

XIX.—There shall be annually named a Committee of three members to whom shall be submitted the accounts and documents of the Treasurer for examination, and the Committee shall report concerning the same at the first meeting thereafter.

No account shall be paid by the Treasurer unless submitted to and approved of by the majority of the Members of the said Committee and certified by the President of the same.

XX.—There shall be annually named a committee of five members of whom three shall form a quorum who shall meet on the first Saturday of each month in the Advocates' Chamber, unless when such Saturday shall be a holiday, and then on the day preceding, for the purpose, whenever required of examining persons desirous of binding themselves as Students to any Members of the body.

XXI.—Every person who shall intend so to bind himself shall give notice to the Secretary, and the President of the said committee shall fix the day and hour to take the matter into consideration.

XXII.—If the candidate produce to the said committee proper certificates of qualification and should