DEAD STOCK IN REAL ESTATE—Boomed to death in the outskirts. The successful merchant avoids looking up capital in dead stock, and would not touch goods at any price that glut the narket.

An immediate increase of half a million to our population would be insufficient to make practical use of the large tracts of lots recently blocked out in the outskirts of the city, hence a forced but sluggish market, for the fext ten of twenty years, with capital locked up in waste fields where we had fruitful farms and profitable market gardens, The moonshine will soon be knocked out of this crazy and ultimately ruinous boom. Mr. Davitt, who is for land nationali—that is, confiscation—denounces it a other bill for the relief of Irish land Mr. Parnell insists that it will benef Irish tenant at the expense of the E taxpayer. One group of opponent scribes the bill as Socialistic, another attempt to wring more millions from poor starving peasantry, one as a bragrarian discontent, another as a conc to the English garrison. The more heads of the party see that these crit are mutually destructive, and are mefforts to agree on some one ground position, thus far without success. Hadstone himself, more wary than his lish followers, admitted that the mwas comprehensive and showed careful of a difficult subject.

Mr. Parnell left the House while Mr. Farnell left the House while Mr. Parnell left the Lirish wires his of that the bill is full of danger. So it danger to Home Rule most of all. No attempt to settle the land question has made before. If accepted, it will put a to that dual ownership of the soil which fruitful cause of trouble. It will treat the land question has made before. If accepted, it will put a to that dual ownership of the soil which the hire. His rent is reduced at a 20 per cent, more for the first five years, expiration of which the title passes to to his heirs. In other words, a tenant no ing $100 a year, pays $80 for five years, expiration of which the title passes to to his heirs. In other words, a tenant no ing $100 a year, pays $80 for five years, expiration of which the title passes to to his heirs. In other words, a tenant no installments of rent and interest are pa Ne landlerd is compelled to sell, but sells he receives the agreed value of tate in bonds exchangeable for consols.

The financial arrangements are genious as they are complicated, ar Goschen's hand is visible in the scheme Government believe that though th mittedly use Imperial credit, no risk mittedly use Imperial credit, no rest taxpayer is involved. Irish tenants will says one Home Rule journal, more $400,000,000; and it cries out against travagant generosity of the scheme/for whom it speaks despair, evident arraying the Irish against such a pround hope to create a panic in England. Gladstone and Mr. Parnell are expending in registing the bill on the further ghat so yast an enterprise ought to be well. Commission.

The bill is at any rate, a bold one, the first great effort of the Tories attractive land legislation and they stand or fall by it. Certain it is fore by Mr. Gladstone, religated to planet Saturn. The measure is defens a measure of political necessity, not wise. Nor has any human being on the of the globe had so much done for him much given to him by legislation as t A Blow to the Gladstonians The recapture of Ayr by the Torie blow to the Gladstonians, who admit some frankness, but lay the blame on candidate, or rather on themselves for ing an English candidate to contest a constituency. To that point it seem Scotch patriotism of the Home Rule so rived that an Englishman is no longer a able to Scotch voters. Mr. Routledge stood in the Gladstonian interest, is a known publisher. He had a certificate Mr. Gladstone, help from the Irish the resources of the party behind him all this would not do. Ireland to the Front.

The truth is, this was a dinner of I Liberals, who wanted to get Mr. Gla to talk on subjects which they think est to success in the London boroughs, to success in the London boroughs, topics most of all, reform in land treform in municipal rule, extension powers of the London County Counc many other like matters. To their d Mr. Gladstone put all these aside an Ireland once more in front. He reagain that there is no hope of an else till the Irish question is out of the "We cannot," said one of his leadi porters, "carry a single election on the question alone, and on questions v success Mr. Gladstone will not help u takes no interest in them, and has clo mind for the present to everythin mind for the present to everyth Home Rule. What are we to do?" this cry of almost despair no answer h been given.

The Liverpool dock strike continues sense that a large number of dockers a out, but with no real hope of success employers have found other men an work goes on. The trades unions a winning but losing. The troops and together convinced the men that they chance by violence, so the tactics succeeded in London have been drog Liverpool. It is Mr. Ismay, the madirector of the White Star Linc, to wignest part of the credit is due for the stand made, and for the steadfast ref the Liverpool employers to have their managed for them by trades unions.
