Notice to Mariners.—Extract from the Log Book of the Bremen brig Siern, Capt. D. Spille, on her voyage from Bremen to New York:—"On the 10th August, 1837, at 6 p. m. in lat. 43 deg. 20 min. W. saw a Rock, which on referring to the chart, was not laid out in the same. It being calm and clear weather, we lowered down the boat and approached the said rock within a few yards; we found a platform level with the water of about 15 feet in diameter, and a piece of rock in the middle, of the form of a sugar loaf, about 8 or ten feet high. No other rocks were to be seen—the sea of a dark blue color, and very clear.

Ledge on Grand Banks.—Capt. Thompson, of schr. Paragon, at Castine, from Grand Banks, reports having seen on the Banks, lat 44, 46, long. 53, 10, (being foggy, does not know as he is correct in the longitude,) a ledge near the west edge, with about three fathoms water; appeared long and narrow. Capt. T. thinks it is in the track of ships going to England;—he does not recollect of ever having seen it mentioned, and it is not laid down in any chart.
