Natty Headgear for the Small School Girl

Plain Sailor and Mushroom Designs, in Soft, Smooth Felt, from $1.25 to $2.75.

The quality desirable above all others in the little hat that crowns the head of the frolicsome, ingenious school child of ten years and under, is simplicity. And simplicity of the natty attractive sort is the keynote of a collection of juvenile headgear in the millinery section that ranges in price from $1.25 to $2.75.

At the amount first mentioned is shown a smart little rolling brimmed sailor with ribbon band and regulation ends. A quaint little mushroom design, with cord and tassels, is marked at $1.50. A simple hat, with rolling brim, the crown mounted with a silk pom-pom, is priced $1.95; while at $2.75 is a small mushroom shape prettily trimmed with velvet ribbon, arranged in chain effect.

Navy, cardinal, brown and green represents the option in the way of color.
