

CSA will be responsible for arranging the Canadian PS's travel schedule to meet the training requirements prescribed in the training plan and schedule provided by NASA.

V. MANAGEMENT AND PROGRAM COORDINATION

The MIM program will be managed through a joint effort by each Party's designated manager. The NASA ISS Phase I Risk Mitigation Experiments Team Leader will be located at the Johnson Space Center (JSC) in Houston, Texas, and will be named separately. The CSA Project Manager will be located at CSA in St. Hubert, Quebec, and will be named separately.

VI. FUNDING ARRANGEMENTS

Each Party will bear the costs of discharging its respective responsibilities under this MOU, including travel and subsistence of its own personnel and transportation charges for the equipment for which it is responsible.

Each Party's financial obligations under this MOU are subject to its funding procedures and the availability of appropriated funds. Should either Party encounter funding problems which may affect its ability to fulfill its responsibilities under this MOU, that Party will notify and consult promptly with the other Party.

VII. RESPONSIBILITIES

NASA will use reasonable efforts to carry out the following responsibilities:

1. Provide a Space Shuttle launch for the demonstration flight;
2. Provide 2.5 mid-deck lockers on the Space Shuttle mission designated STS-85 to accommodate the MIM and MIM science/demonstration experiments;
3. Provide to CSA in a timely manner the appropriate technical data on all relevant requirements such as interface drawings, analyses, safety requirements and schedules in accordance with which the CSA MIM will be delivered to the JSC and/or Kennedy Space Center (KSC) for integration into the Shuttle;
4. Integrate the MIM hardware into the Shuttle orbiter and provide flight certification for the overall aggregate payload complement that includes the MIM;
5. Attend, as appropriate, meetings in support of the NASA/CSA MIM activities;
6. Develop, maintain, and exchange coordinated implementation schedules with CSA that include the dates for major milestones--the schedules will be updated as necessary and formally controlled by the designated managers;
