HELP THE CHILDREN.

The Aid Society Now Takes Definit Shape—Bylaws Adopted. Hereafter the destitute children of Toron to are to be well cared for, at least if an earnest number of philanthropic men and women can accomplish this laudable object. A number of these assembled yesterday afternoon in the Queen City Building to attend the first general meeting of the Toronto Children's Aid Society, since its organization.

Warden James Massie occupied the chair. The chief item of business was the adoption of a constitution and bylaws. This occasioned a good deal of discussion, but the whole, as drafted by a committee, was, with a few corrections, finally adopted. to are to be well cared for, at least if an by their full band and by the bugle and

The total gifts to the Toronto University library when they have all been received will number over 30,000 volumes. In England the committee has already finished its work and made its last shipment. There are now 33,000 volumes on the shelves, which is more than were in the whole of the old fibrary. In addition the acting librarian. Mir. Brebner, has out about $15,000 worth of orders. Until the completion of the library building all books will be kept in the School of Science. Two reading rooms will be provided one for each sex.

Chronic Derangements of the Stomach, Liver and Blood, are speedily removed by the active principle of the ingredients entering into the composition of Parunelee's Vegetable Pills. These Pills act specifically on the deranged organs, stimulating to action the dormant energies of the system, thereby removing disease and renewing life and vitality to the afflicted. In this lies the great secret of the popularity of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills.

Grain Men's Troubles.

The grain section of the Toronto Board of Trade met yesterday afternoon to consider the adoption of more stringent regulations in reference to the terms on which flour and grain are sold. The principal objects sought are a betier understanding of the term "buying to arrive," and also the definition of a carload. After appointing a committee to confer with the railway companies the meeting adjourned. Another conference will be held.

What Say They?

The great Now York success, "The Burglar," will be seen for one week at Jacobs & Sparrow's Opera House, commencing Monday, Oct. 5. This is the play which was first that it was re-written into a play by Mr. Augustus Thomas (also author of "Andeama") and produced at the Madison-square Theatre, where it made a decided hit. It has now been successfully produced throughout the country for nearly three years. The play is a good moral picture of everyday life. Its sentimental parts are beautiful and the play is interesting from the rise to the fall of the curtain.
