

body knows. I have tried to avoid these objections; and trust there is little of the expletive or diffusive in my wording, while my theme is widely patriotic, and my tune known and sung or played wherever the British flag flies. There can be no National Anthem but "God save the Queen" for Her Majesty's Dominion of Canada.

OTTAWA, 23 April, 1878.

G. W. W.

las, I drafted.
ncipal Bill for
aine's, and the
at many others
1 to 1867; and
vers Ministries
had some not
which has ori-
rked with and
of note. I am
side have ever
vidence. I am
o look at both
no party man
ure to himself
run high, and
ne another of
ife;—but this
e to draft or
n which I do
od of Canada
foremost men
iends, might.
those of their

ould,— untry."

Anthem for
out "Canada
maple leaves
mselves, but
me that any