GENERAL INTENTION FOR MAY.

Named by the Cardinal Protector and Blessed by the Pope for all Associates.

DEVOTION TO THE MOTHER OF GOD AND OF CHRISTIANS.

From the Canadian Messenger of the Sacred Heart.

Every year with the coming of May all are busy with the thought of how to honor during her month in a special manner their Queen in heaven, and how increase in their hearts their devotion towards her. This year the General Intention of the month will add a new zest to the endeavors of Associates, and they will with more confidence approach their will with more confidence approach their Mary! show thyself then our Mother, task of love, knowing that throughout the whole Christian world all their fellowmembers of the League are, every morning, offering their prayers for their succ-

No creature could be raised to a higher dignity than that of Mother of God, because there is naught more exalted than God nor more perfect than the Infinite. It is in view of the divine maternity that we owe Mary the greatest veneration: "Ratione hujus dignitatis deberi Virgini excellentiorem adorationem," in the words of the Angel of the Schools. Having conceived and given birth to a God, the God Man. Mary contracted a relationship with God unattainable for all other creatures:
Fines divinitatis propinquius atlingit, approaching nearer the confines of the divine.

For this reason the Blessed Virgin For this reason the Blessed Virgin holds in the divine economy an exceptional rank, incomparably above all that is not God, as if the God of all power had wished, in the production of this masterpiece, to display all the resources of what the Holy Doctor has termed his craft: ad ostentationem sum artis.

Now this year greatness of Mary

Now, this very greatness of Mary, which would seem to have no other limit which would seem to have no other limit save the omnipotence of God, besides that loveable obligation of honoring her with a supereminent cult, imposes on us that other duty of frequently having recourse to the efficacy of her assistance, both for the rearing of the edifice of every virtue in our souls and for insuring the fulfilment of all our duties, the aim of our daily endeavors.

Indeed, our devotion to the Blessed Virgin must not consist solely of "veneration " and " homage," but should be instinct also with "love" and "confidence," for the Mother of God is also the Mother of Christians. From the moment she yielded her consent to the Incarnation by that necisive "fiat," she, as St. Bernard assures us, bore us all in her bosom. But it was especially at the foot of the cross, when her soul was rent with maternal anguish and compassion, that the mystery of our adoption and of our assimilation with the members of God's Family was accomplished.

The Divine Master, when He taught his Apostles how they should pray, bade them address God by that loving name of Father: "Pater noster." It was an appellation full of tenderness, and breathing all the confidence He intended they should feel; and when He determined to enlist our affection for Mary, with his own lips, and just about to die, he called her our Mother: "Ecce Mater tua," for He knew well that after God's own name there was no name dearer and more sacred than the name of " Mother." Jesus hung there on the cross for love for us, fastened there with the cruel nails, "a Man of Sorrows," overwhelmed with bodily suffering and mental anguish; at the foot of the cross were all that was then left of his Church,—two faithful souls, but two souls burning with love for Him and loyal to Him in His supreme humiliation, His Mother and the Disciple He loved. At the solemn moment when mortals, weakened in the throes of death, find voice only to manifest their last will and testament, Jesus, glancing at His mother first, said: "Woman, behold thy Son!" and then at St. John: "Son, behold thy Mother!"

It would be impossible to explain the full effect which the words of Jesus produced in the hsart of His Blessed Mother. They awakened there a deep commiseration and an intense love for mankiud. A something took place there not unlike what passes within us when we receive a sacrament, are baptized or shriven at the tribunal of penance. The sacramental words "I baptize thee," "I It would be impossible to explain the full effect which the words of Jesus profull effect which the words of Jesus produced in the heart of His Blessed Mother. They awakened there a deep commiseration and an intense love for mankind. Week days—Mass at 7.80 a. m. en, that love increases and expands; it bursts into a great flame within the heart of the tender and merciful Virgin; her soul is stirred to its innermost depths, and she becomes for the second time a mother the Mather of Market and Lunch Parlor in time a mother the Mather of Market and Lunch Parlor in time a mother, the Mother of Mankind.
And now that she reigns in heaven as Queen of Angels and of God's elect, her heart still yearns for us and her hand is ever raised to bless and protect us. Safe within the haven of a blissful eternity, she knows that she has left behind her, tossed about on a tempestuous sea, child-ren whom she cherishes. She will shelter them from the storm and guide their frail bark though the billows threaten to engulf it. She will shine out brightly there above as the Star of the Sea.

Home, with her own in happiness, she has not forgotten how many she has begotten in grief who are yet mourning and weeping in the valley of tears, poor exiles, exposed to the heat of the day, toiling painfully on, their daily bread moistened with their tears. Should they meet a stray flower in their path, let them know that it was their Mother that set it there; should they sometimes find the cup of life less bitter, the sweet-ness comes from her; and when in their moments of despondency they hear whispered in their ear: "Peto, nate, ut adspicias ad cœlum!" it is the Mother's voice reminding them of the crown and the joy, and the endless love that awaits the joy, and the endless love that awaits them near her own throne.

May Mary not count upon an increase of filial confidence on the part of our Associates during this month of May? Will they not be more faithful than ever before before in reciting their daily Decade for the intentions of the Apostleshin of the Secret Heart and in the secret that the secret series of the secret that the secret series is the secret that the secret series is the secret that the secret series is the secret series of the secret series and the secret series is the secret series of the secret series are series and the secret series are series and the secret series are series and the secret series are series as the s ship of the Sacred Heart, and in repeatting these words of the Angelic Salutation, which are for the Blessed Virgin the most acceptable praise, and for us the gronds of our most unshaken hope: "Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners?"

We say that they contain the most acceptable praise for Mary, for they remind her of the origin of all her greatness; they are for us the grounds of all our hope, for they remind her also that she is, in a certain way, indebted to us for her signal privileges, since our glor-ious Queen was raised to the dignity of "monstra te esse Matrem," our Mother here below, but after and beyond, our Mother in eternity.
