

own sex who are blest with children. The pride and honour of parents among them depend upon the number of their family. Another reason why barrenness is disgraceful, is, that it is considered to be brought on by incontinence or wilful abortions.

END OF THE SECOND VOLUME.

LONDON:

F. SHOERL, JUN., LAZENBY COURT, LONG ACRE.