FRIDAT MORNING, OCT. 28, 1910.

A NEW BREAD BILL.

Mr. W. F. Nickle, M.L.A., announces that he will make a further effort to settle the bread question. He will shave the entire sympathy of The World in his endeavor. We believe that the bili, or rather the amendments to Mr. McNaught's bill, which. Mr. Nickle carried, was the result of an honest effort to straighten out the difficulties that have arisen. The act the success of their enterprise, the first as it stands only gave occasion for worse difficulties, as we have all along almit it.

What is needed in the first place is by a standard of price or by a standard of weight. The act passed by Mr. Nickle attempted to reconcile both and this obviously cannot be done. If the weight is to be fixed the price must vary. The McNaught Act allowed for both conditions and established the standard weight of bread at visit the great Winnipeg Exhibition in 24 and 48 ounces. Any variation had 1914. to be indicated by a label giving the weight of the loaf, and the standard loaf was of course also indicated by label.

The chief difficulty arose over the better quality of bread which bakers in Toronto sell at a higher price, and which a large proportion of the customers prefer. The mistake of the Nickle bill was to refuse to the pubwished to buy in the shape they debuy large leaves which grow stale bemust consider the requirements of city householders as well as of the rural half century. population when he drafts a new

BRISTOL AND CANADA.

On the 12th inst., the fine old City of Bristol, whence England despatched Cabot to discover the Canadian continent, was occupied with a public recognition of the ties that exist between that community and the Dominion. An address to the sheriff from musical admirers in Winnipeg, the presentation to the lord mayor of a loving cup and Bristol banner from the Society of Bristolians in Winnipeg, and the acknowledgement of the services of the Bristol commential delegation to Canada, were the main features of the occasion. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hawkes and

Mrs. Coleman of Toronto. The lord mayor spoke in the highest terms of Lord Strathcona, and hoped to have his influence to get Canada thoroly represented at the Royal Show in Bristol in 1913. Mr. Hawkes congratulated the Bristol delegation on of its kind. He advised the inculca-

Many who came to Canada never had it before they reachel to settle whether bread is to be sold there. When inducements were offered to trade associations with countries flying another flag, it was a great commercial asset if a sentiment for the old land could be maintained. Very great interest was taken by the leadiong citizens in the proceedings, and the lord mayor said he hoped to

CONSOLS AND THE BUDGET.

Ever since Mr. Lloyd-George succeeded in forcing the passage of his famous budget thru parliament, his op-penents have been making great play with the continuous fall in the price of British consols. Not ence, but several ous budget thru parliament, his optimes public attention has been called by opposition newspapers to the fact that a lower point had been reached than had ever happened before, except under strain of war. This declension from normal values has naturally enough, remembering from what quarters the opinion comes, being attributed to the influence of the chancellor's fiscal policy, which, so his critics say, is

That order was not appealed against one defendant and for $257.50 from, and is in full force. In such a case I am of opinion that section 6. sub-section 4 of the Creditors' Relief Act applies, and that the execution creditors are entitled to be paid their executions and the costs and charges directed by the order to be paid in priority over other creditors of the in-solvent company. In this respect it seems to me that the right of the assignee is no higher than that of the ditors. As there would seem to be no facts in dispute, the order appealed from may be varied, declaring that the execution creditors the execution creditors are entitled to the proceeds of the sale as against the assignee. In other respects the appeal will be dismissed with costs.
