

The hon. member for Moose Jaw (Mr. Skoberg) says that farm unions have advocated this kind of legislation. I know that the NDP have advocated it. I know that there was a request for an egg board in Saskatchewan and it was turned down. The farmers knew what was right for them and what was not right. They did not think a simple bureaucracy was the answer for them. I do not think it is the answer for them. This bill will not solve anyone's problem. If a producer has a quota he will be in a good position. If he does not have a quota, then it will be too bad for him. This bill, I repeat, will not solve the farmer's problems. Certainly all farmers want to become more efficient and increase their production. To this end they buy fertilizer, introduce new strains, grow new vegetables and do everything they possibly can.

This bill will not guarantee prices for farmers' produce. I suggest that the NDP is deceiving the House and the country by throwing out red carrots.

An hon. Member: In the sunset?

Some hon. Members: Oh, oh!

Mr. Korchinski: Well, a red herring. If the government accepts the solution to their problems such as is offered by the New Democratic Party, then let them ponder whether this country needs this type of advice.

Some hon. Members: Question.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Laniel): Is the House ready for the question?

Some hon. Members: Question.

The House divided on the amendment (Mr. Peters) which was negatived on the following division:
