are coming forward more plentifully, as are tomatoes. Oranges, and more especially lemons, are here in force, owing to the heavy recent receipts from Sicily. Prices are quoted as follows: California Wash. navels, $4.25 to $4.50 per box; Mediterranean sweets, $4.25; Valencias, $5.50 to $6.50 per case; Bahamas, $2.50; Mexican, $2.50; Messina, lemons, $2.50 to $3 per box; bananas, fancy, $1.20 to $2; Canadian white beans, $1.40 per bush.; cocoanuts, $3.75 per sack; tomatoes, $4 per crate; pineapples, $4.50; Egyptian onions, $3 per sack; strawberries, 14c. to 15c. per box; cucumbers, $1.75 to $2 per dozen.

Groceries.—Prices remain practically the same as last week. Business has shown some improvement during the week. The canned goods situation continues strong.

Hides and Skins.—Hides are scarce and though the demand is not abnormally large, have advanced in sympathy with the conditions in the United States. Few sheepskins are coming forward, but the demand is by no means brisk. Tallow has gone up owing to its scarcity in the market.

Live Stock.—Prices at the cattle market this week still showed an upward tendency, and indeed there seems to be little probability of the present high range of values being broken for some time to come. It means little profit for anyone concerned, except the farmers, for consumers object to pay enough to allow any margin to wholesalers. Export cattle were in light supply and advanced a fraction. Butchers' cattle were steady at prevailing figures. Calves were in improved demand.

Provisions.—Butter is coming in more freely; large rolls are selling at 17 1/2c. Very little packed butter is coming in. Cheese is firm. New, jobbing at 11 1/4c. The prices of hog products have advanced. Hams are quoted at 13c.; rolls, 11c.; long clear, 10 to 10 1/2c. Lard is unchanged. Eggs are firmer at 12 1/2c.

Seeds.—Little is being done in the local seed trade now, and only small orders are being received. With respect to trade in Great Britain, merchants report a steady seasonable sale for those kinds of farm seeds required for immediate sowing. Fine English red cloverseed, having become scarce, holds well its own; low qualities, however, meet with but little favor. There is no quotable change in either Alsike or Trefoil, but white, which now shows a considerable drop from top values, still tends downwards. As regards both Timothy and Lucerne, stocks have dwindled to quite narrow limits, and substantially higher prices are consequently demanded. Meantime last week's rates are quoted for Sanfoin and Cocksfoot. Rape seed exhibits no movement in value, as has been the case for now many months. Low quotations prevail for mustard seed. With respect to Haricot beans there is a better business doing; but blue peas continue dull.

SOME MEN PAY

$10,000 for an expert to manage their advertising. There are others who $5.00 for an annual pay subscription to Printers' Ink and learn what all the advertisers are thinking about. But even these are not the extremes reached. There are men who lose over $100,000 a year by doing neither one.
