

1839.

FEBRUARY.

2d Month.

The wheel and the distaff, that matron or girl,
To spin all we wanted, or home, wont to twirl,
To "jennies" have yielded; and, ere long, I deem,
Our shirts will be made—our hose mended—by steam.

The poor weaver's visage is "warp'd" by despair,
For steam of his cuts, "cuts" him out of his share;
His prosperous days he can never redeem,
For, in plain cloth or checks, he is still check'd by steam.
