

Decision of War against Germany, Hungary and Rumania, December 11, 1941

On December 11, 1941, the Prime Minister announced that the declaration of war against Germany, Hungary and Rumania had been approved as from December 11, 1941.

On December 7, 1941, the Prime Minister announced that the declaration of war against Japan had been approved as from December 7, 1941.

On December 8, 1941, the Prime Minister announced that the declaration of war against Italy had been approved as from December 8, 1941.

Text of Note from Department of External Affairs to Japanese Legation, Ottawa, December 8, 1941.

Ottawa, December 8, 1941.

The Canadian Government has today been informed by the Japanese Legation, Ottawa, that the Japanese Government has announced that it has decided to sever diplomatic relations with the United States and the United Kingdom. The Japanese Legation also stated that the Japanese Government has decided to sever diplomatic relations with the United States and the United Kingdom. The Japanese Legation also stated that the Japanese Government has decided to sever diplomatic relations with the United States and the United Kingdom.

It is noted that the Japanese Legation, Ottawa, has advised that the Japanese Government has decided to sever diplomatic relations with the United States and the United Kingdom. The Japanese Legation also stated that the Japanese Government has decided to sever diplomatic relations with the United States and the United Kingdom. The Japanese Legation also stated that the Japanese Government has decided to sever diplomatic relations with the United States and the United Kingdom.

Japanese Legation, Ottawa, December 8, 1941.