

World's Series Bit Brings J. Evers' Earnings up to $40,000

BANQUET AND COIN TO BOSTON BRAVES

Nearly Three Thousand Dollars to Each Player — Big Money for J. Evers.

BOSTON, Oct. 14.—The Braves, world's baseball champions as a result of the sensational series with the Philadelphia Athletics, which closed here yesterday, were given a banquet and reception tonight by Mayor Curley. Praise for their achievement was sounded by various speakers, and modest acknowledgment was made by Manager George T. Stallings and several of the players. After the banquet many of the Braves left immediately for their home cities. They were each given cheques today for $7708.86 by a representative of the National Commission as their share in the world series receipts. To most of them this meant about $5000 for their season's work. Captain Johnny Evers found the season a big one financially, his income the past six months having been more than $40,000, including a bonus of $25,000 for his signature to a contract, $10,000 in salary, a $3000 bonus for finishing in first place, and his world's series receipts. The winter will be spent quietly by most of the men. Several vaudeville agents were at Fenway Park today endeavoring to sign up some of the stars, but it is understood that none was successful.

POOR SHOWING OF GUNBOAT SMITH

Biggest Surprise of the Fighting Line — New York Pug Gossip.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—The biggest surprise in the fighting line the past week was the poor showing made by Gunboat Smith in his ten-round battle with Battling Levinsky at the Manhattan Sporting Club last Friday night. Smith appeared unable to use his right hand, and many lovers of the sport who saw the contest were under the impression that the Californian had injured his arm. Such was not the case. The whole trouble was that Smith tried to be clever and used his left hand in trying to jab the skillful Levinsky. Smith forgot he had a right, and kept dancing around trying to outshine his opponent. Levinsky was slow for Smith and made him look like a novice when it came down to fancy work. Smith, however, hurt Levinsky whenever he landed his right swing, and the "batter" was forced to resort to every trick of the game to save himself in the last round. With this one exception Levinsky had the advantage over Smith.

Packy McFarland announces he will return to the ring in the near future. He insists he is still a lightweight and will box in that class from now on. It is hard to believe, however, he has any intention of returning to the ring unless a chance to gain the lightweight title might tempt him. He has a considerable fortune, and married a wealthy girl in Illinois. Still he has an old grudge to settle with Welsh, and declares he will meet the English lightweight champion under the same conditions that governed the Ritchie-Welsh fight in London.

Jimmy Coffroth of California has at last clinched a match between George Chip and Jimmy Clabby. The men will meet for 20 rounds on October 20th in San Francisco. They have agreed to weigh in at 135 pounds at 3 o'clock on the day of the contest. It is expected the bout will draw close to $15,000, as the fight fans of California have been anxious to see these men battle.

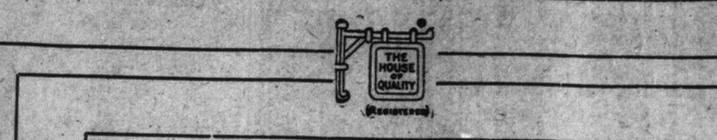

Dan McKettrick, manager of Young Ahearn, the Brooklyn heavyweight, who has just returned from abroad, is anxious to match his protégé with "Gunboat" Smith. McKettrick says Ahearn can beat the Californian and is willing to back him up to $5000. On paper this match looks like easy picking for Smith, but Ahearn's manager believes "Gunboat" is on the toebag and will take a gambler's chance on Ahearn winning.

Jimmy Johnson, the new manager of the Garden Athletic Club in Madison Square Garden, says he will resign the big club with a first-class card. The contestants will be Freddie Welsh, the lightweight champion of the world, and Leach Cross, the New York lightweight. This battle should be a hummer from start to finish. Cross and Welsh boxed 20 rounds in California not so very long ago, and altho the Britisher got the decision, Cross kept him busy all the time. That Cross thinks he is a better man than Welsh is shown by the fact that the fighting should be willing to box Welsh again in a bout of shorter duration. The new Yorker has a habit of not giving a boxer a second chance unless he is sure he can outpoint him. In this fight, however, in opinion, Leach Cross is making a mistake, because Welsh is too clever for him and will score points in each round to such an extent that Cross will have to knock out the Englishman in order to win.

Jas Willard, the cowboy heavyweight, and Levinsky have signed for a six-round bout in Philadelphia. The battle will take place within three weeks. Levinsky has never failed to bring home the bacon when competing with opponents in that class. In this bout, however, he will be taking a big chance, as Willard has a long reach and a punch that is very dangerous.

MERCANTILE BOWLING LEAGUE. At a meeting held last night in the Athenaeum Club of the Mercantile Bowling League, it was decided to have ten teams, and any mercantile houses wishing to enter please apply at once to Mr. Sutherland, Athenaeum Club, West Adelaide street.

Men's Overcoats Medium weight garments, London styles and London tailored—to go at Half Price

There are just 85 of the medium weight garments on our racks that must be cleared now, because it is the "Fairweather's" policy not to carry over such lines from one season to another.

These overcoats need no extra word of commendation from us—they're the finest of high-class makes or they'd not be here.

They're London styles and London tailored—made by those celebrated Conduit and Bond street tailors.

The finest of British woolsens in Scotch and Irish homespun, Scotch cheviots, and English covert coatings.

Splendid in assortment, in the popular Chesterfield, Connemara, Balmacaan, and Slip-on styles, with character and individuality to a high degree.

In greens, greys, browns, fawns, heather mixtures and other exclusive patterns.

Dressy garments for all men for all occasions. The sale is on, make the most of it.

RUDOLPH AND GOWDY CHASED BY M'GRAW

Went From Giant Rookies at Marlin Four Years Ago Back to Minors.

About the middle of February, 1910, six would-be Giants, plucked out of the bushes the previous summer, were shipped south to the Marlin training quarters in care of an extremely youthful scribe, who, for modesty's sweet sake, shall here be nameless. Four of the six scarcely survived the conditioning sledge at the Texas camp, and pass right out of the story. Of the other two, one was a slight, rather short young man, whose chief interests in life were a stud poker game which he played intermittently all the way from New York to New Orleans, and from which he extracted much pleasure and more profit; and the application of various hair tonics, from which he gained considerable exercise and a deep and abiding conviction that some men are born to be bald. The other was a long-faced, long-limbed young towhead, who looked as tho he really might have sacrificed a little length for the sake of a little beam without losing anything in symmetry. He had been captured in Dallas while posing as a first baseman, but, given a trial at the Polo Grounds along in September, had succeeded only in convincing McGraw that while a phenomenal throwing arm and a keen batting eye might make a catcher of him, an astounding leanness of foot would forever bar him from membership of the major league first basemen. So McGraw bought a catcher's mitt for this very young and very gawky Hank Gowdy and sent him along to Marlin with the first batch of rookies with instructions to work out with one Dick Rudolph, the bald young man aforementioned, until he felt equal to catching some regular pitchers, and they were soon with the minors.

That was four years ago. Last Friday and day before yesterday the same Hank Gowdy and the same Dick Rudolph were the twin heroes of a ball game which served an additional proof that anything is indeed liable to happen in baseball. In the spring of 1910 they were bushers together, going south for their first major league trials. Tuesday they were world's series heroes together. The extent of the Braves' triumph is hard to appreciate unless one happens to recall that Stallings' crew is the only ball club that has forced Connie Mack to switch pitchers in the middle of a world's series game since the 1901 match with the Giants. Jack Coombs was taken out of a game at the Polo Grounds in 1911, but only because a batted ball, striking him in the groin, had crippled him beyond immediate repair, and also the only ball team to beat another four straight games in a modern world's series.

TO MATCH F. LANSDOWNE BEFORE A BUFFALO CLUB.

The following letter was addressed to the sporting editor, Buffalo Express: Please state in your sporting column that I would like to match Fred Lansdowne before one of the Buffalo clubs with some of the featherweights around here at 120 or 125 pounds ring-side. Lansdowne is of Toronto, Ont., and winner of four tournaments and champion featherweight of Canada. He has a nice record and has good clippers, which tell of his class and punch. Very truly yours, Frank Blakely, No. 67 Broadway, Buffalo.

IT WAS COLD. CHICAGO, Oct. 14.—Post series: Chicago Nationals v. Americans, postponed, cold.

INTERFACULTY GAMES TOMORROW.

Varsity interfaculty games will be staged at Varsity oval Friday afternoon. For the past several weeks the students have been working out on the Varsity cinders, and are now down to racing form. Buckle and Campbell, two of the best point-getters the blue and white ever had, are not available this year, but some new men will be uncovered tomorrow. The intercollegiate games will be held in Montreal Saturday week.

Two hundred thousand persons out of work in Canada, easily 15,000 in this city.

If the men and women of this country would buy 'Made-in-Canada' goods exclusively for a half year, the country would be $200,000,000 richer, and all workmen would be back at work!

This is the psychological moment for us to consider broad patriotism within the empire.

Will the day-to-day buyer open wide the closed factory doors?

I represent 'Made-in-Canada' goods which stand high in the Dominion.

I will make a suit to measure in six days for $15.

New suits and overcoats ready to try on and be finished to measure for $15 to $30.

PRESBYTERIANS ARE HERE ON SATURDAY

Varsity's First Home Game With Queen's—Rugby News and Gossip.

Coach Hugh Gall and Captain Charlie Gage are drilling the Varsity squad in earnest style for the first home game against Queen's on Saturday. Queen's have undoubted strength this fall, and the battle at Varsity Saturday will decide which team of the two will be contented with McGill for intercollegiate honors. The game at Montreal, as usual, was played on a water-soaked field, and the light fast Varsity team were unable to show at their best. On a good, fast field the Varsity coach and captain have the utmost faith that Varsity will prove a strong aggregation, capable of meeting any team in the Intercollegiate.

George Chip and Jimmy Clabby will fight in San Francisco the night of Oct. 30 to determine the middleweight championship of the world, according to Chip's manager, who said today the boxers had come to terms. They will weigh in at 158 pounds at six o'clock. The contest will be for twenty rounds.

Balmly Beach O.R.F.U. team will practice tonight at Scarborough Beach at 5. It is necessary that every player be on hand tonight, as Balmly must beat Parkdale on Saturday to have a chance for the district. Brophy and Davis of the half line, who have been out of the game on account of injuries, will be in shape for Saturday's game. Balmly Beach have four home games now and have a good chance for the district honors if they can win all their home games. Supper will be served at the club house after practice this evening.

Balmly Beach Juniors are leading in the Junior City League and will take some beating for the city honors. They play High Park on Saturday afternoon.

Broadview Y. play Balmly Beach in a senior City League game on Saturday afternoon. All Balmly Beach players are required to be out to practice on Friday night at Scarborough Beach.

West End Y. Rugby team practise tonight at seven o'clock in the gym.

Latest bulletin on Ross Craig: Nothing new. Still in Dundas coaching the Valley Town lads. Neither the Rowing club nor Tigers have received his consent to turn out.

Jim Kennedy and Silver Quilty forgot that they were classmates and handed one another stiff punishment in the McGill-St. Patrick game. Sentiment doesn't cut much ice when the score gets close.

Bert McKay and half a dozen of the Hamilton Rowing Club footballers will leave on Saturday night after the game in Ottawa for Harvard, where they will exhibit the Canadian game.

Hamilton Herald: The Tiger clubhouse resembled a hospital yesterday, and Trainer Sim Vaughan had a busy time. Every member of the Tiger squad was undergoing treatment for bruises received in the Argo and Queen's tussles, and this process will have to be gone thru a few times more before they are in any shape for the coming game with the Carletons.

Sam Manson and "Tou" Leckie are the most seriously injured of the squad. It being decidedly doubtful whether the latter will get into Saturday's game. Manson, too, is limping around, and he will be under a great handicap with a torn knee, a sore ankle and a badly bruised heel. If it was not for the fact that Leckie will be out of the game, Manson would not start.
