DURHAM, GROUPWINNERS BEAT HANOVER 11 TO 3

Deciding Game in C. L.A. Intermed. iate No. 4—Lacrosse News and Gossip.

In what was anticipated, a hard game, at Durham yesterday, in Group 4 of the intermediate C. L. A. series, between Hanover and Durham, turned out to be an easy win for the locals. Durham were ahead 1 to 0 in the opening period, 5 to 2 at half-time, while at three-quarter time the score stood 8 to 3. The final was: Durham 11, Hanover 3. The Hanover team were minus Cumming, Dowkes, Cruickshank and Chesney of Owen Sound. In all it looked very much like a case of cold feet, the players evidently bearing in mind an incident a few years ago in Owen Sound, in which they participated in a melee against Durham. By winning this game Durham captures the group, Chesley having defaulted their game to Durham. The winners meet the winners of No. 6 in the semi-finals. The teams:
