A little way below the great fall the river is comparatively speaking so tranquil that a ferry-boat plies between the Canada and American shores for the convenience of travellers when I first crossed the heaving flood tossed about the skiff with a violence that seemed very alarming but as soon as we gained the middle of the river my attention was altogether engaged by the surpassing grandeur of the scene before me I was now within the area of a semi-circle of cataracts more than three thousand feet in extent and floated on the surface of a gulf fathomless and interminable majestic cliffs splendid rainbows lofty trees and columns of spray were the gorgeous decorations of this theatre of wonders.

18 2. Render into good English—

The owl conceals itself by day in the recesses of ivy-clad ruins. He conceals itself in the hollows of old trees. It conceals itself in barns. It conceals itself in haylofts. Towards twilight it quits its perch. Towards twilight it takes a regular circuit round the fields. It skims along the ground in quest of mice. It skims along the ground in quest of rats. It skims along in quest of moles, shrews, and large insects. It seizes its prey. It returns with it in his claws. The owl is of great utility. It destroys an enormous quantity of mice. It destroys an enormous quantity of other vermin. These
