No doubt one of the alleys covered by the above reference is that in rear of this office and the adjoining offices, the property in fact of the valuable Dennis estate that is now being advertised for sale. Besides the alley there is a yard of considerable size, and the whole place is in a most unhealthy condition. The garbage is never thoroughly cleaned away by the scavengers, and on the surface of the ground there is always some putrid matter lying about. But the most serious cause of complaint is the presence of four or five outdoor closets from which emanates a most disagreeable odor, and that without interruption. Thousands and thousands of dollars are paid as rent to the owners of this property annually and the there are allowed to be an the teach.

"Find" in Rear of the Teraulay-street.
The detectives have begun another war of extermination upon the known thieves and smooks now in the city. Saturday night Detective John Cuddy locked up Fred Davis on general principles. Davis is a well known thief and burglar. He is held under the Vagrancy Act.

The next one to be landed at Police Headquarters was "Stoney" Jackson. "Stoney" is a pickpocket and sneak thief. He will be a pickpocket and sneak thief. He will be charged with vagrancy. Detective Black picked him up yesterday morning.

Detective John Cuddy and Burrows made quite a capture in rear of 110 Teraulay-street at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. On visiting the place they found "Joe" Fox, a sneak thief and burglar, and a woman named Mary Smith, alias "Mrs. Davis." She is said to be the wife of Fred Davis, mentioned above. The house was searched and a complete set of skeleton keys found. Fox and the woman were taken to Police Headquarters. While being searched Fox attempted to pass a valuable watch up his sleeve. The watch he evidently stole. It is of gold, a Waltham hunting case, stem-winder, with sterling movements. The number is "1284662."

Charlie Wolf (the "sheeney" Wolf Captured.

Charlie Wolf (the "sheeney") a few days ago cleverly managed to walk out of a court-soom at Berlin while he was being tried for a confidence game. The Berlin police were very irate over the loss of Mr. Wolf, for he had roped in many countrymen with his little shells and the pea. Saturday Detective Alf. Cinddy noticed Mr. Wolf strolling through York-street and locked him up. The Berlin anthorities can have him for coming for him.

The Crown Prince's Case.

Berlin, July 9.—Prof. Virchow's latest seport on the extirpated portion of the growth in Crown Prince Frederick William's throat is held by pathological experts to be most favorable. Still it fails to entirely remove fears concerning his condition, and until Dr. Mackenzie declares the operations are no longer needs any the experts will remain skeptical as to the final success of the present mode of cure. Dr. Wegner sends word that the general health of the Orown Prince is improving.

Paris, July 9.—A fire broke out about 12 o'clock last night in the rough-cast building owned by Mrs. J. McGregor and rented by the Town Council for a public market. The building was partly destroyed, together with considerable meat of all kinds. Loss about $1500; no insurance on the building.
The occupants at the time, principally batchers, lost most of their stock and implements. The fire is believed to have been of incendiary origin, this being the second attempt to burn the place within three months.

FERDINAND'S ELECTION.

St. PETERSBURG, July 9. - The Russian Sr. Petersburg, July 9.—The Russian newspapers unanimously disapprove of the election of Prince Ferdinand of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha to the Bulgarian throne. They all pronounce the choice of him by the Sobranje the result of an Austro-German intrigue, and urgs the Porte to intervene and the powers to withdraw their representatives from Sofia.

The Novoe Vremya says that Russia in no case will allow Prince Ferdinand to go to Sofia, and adds that if he arrives there with an Austrian escort Russia will tell Austria to keep her hands off.

Parnellism and Crime.

London, July 9.—An anonymous letter published in to-day's Times calls the attention of that paper to what the writer declares to be the fact that its articles on "Parnellism and Crime" have seriously perturbed the Parnellites and their allies in America, particularly The Irish World. The writer says the issue of The Irish World of June 18 shows that Patrick Ford's London correspondent, "TransAtlantic," has slunk away owing to the imminence of coercion.
