THE TRUE WITNESS AND CATHOLIC CHRONICLE.

YANEER BUSINESS MEN. The Boston Transcript model republic as in Protestant England or Canada: deceive their stockholders for years by misrepresenshow on paper dividends earned, and actually to ingrease the rate of payment from year to year, when pay dividends for years, or until longer concealment was impossible, by the accumulation of capital and cost. We have known a bank in Wall street to pay a dividend one day, fail the next, and never pay a cent to stockholders or billholders. We have known more instances of villainy in Wall street practised by wealthy and highly respectable men, than we have time now to enumerate, and we have no doubt that there are at this moment in that immediate vicinity men holding high places of trust who are deeper dyed rogues than can be found in Sing Sing. When we see a body of men entrusted with the management of a railroad, involving the protection of interests amounting to ten millions of dollars, and involving the annual expenditure of several millions more, signing and issuing reports annually, or oftener, relative to cost and earnings, which they know to be false in every important particular, it is enough to destroy confidence in all incorporated companies and enough minduce us to place very little trust in the honesty and integrity of men whose position should be a guarantee of character. - N. Y. paper.

Success in New York .- Cases of self-destruction are becoming lamentably frequent. Almost every day, for some weeks past, we have had to record one or more such occurrences, and to-day we have to add two more to the list .- N. Y. Times.

A woman named Charlotte E. Black, a native of New-York, 33 years of age, threw herself on Saturday from a fourth-story window of house No. 94 West Twenty-fith-street, to the sidewalk beneath, and was instantly killed. The unfortunate woman became partially insane about four months since, while in confinement, and never entirely recovered. Coroner O'Donnell held an inquest on the body—lo.

A German blew his brains out on Saturday at the 1001 of Murray-street. An officer hearing the report of the pistol went to the place from whence it came, and found the unfortunate man lying dead, with a pistol clasped firmly in his right hand. His head was shockingly mutilated .- Jb.

A WOMAN CHASTISED FOR ATTENDING A CATHOLIC CHURCH-CURIOUS CASE. - The Philadelphia Bulletin ST. PATRICK'S SOCRETY'S COURSE OF LECTURES. reports a case heard: before a magistrate in that city on Tuesday last. A young girl named Mary Anne Williams, had attended a Catholic Church, and for this her brothers gave her a severe chastisement, inflicting upon her heavy blows. She then left the home of her brothers, and went to reside with a gentleman who is understood to be a Catholic. The elder brother had her arrested on a charge of absconding from his custody, alleging that he was appointed guardian of the girl at their father's death. The case xcited much interest, and counsel to the number of five appeared upon the examination. After hearing he evidence and remarks of counsel, the case was adiourned.

While the main organ of Irish Fillibusterism confineditself to vulgar abuse, Mr. McGee noticed its efforts not at all, or only as they deserved. But when the Editor set about to forge facts, he went a little too far. An opportunity will now be given him to clear up whatever character he may have, a suit for libel against the conductor of the Citizen being entered on Wednesday last, by our Counsel, Richard Busteed. Esq. The truth, put on legal record, will be of use to many—especially in the interior, where the emissaties of these persons are still at work .- American DISCOVERY OF THE BRITISH ARTIC SHIP "RESO-JACOURANT OF THE BRITISH AND AND THE RESOLUTE. The British ship Resolute, which was abandoned in the ice off Cockburn's Island, has been brought into New London, Ct., by Capt. Budington, of the whale-ship George Henry. She has all her amaments, stores, and equipments on board. The Co., Notre Dame Street; P. Ronayne's, M'Gill: Street; J. Resolute is a new and handsome vessel, and is valued Phelan's, Dalbousie Square; of members of the Committee, as 100,000 at 11 and 15 an at $100,000. When found, she had drifted over 1000 and at the door on the evenings of lectures. miles from the place where she was abandoned.

THE HAPPINESS OF SERVING GOD. And what is a further blessing is, that what makes you happy makes our dearest Lord happy also; and the thought of this again makes us so happy that we can hardly contain ourselves; and then that again makes Him happier still. And thus religion gets sweeter and sweeter-life is one long joy, because the will of God is always being done in it, and, the glory of God always being got from it, you become identified with the interests of Jesus; you wed them as if they were your own, as indeed they are. His spirit steals into you, and sets up a throne in your heart, and crowns itself; and then most sweetly proclaims itself King. It gained the crown by a dear conspiracy; you never suspected what Divine love was about all the while. But so it is. God's glory becomes dear to you; you get quite touchy about our Lord, for He is become the apple of your eye; and you are drawn to save souls, because it is what He is always doing, and so you get an instinct and a taste for it yourself. And so it all goes on ; and so you live; yet, not you, but Christ lives in you; and so you die. You never suspect you are a Saint, or any-hing approaching one. Your life, is hid with Christ m God, and hid from no one more than from yourself.
You a Saint indeed! Your humility would either laugh, or be frightened at the bare thought. But, oh! the depth of the mercies of Jesus! What will be your surprise at His Judgment-seat; to hear the sweet. sentence, to see the bright crown! Why, you will almost argue against your own salvation! Our Lord, makes the elect do so in the Gospel: "Lord, when aw we Thee hungry, and led thies! When saw we Thee thirsty, and gave Thee drink?? They cannot make it out. In all their love for Jesus, they never leamt it was so great a thing as this. Ah! only serve Jesus out of love! You cannot beat God in the hile of love! Only serve Jesus out of love-and while your eyes are yet unclosed, before the whiteless of death is yet settled on your face, or those lound you sure that thut last gentle breathing was Ideed your last, oh! what an unspeakable surprise will you have had at the Judgment-seat of your dear-st ove, while the songs of Heaven are breaking on any other medium offered for such purpose.

our ears, and the glory of God is, dawning on your lears, and the glory of God is, dawning on your lears, to fade away no more for ever!—"All for Jetus," for each insertion. y Dr. Faber.

HE DIED OF BROKERS, SIR. -" He did not die of lets us into a flew of the secrets of the American cholera—he died of brokers, Sir 123 said a man to us lets us indicated, which is much the same in the yesterday, speaking of the death of his friend. "He projected an unwise improvement of a piece of real "We have known managers of railroad companies estate-made loans, covered himself with bonds and deceive their stockholders for years by misrepresen-nations of expenditures; We have known them to stony on paper dividends earned, and actually to in-ed the life right out of him. He borrowed Canada trease the rain of the state of day, returnable in notes of Buffalo banks-shinned it from street to street and friend to friend to keep the debt ahead to him. Why, sir, I could not sit down to consult with him, or to do any kind of business with him, with the least assurance that he would not jump up suddenly to go out and give another shove to that accursed debt. The memorandum-book of his obligations was always in his bosom, and, sir, it burned to the poor man's heart. He was owned by brokers. He worked for them, lived for them, died for them. He did not die of cholera at all, sir, He died of a street debt, upon which he expend his strength every week in throwing it a head from one day to seven days."

WHAT, OR WHICH IS THE BEST VERMIFUGE OR WORM DESTROYER?

IF Is a question daily and hourly asked by parents, anxious for the health of their children. All who are at all acquainted with the article, will immediately answer, DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE.

It has never been known to fail, and is one of the safest remedies that can be used. A friend of ours lately handed us the following statement in reference to this Vermifuge New York, September 25, 1852.

GENTLEMEN—A young lady of my acquaintance had been for a long time very much troubled with worms. I advised her to try Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Vermifuge. She accordingly purchased and took one vial, which caused her to discharge an unusually large quantity of worms. She was immediately relieved of all the dreadful symptoms accompanying this disease, and rapidly recovered her usual health. The young lady does not wish her name mentioned; ner rosidence, however, is 520 Fifth street, and she refers to Mrs. Hardie, No. 3 Manhattan place, P. S. Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Vermifuge, also his Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores in this city.

RF Purchasers will please be careful to ask for, and take none but DR. M'LANE'S VERMIFUGE. All others, in comparison, are worthless.

EIGHTH VOLUME POPULAR LIBRARY SERIES.

Dec. 27.

THE LIFE and TIMES of ST. BERNARD. Translated from the French of L'Abbe Ratisbonne, with a preface by Henry Edward Manning, D.D., and a portrait. 1 vol. 12mo., 500 pages. Price—Cloth, extra, 5s; gilt edge, 7s 6d.

"St. Bernard was so eminently the Saim of his age, that it would be impossible to write his life without surrounding it with an extensive history of the period in which he lived, and over which he may be truly said to have ruled. The Abbe Ratisbonne has, with this view, very ably and judiciously interwoven with the personal narrative and description of the Saint, the chief contemporaneous events and characters of the time.

Saint, the chief contemporaneous events and characters the time.

"There seems to have been in this one mind an inexhaustible abundance, variety, and versatility of gifts. Without ever ceasing to be the holy and morufied religious, St. Bernard appears to be the ruling will of his time. He stands forth as pastor, preacher, mystical writer, controversialist, relormer, pacificator, mediator, arbiter, diplomatist, and statesman."—Extract from Proface.

NINTH VOLUME POPULAR LIBRARY SERIES. The Life and Victories of the Early Martyrs. By Mrs. Hope. Written for the Oratorian Schools of Our Lady's Compassion. I vol. 12mo., 400 pages. Price—cloth, extra, 3s 9d; gilt edges, 5s 7ld.

"The interesting tale of 'Fabiola' has made most readers familiar with the sufferings of the Early Martyrs, and desir-ous to know more of their history; and of the victories which they achieved over the world. Every age, every clime, has its martyrs; for it is a distinctive mark of the Catholic Church that the race of martyrs never dies out. And since her earliest times, a single generation has not passed away with-out some of her children shedding their blood for the name of Jesus. .- Extract from Introduction.
