7th Resolution - That the persons now nominated and accepting office are required to hold the same for one year only, but are eligible to be re-elected as often as is expedient and that the said committee of management have power to fill up any vacancies in their number which may happen by death or change of residence during their year in office.

8th Resolution—That the thanks of the Catholic inhabitants of this place are due and hereby given to our worthy pastor, the Rev. J. Cullen, for his laudable exertion in commencing the subscription of this morning for the purpose of erecting said church."

The following year viz. 1832, the church was begun; Bishop MacDonell, who was conspicuous not only in the ecclesiastical but also the political life of the country, having secured a grant of four acres of land from the government on which it was erected. It is a frame building measuring 60x40 ft., with ten large Gothic windows of stained glass and a commodious sanctuary and vestry. There is also a tower with a large window surmounted by a steeple 50 ft. high and a cross. The interior arrangements of the edifice consist of three aisles with two central and two side rows of pews. There are two galleries, the cost of those having been entirely assumed by the Catholic soldiers, who were stationed here at the time, and for whom one of the galleries was reserved. There are three altars
