big Bear's Indians, 40 miles north of Steele's camp. It was a thickly wooded spot, and it was impossible for horses to get through. Steele put out a white flag, and Rev. Mr. MacKay spoke to Big Bear to release the prisoners. Big Bear said: "Never, I will fight to the last."

The fight was kept up for two hours. The white flag was hoisted again by Steele, as he thought the Indians wanted to parley. They were then 100 yards from each other, across a small stream. Big Bear was saluted to release the prisoners, and he replied with a volley at the white flag.

The Indians were forced to retreat on top of a hill. Steele ordered a charge and the hill was cleared. Three men were wounded—Sergeant Major Furey of the police, and two of the mounted police.

West's Scouts, slightly wounded. The Indians took shelter in a ravine. Steele retired on his heels, and against a heavy rain for the night.

The wounded are doing well. There were none of the 65th in this engagement.

A Terrible Story of Big Bear's Cruelty. Calgary states that Francis Green, a half-breed, yesterday walked into the house of a missionary, and shot him dead.

He stated that four or five weeks ago his wife and five children were killed by the other half-breed, who was named Remeau. He was away from camp hunting for game, when several Indians returned to the camp and camp and killed Remeau's wife, his three boys and two girls, with slight of their father's hand.

Augustus Lawler was sentenced to six months in the Central prison at this morning's court. He was charged with the murder of a man named Remeau.

It is likely that the charges against Father O'Connell of Oswego for seducing a girl named Mary, and abducting her, will be tried here in Oswego, now a fugitive in Hamilton, in speaking in city news.

Mayor Glasgow and James Hutchison purchased a plot of ground in Burlington for the purpose of erecting a school for the St. Andrew's mission.

Minnie Gallagher, whose den on Robert street held her last night, was found to be a public house, and the police are cleaning out these dives one after another.

The salvation army parade last night took the form of a trades and labor demonstration, each soldier appearing in his own trade.

Another resolution was passed by the managers of Dundurn park, in order to protect the government of the park.

The managers of Dundurn park, in order to protect the government of the park, have decided not to allow any public body of men the right to hold a meeting in the park.

Another recommendation that the commission be empowered to include, when estimating these losses, remuneration for the loss of the season's work.

UNITED STATES NEWS. Several roads cut off by the St. Paul and Chicago. A rate war is probable.

Major Steele's Last Engagement—A Pinchy Fight—The Bear's Last Days—The Hunt for the Chief.

Winnipeg, June 10.—A despatch dated Middleton's Camp, June 6, and brought by courier, shows the general with his troops, to have been at noon that day 40 miles northeast of Fort Pitt, and about 10 miles from the position where Big Bear fought Major Steele.

The seven camps of Big Bear have already been passed and it has been found necessary to keep pioneers ahead to show the trail in the bush through which he is taking flight.

Particulars of Captain Steele's last encounter with Big Bear shows that Steele had eighty men, when they were suddenly attacked by 300 of Big Bear's Indians, 40 miles north of Steele's camp.

It was a thickly wooded spot, and it was impossible for horses to get through. Steele put out a white flag, and Rev. Mr. MacKay spoke to Big Bear to release the prisoners.

Big Bear said: "Never, I will fight to the last." The fight was kept up for two hours. The white flag was hoisted again by Steele, as he thought the Indians wanted to parley.

They were then 100 yards from each other, across a small stream. Big Bear was saluted to release the prisoners, and he replied with a volley at the white flag.

The Indians were forced to retreat on top of a hill. Steele ordered a charge and the hill was cleared. Three men were wounded—Sergeant Major Furey of the police, and two of the mounted police.

West's Scouts, slightly wounded. The Indians took shelter in a ravine. Steele retired on his heels, and against a heavy rain for the night.

The wounded are doing well. There were none of the 65th in this engagement.

A RECEPTION TO DR. ORSON.

He Receives a Hearty Welcome in the House of Commons.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 10.—A number of petitions in favor of the senate's amendment to the Scott act was presented again to-day.

Sir John Macdonald moved for recognition of the house to report on a committee of the whole from last evening in reference to the number of mounted police.

The premier, in speaking to his motion, referred to the mounted police. At this juncture, however, Sir John was interrupted by Dr. Orson, M.P., a constituent surgeon-general to the forces in the Northwest, entered the chamber, took his accustomed seat, and before the applause had subsided he was the right honorable premier's name as Mr. Booth, Chief-Minister, Q.C., Dr. Burwash of Ontario, Dr. King and Dr. Bryon of Winnipeg, Father Lawler, Dr. D. C. S. of St. John's, and Mr. Houston, Prof. Young, Prof. Loudon, Prof. Hutton, Principal Sheraton, Frederick W. W. G. of Ontario, and others.

After the degree of M.A. and L.B. had been conferred on the various students, Mr. Hunter read the names of the graduates in the history of the university. The annual commencement of the university of Toronto was held yesterday afternoon in Convocation hall. The weather was all that could be desired, and the crowd that turned out was larger than any which has been present for years.

At 2:30 the students filed in with the usual display of singing and the horns. On the platform were seated Wm. Mulock, vice-chancellor of the university, President Wilson, Col. Gowal, Hon. G. W. Ross, Mr. Booth, Chief-Minister, Q.C., Dr. Burwash of Ontario, Dr. King and Dr. Bryon of Winnipeg, Father Lawler, Dr. D. C. S. of St. John's, and Mr. Houston, Prof. Young, Prof. Loudon, Prof. Hutton, Principal Sheraton, Frederick W. W. G. of Ontario, and others.

After the degree of M.A. and L.B. had been conferred on the various students, Mr. Hunter read the names of the graduates in the history of the university. The annual commencement of the university of Toronto was held yesterday afternoon in Convocation hall.

The weather was all that could be desired, and the crowd that turned out was larger than any which has been present for years. At 2:30 the students filed in with the usual display of singing and the horns.

On the platform were seated Wm. Mulock, vice-chancellor of the university, President Wilson, Col. Gowal, Hon. G. W. Ross, Mr. Booth, Chief-Minister, Q.C., Dr. Burwash of Ontario, Dr. King and Dr. Bryon of Winnipeg, Father Lawler, Dr. D. C. S. of St. John's, and Mr. Houston, Prof. Young, Prof. Loudon, Prof. Hutton, Principal Sheraton, Frederick W. W. G. of Ontario, and others.

After the degree of M.A. and L.B. had been conferred on the various students, Mr. Hunter read the names of the graduates in the history of the university. The annual commencement of the university of Toronto was held yesterday afternoon in Convocation hall.

The weather was all that could be desired, and the crowd that turned out was larger than any which has been present for years. At 2:30 the students filed in with the usual display of singing and the horns.

On the platform were seated Wm. Mulock, vice-chancellor of the university, President Wilson, Col. Gowal, Hon. G. W. Ross, Mr. Booth, Chief-Minister, Q.C., Dr. Burwash of Ontario, Dr. King and Dr. Bryon of Winnipeg, Father Lawler, Dr. D. C. S. of St. John's, and Mr. Houston, Prof. Young, Prof. Loudon, Prof. Hutton, Principal Sheraton, Frederick W. W. G. of Ontario, and others.

After the degree of M.A. and L.B. had been conferred on the various students, Mr. Hunter read the names of the graduates in the history of the university. The annual commencement of the university of Toronto was held yesterday afternoon in Convocation hall.

The weather was all that could be desired, and the crowd that turned out was larger than any which has been present for years. At 2:30 the students filed in with the usual display of singing and the horns.

On the platform were seated Wm. Mulock, vice-chancellor of the university, President Wilson, Col. Gowal, Hon. G. W. Ross, Mr. Booth, Chief-Minister, Q.C., Dr. Burwash of Ontario, Dr. King and Dr. Bryon of Winnipeg, Father Lawler, Dr. D. C. S. of St. John's, and Mr. Houston, Prof. Young, Prof. Loudon, Prof. Hutton, Principal Sheraton, Frederick W. W. G. of Ontario, and others.

After the degree of M.A. and L.B. had been conferred on the various students, Mr. Hunter read the names of the graduates in the history of the university. The annual commencement of the university of Toronto was held yesterday afternoon in Convocation hall.

The weather was all that could be desired, and the crowd that turned out was larger than any which has been present for years. At 2:30 the students filed in with the usual display of singing and the horns.

On the platform were seated Wm. Mulock, vice-chancellor of the university, President Wilson, Col. Gowal, Hon. G. W. Ross, Mr. Booth, Chief-Minister, Q.C., Dr. Burwash of Ontario, Dr. King and Dr. Bryon of Winnipeg, Father Lawler, Dr. D. C. S. of St. John's, and Mr. Houston, Prof. Young, Prof. Loudon, Prof. Hutton, Principal Sheraton, Frederick W. W. G. of Ontario, and others.

After the degree of M.A. and L.B. had been conferred on the various students, Mr. Hunter read the names of the graduates in the history of the university. The annual commencement of the university of Toronto was held yesterday afternoon in Convocation hall.

The weather was all that could be desired, and the crowd that turned out was larger than any which has been present for years. At 2:30 the students filed in with the usual display of singing and the horns.

On the platform were seated Wm. Mulock, vice-chancellor of the university, President Wilson, Col. Gowal, Hon. G. W. Ross, Mr. Booth, Chief-Minister, Q.C., Dr. Burwash of Ontario, Dr. King and Dr. Bryon of Winnipeg, Father Lawler, Dr. D. C. S. of St. John's, and Mr. Houston, Prof. Young, Prof. Loudon, Prof. Hutton, Principal Sheraton, Frederick W. W. G. of Ontario, and others.

After the degree of M.A. and L.B. had been conferred on the various students, Mr. Hunter read the names of the graduates in the history of the university. The annual commencement of the university of Toronto was held yesterday afternoon in Convocation hall.

The weather was all that could be desired, and the crowd that turned out was larger than any which has been present for years. At 2:30 the students filed in with the usual display of singing and the horns.

On the platform were seated Wm. Mulock, vice-chancellor of the university, President Wilson, Col. Gowal, Hon. G. W. Ross, Mr. Booth, Chief-Minister, Q.C., Dr. Burwash of Ontario, Dr. King and Dr. Bryon of Winnipeg, Father Lawler, Dr. D. C. S. of St. John's, and Mr. Houston, Prof. Young, Prof. Loudon, Prof. Hutton, Principal Sheraton, Frederick W. W. G. of Ontario, and others.

After the degree of M.A. and L.B. had been conferred on the various students, Mr. Hunter read the names of the graduates in the history of the university. The annual commencement of the university of Toronto was held yesterday afternoon in Convocation hall.

The weather was all that could be desired, and the crowd that turned out was larger than any which has been present for years. At 2:30 the students filed in with the usual display of singing and the horns.

On the platform were seated Wm. Mulock, vice-chancellor of the university, President Wilson, Col. Gowal, Hon. G. W. Ross, Mr. Booth, Chief-Minister, Q.C., Dr. Burwash of Ontario, Dr. King and Dr. Bryon of Winnipeg, Father Lawler, Dr. D. C. S. of St. John's, and Mr. Houston, Prof. Young, Prof. Loudon, Prof. Hutton, Principal Sheraton, Frederick W. W. G. of Ontario, and others.

After the degree of M.A. and L.B. had been conferred on the various students, Mr. Hunter read the names of the graduates in the history of the university. The annual commencement of the university of Toronto was held yesterday afternoon in Convocation hall.

The weather was all that could be desired, and the crowd that turned out was larger than any which has been present for years. At 2:30 the students filed in with the usual display of singing and the horns.

On the platform were seated Wm. Mulock, vice-chancellor of the university, President Wilson, Col. Gowal, Hon. G. W. Ross, Mr. Booth, Chief-Minister, Q.C., Dr. Burwash of Ontario, Dr. King and Dr. Bryon of Winnipeg, Father Lawler, Dr. D. C. S. of St. John's, and Mr. Houston, Prof. Young, Prof. Loudon, Prof. Hutton, Principal Sheraton, Frederick W. W. G. of Ontario, and others.

GIRLS IN CAP AND GOWN.

FOUR FEMALE GRADUATES AT TORONTO UNIVERSITY.

Annual Commencement Yesterday—The Medals and Scholarships—The Vice-Chancellor's Speech—The Bachelors.

The annual commencement of the university of Toronto was held yesterday afternoon in Convocation hall. The weather was all that could be desired, and the crowd that turned out was larger than any which has been present for years.

At 2:30 the students filed in with the usual display of singing and the horns. On the platform were seated Wm. Mulock, vice-chancellor of the university, President Wilson, Col. Gowal, Hon. G. W. Ross, Mr. Booth, Chief-Minister, Q.C., Dr. Burwash of Ontario, Dr. King and Dr. Bryon of Winnipeg, Father Lawler, Dr. D. C. S. of St. John's, and Mr. Houston, Prof. Young, Prof. Loudon, Prof. Hutton, Principal Sheraton, Frederick W. W. G. of Ontario, and others.

After the degree of M.A. and L.B. had been conferred on the various students, Mr. Hunter read the names of the graduates in the history of the university. The annual commencement of the university of Toronto was held yesterday afternoon in Convocation hall.

The weather was all that could be desired, and the crowd that turned out was larger than any which has been present for years. At 2:30 the students filed in with the usual display of singing and the horns.

On the platform were seated Wm. Mulock, vice-chancellor of the university, President Wilson, Col. Gowal, Hon. G. W. Ross, Mr. Booth, Chief-Minister, Q.C., Dr. Burwash of Ontario, Dr. King and Dr. Bryon of Winnipeg, Father Lawler, Dr. D. C. S. of St. John's, and Mr. Houston, Prof. Young, Prof. Loudon, Prof. Hutton, Principal Sheraton, Frederick W. W. G. of Ontario, and others.

After the degree of M.A. and L.B. had been conferred on the various students, Mr. Hunter read the names of the graduates in the history of the university. The annual commencement of the university of Toronto was held yesterday afternoon in Convocation hall.

The weather was all that could be desired, and the crowd that turned out was larger than any which has been present for years. At 2:30 the students filed in with the usual display of singing and the horns.

On the platform were seated Wm. Mulock, vice-chancellor of the university, President Wilson, Col. Gowal, Hon. G. W. Ross, Mr. Booth, Chief-Minister, Q.C., Dr. Burwash of Ontario, Dr. King and Dr. Bryon of Winnipeg, Father Lawler, Dr. D. C. S. of St. John's, and Mr. Houston, Prof. Young, Prof. Loudon, Prof. Hutton, Principal Sheraton, Frederick W. W. G. of Ontario, and others.

After the degree of M.A. and L.B. had been conferred on the various students, Mr. Hunter read the names of the graduates in the history of the university. The annual commencement of the university of Toronto was held yesterday afternoon in Convocation hall.

The weather was all that could be desired, and the crowd that turned out was larger than any which has been present for years. At 2:30 the students filed in with the usual display of singing and the horns.

On the platform were seated Wm. Mulock, vice-chancellor of the university, President Wilson, Col. Gowal, Hon. G. W. Ross, Mr. Booth, Chief-Minister, Q.C., Dr. Burwash of Ontario, Dr. King and Dr. Bryon of Winnipeg, Father Lawler, Dr. D. C. S. of St. John's, and Mr. Houston, Prof. Young, Prof. Loudon, Prof. Hutton, Principal Sheraton, Frederick W. W. G. of Ontario, and others.

After the degree of M.A. and L.B. had been conferred on the various students, Mr. Hunter read the names of the graduates in the history of the university. The annual commencement of the university of Toronto was held yesterday afternoon in Convocation hall.

The weather was all that could be desired, and the crowd that turned out was larger than any which has been present for years. At 2:30 the students filed in with the usual display of singing and the horns.

On the platform were seated Wm. Mulock, vice-chancellor of the university, President Wilson, Col. Gowal, Hon. G. W. Ross, Mr. Booth, Chief-Minister, Q.C., Dr. Burwash of Ontario, Dr. King and Dr. Bryon of Winnipeg, Father Lawler, Dr. D. C. S. of St. John's, and Mr. Houston, Prof. Young, Prof. Loudon, Prof. Hutton, Principal Sheraton, Frederick W. W. G. of Ontario, and others.

After the degree of M.A. and L.B. had been conferred on the various students, Mr. Hunter read the names of the graduates in the history of the university. The annual commencement of the university of Toronto was held yesterday afternoon in Convocation hall.

The weather was all that could be desired, and the crowd that turned out was larger than any which has been present for years. At 2:30 the students filed in with the usual display of singing and the horns.

On the platform were seated Wm. Mulock, vice-chancellor of the university, President Wilson, Col. Gowal, Hon. G. W. Ross, Mr. Booth, Chief-Minister, Q.C., Dr. Burwash of Ontario, Dr. King and Dr. Bryon of Winnipeg, Father Lawler, Dr. D. C. S. of St. John's, and Mr. Houston, Prof. Young, Prof. Loudon, Prof. Hutton, Principal Sheraton, Frederick W. W. G. of Ontario, and others.

After the degree of M.A. and L.B. had been conferred on the various students, Mr. Hunter read the names of the graduates in the history of the university. The annual commencement of the university of Toronto was held yesterday afternoon in Convocation hall.

The weather was all that could be desired, and the crowd that turned out was larger than any which has been present for years. At 2:30 the students filed in with the usual display of singing and the horns.

On the platform were seated Wm. Mulock, vice-chancellor of the university, President Wilson, Col. Gowal, Hon. G. W. Ross, Mr. Booth, Chief-Minister, Q.C., Dr. Burwash of Ontario, Dr. King and Dr. Bryon of Winnipeg, Father Lawler, Dr. D. C. S. of St. John's, and Mr. Houston, Prof. Young, Prof. Loudon, Prof. Hutton, Principal Sheraton, Frederick W. W. G. of Ontario, and others.