Strong Feeling Develops at the Congress - Big Batch of Resolutions.

Victoria, B.C., Sept. 21.-The delegates attending the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada are divided because of the strong feeling against Socialists. The real test will come when the election of officers is being held. It is understood that Presiden: Verville will not be a seeker for second term. The next in line, there fore, according to custom, is Vice President James Simpson of Toronto There is, however, a strong feeling against the Socialists, and Rober Hungerford, also of Toronto, will op

Passed Many Resolutions,

Hungerford, also of Toronto, will oppose him.

Passed Many Resolutions,

A number of important resolutions were adopted. Among others, one that power be given trade officers to examine books in course of arbitrations; opposing the circulating of The Labor Gazette in England because it was not always edited in the interest of labor; weekly payment of wages, and a universal eight-hour workday.

The congress would also like a separate department of labor. They would also have W. T. R. Preston discharged, also a commission to enquire into government insurance.

They want a commission of labor in each province, with power to prosecute; adverse to the appointment of Dunsmuir as Lieut.-Governor of British Columbia because of alleged tyranny to workmen; supporting the Dominion government in a request to the imperial government for legislation preventing misrepresentation in securing workmen there; asking that all electric transmission lines be covered; supporting the Lord's Day Act, favoring the purchase of all government goods in Canada; commending the jury for unmasking Mr. Preston; favoring the merit system in the civil service; against the use of the Northwest Mounted Police in industrial disputes; favoring voluntary conciliation boards in industrial disputes; endorsing the eight-hour day in postoffices; adverse to paying by the government of fares of immigrants from the old country; asking increase of head tax to a thousand dollars.

Messrs Flett and Landers of Hamilton differed over the resolution condemning the government for employing prison labor, but more especially for putting machinery in prison. Mr. Flett opposed the action of the government, while Sam Landers defended the government.

This is a subject which attracted so much attention at the meeting of the British Medical Association, held in Toonto last August.

Prof. Garre described the case of a four-year-old boy suffering from cre-tinism, who had portions of his mother's

The professor declared that while it was impossible to transplant large blood vessels from living human beings, blood vessels could be taken from freshly-amputated limbs and transplanted to cases where large tumors had been removed or where otherwise the tying up of large blood vessels resulted fatally for the parts of the body fed by tally for the parts of the body fed by
