

- with reference to the value of Christian missionary service in India, iii. 447; quoted with reference to Clarkabad as a model Christian village, iii. 510.
- Young Men's Buddhist Association of Japan, iii. 161.
- Young Men's Christian Association, educational campaign of, in India, iii. 29; work among students in Japan, iii. 52; Christian Students' Camp in India, iii. 131; its Bible institutes and student assemblies in China, iii. 135; its response to the missionary appeal, iii. 139; its work in mission fields, iii. 140-142; World's Committee of, iii. 140; International Committee of North America, iii. 140, 141; National Councils of, in England and Scotland, iii. 141; list of secretaries in foreign mission fields, iii. 141; number and list of associations in mission lands, iii. 142; its work in India, iii. 149-152; in Japan, iii. 150-163; its Army and Navy work in Korea, iii. 162; establishment of Y. M. C. A. in Seoul, iii. 163; in Africa, iii. 164-166; in Madagascar, iii. 166; in the Turkish Empire, iii. 166; in Persia, iii. 167; in South America, iii. 169, 170; in Mexico, iii. 170; in the West Indies, iii. 170, 171; among the North American Indians, iii. 171; in Alaska, iii. 171; All-India Conventions of, iii. 262; its work in Korea and Manchuria during the Russo-Japanese War, iii. 397; illustrations: "The New Building of the Students' Branch, Y. M. C. A., Calcutta," i. 375; "Building of the Y. M. C. A., Tokyo, Japan," i. 380; "Building of the Y. M. C. A., Madras, India," i. 380; "H. E. Sir Arthur E. Havelock, Governor of Madras, Laying the Cornerstone of the New Y. M. C. A. Building at Madras, India, January 29th, 1897," i. 388; "Convention of the Y. M. C. A. of India, Madras, 1894," i. 391; "Bombay Y. M. C. A.," iii. 142.
- Young Men's Evangelical Union, at Barranquilla, iii. 170.
- Young Men's Institute, at Cuzco, iii. 170.
- Young People's Missionary Movement, organization and work of, iii. 148.
- Young Woman's Christian Temperance Union, ii. 115.
- Young Women of Japan, The, magazine of Y. W. C. A. in Japan, iii. 162.
- Young Women's Christian Association, in India, iii. 30; "Friendly Clubs" in India, iii. 131; its response to the missionary appeal, iii. 139; World's Committee of, iii. 142, 143; total of Y. W. C. A.'s in mission lands, iii. 143; progress of, in India, iii. 152, 153; in Ceylon, iii. 153; in China, iii. 158; in Japan, iii. 162; in the Turkish Empire, iii. 166; in South America, iii. 170; illustrations of Y. W. C. A. work in India and Burma, iii. 146, 152.
- Younghusband, Capt. Francis E., quoted, ii. 55, 56; his commendation of missionaries, iii. 455.
- Youngman, Miss Kate M., ii. 443, 456.
- Youngson, Rev. J. W., mentioned in list of missionary authors, iii. 409.
- Yuen Shih-kai, his request to Dr. Richard, iii. 306; his protection of foreigners, iii. 338.
- Yun, General, his gifts to industrial work of Southern Methodist Mission in Korea, iii. 116.
- Yun, Hon. T. H. (also called Ye Cha Yun), President of the "Independence Club," iii. 248; leader in Reform Movement in Korea, iii. 337.
- Yung Wing, Dr., his aid to Chinese students in America, iii. 38.
- Yunnan, Province of, opium traffic in, i. 83; human sacrifice in, i. 159.
- Zacatecas, National Convention of Christian Endeavor Societies held at, in 1896, illustration of, ii. 88, mention of, iii. 170.
- Zahleh, high school of British Syrian Mission, ii. 202, iii. 62; illustration: "Dedication of New School Building" at, iii. 288.
- Zahn, Rev. F., ii. xxi.
- Zambesi Industrial Mission, ii. 157, 160, 431; iii. 70, 100, 520.
- Zambesi Industrial Mission Monthly, The, iii. 100, 520.
- Zambesi Valley, raids of hostile tribes in the, i. 175; Zambesi Industrial Mission, ii. 157, 160, 431, iii. 70, 100, 520; polygamy discredited, ii. 216; checking of infanticide, ii. 281; mission of Rev. and Mrs. Coillard, ii. 293, 294, 328; abolishment of human sacrifice by King Lewanika, ii. 347; war prevented in the, by intervention of M. Jalla, ii. 477.
- Zanzibar, mortality among children in, i. 128; slave-traffic in, i. 138, 140-142, 146; slavery in, i. 146, 150, ii. 283, 284, 286-289; social results of missions in, ii. 80, 81; Christ Church Cathedral, ii. 283; Arab slave-traders in, ii. 296; abolition of slavery in, 317-320, 325, 326; work of Universities' Mission in, ii. 322; medical work in, ii. 431; lper colony in, ii. 444; educational work of the Universities' Mission, iii. 68; industrial work, iii. 102; political influence of Universities' Mission, iii. 388; illustrations: "Slavery at Zanzibar—a Child Victim," i. 141; "Hospital and Home for Nurses," i. 200; "Christ Church Cathedral," ii. 288; "Rescued Slaves Brought to Zanzibar," ii. 311; "Native Deacons of the Universities' Mission," ii. 322; "Mbwani School Girls," ii. 322.
- Zanzibar, Sultan of, i. 150; ii. 286, 318, 326.
- Zappo-Zaps, The, marauding expeditions of, in the Congo, iii. 331.
- Zaraf, Chief, ii. 291.
- Zehnder, Rev. J. L., his Malay-English Vocabulary, iii. 414.
- Zeisberger, David, iii. 374; his "Lexicon of the German and Onondaga Languages," iii. 413.
- Zeist, Conference of World's Student Christian Federation at, iii. 146.
- Zeitun, work for Armenian orphans at, ii. 449.
- Zelaya, Province of, iii. 91.
- Zenana, The, or women's quarters, Hindu, Persian, and Moslem, i. 108, 112, 115; social problems of the zenana system, ii. 251; the proper attitude of missions to the, in mitigating the enforced seclusion of women, ii. 252-254; societies for the instruction of women in the zenanas, ii. 255; zenana missions the outcome of a Zenana missionary impulse, ii. 256; a coming relaxation of the system, ii. 258; women seclusion in China and Korea not car-