PLAYING TO FORM IN TENNIS TOURNEY

Only Surprise Was When Lee and Soemering Scored a Victory—The Results.

With the start today of the ladies' events, play for the championship of Toronto in the Rusholme tennis tourney; takes on, if anything, a more interesting stage. From the spectator's standpoint yesterday's games, mostly in the men's doubles were anything but dull. There were some surprises, but generally speakstage. From the spectator's standpoint yesterday's games, mostly in the men's doubles were anything but dull. There were some surprises, but generally speaking winners have been playing true to form. Lee and Soemmering rather surprised the gallery in their good game when Starr and McKinley were eliminated. Scores show something of how hard each team tried. Another good game was that in which Gurney and Henderson beat Ramsden and MacKenzle. It was Mr. Henderson who gave Mr. Mercer such a hard game in the opm singles. In all 28 games were played, the same number called for today.

DAVENPORT ALBIONS CHASE THE HOODOO

Davenport Albions by registering a win against the Thistles on Saturday, chased the hoodoo which has followed them all season. The game was most so rational in every respect and gave the crowd the thrills soccerites look for in a first league game.

From the first Davenports were the aggressors and soon were bombarding Thistles' goal. A fine defence was made till the fatal mistake of the backs hanging too close together, gave "Davens" their chance. Ellis hit the bar with the ball, which rebounded to McElroy, who passed neathy to his centre forward next to he controlled. neatly to his centre forward partner and the trick was done.

Half time score: Davenport Albions 1, Thistles 0. In the second period Thistles combated In the second period Thistles combated hard to check the dashing work of the Ward Seven team and thru brilliant tactics headed off a dangerous rush and transferred play to the Ports' end. From a corner kick Thistles scored, Hunter heading in the ball, beating the "stars," Butler, Dunmore and Enfield, Davens' custodian. A chapter of accidents befel the west end boys, Jack Ellis, Hunt and Captain Wardell retiring for a few minutes, owing to injuries. A battle royal between the Thistles' forwards and Black-Captain Wardell retiring for a few minutes, owing to injuries. A battle royal between the Thistles' forwards and Blackman. Jordan and Dunmore, the Ports' half-backs, was a treat to witness. Thistles put in a strenuous session and the neat work should have earned them a goal. A big feature of the game was the lack of many out of bound kicks being made, the ball being practically in play most of the time. Davenports got in some fine combination stunts and soon notched a goal. Calver getting in a grounder,

This disqualified the I.A.A and Kew Beach and Balmy Beach falled to put in an apperance last night.

At 7.39 p.m. the three crews lined up as follows: Toronto C.C., Humber Bay C.C., and Parkdale C.C. They got off to a splendid start and all three settled down to their work after the opening sprint. Parkdale took the lead early, swinging well back and steering a perfect course. The champion T.C.C. crew chopped a little at the start, gradually, however, getting into their regular pace, but they steered a very wretched course and intested of keeping in their regular pace, but they steered a very wretched course and intested of keeping in their own water slide over to leeward in the dead water. Thistles came back more determined and the grand efforts of Enfield only saving the Ports' citadel. The game held the attention of the crowd right up to the finish, evidently the bill of fare was sultable and in no small measure was the ideal work of Referee Dixon, whose sadduty (for the Thistles) was to credit Davenports with another goal, which the centre forward cleverly secured. A magnificent game ended, Davenport Albions 3, Thistles 1.

ONLY GHOSTS.

How the Trade Situation is Sized Up by "The Hustler."

The House of Hobberlin, Limited, the big custom tailors of this city, publish a weekly paper called "The Hustler." It is sent regularly to Hobberlin dealers, is ably edited and frequently contains matter well worthy a place in more pretentious jour-In the current issue there is an editorial on the present money strin-gency that hits off the situation admirably. Here it is:

ONLY GHOSTS!

An empty mind in an empty moment popped the fool question, "What's the Matter With Business?" And since then thousands of other empty minds have been repopping this question to the slow music ac-companiment of solemn headshakes, eyes rolled skyward and an Old Sleuth

Prominent men, who ought to know, have well said, "The present feeling about business is purely mental, not material." Like the little boy, who thought and thought and thought about ghosts until he awoke screaming, "Mamma, there's a ghost in bed with me," we have dwelt so long on "What's the Matter With Business?" that we have come to believe something is the matter.

The chief "matter with business" is

"granny gossip" started and spread by "rocking-chair tabbies." Raising clawlike hands and pointing skinny forefingers, they croak, "What the Matter With Business?" and their croak is echoed and chorused by fellow-tabbies, like the long-drawn-out
