OFFICE OF SIR GEO. McLAREN BROWN,
EUROPEAN GENERAL MANAGER.

9th December, 1924.

My dear Sir Arthur,

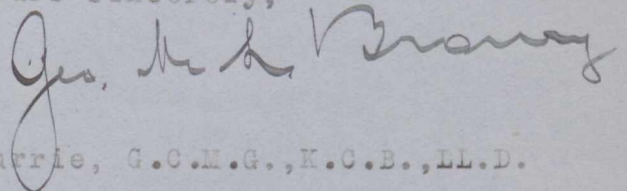

I am just writing to acknowledge your letter of the 26th ultimo which was duly presented by Major Wharton.

I am not at all sure whether we shall be successful in getting permission from the Soviet for his passage to Moscow, but I have given him a letter to the Soviet Representative in London, and they are cabling to Moscow to know if permission may be granted.

Believe me,

With all good wishes,

Yours sincerely,

General Sir Arthur W. Currie, G.C.M.G., K.C.B., LL.D.
