What the foundation is to a building—the sole is to a shoe basic, fundamental.

In sky-scraper, or foot-wear, the covered up base, that which is least seen is of greatest importance.

No single item in a shoe costs so much as the best sole leather, and no part can be "robbed" so easily, without revealing it to the eve.

Paint and polish cover equally the best, and the worst, sole in the finished shoe.

Wear alone tells the consumer (too late for remedy) what grade of leather has been put into it. This is where the "Slater Shoe"—the slate frame "Slater Shoe" - steps in, to eradicate lottery. As the Slater Shoe Makers brand their own price on the sole of every pair, they thus become directly responsible to the Wearer up to that price, for its durability and shape retention, in addition to its window appearance.

They dare not rob the vitals of the shoe to put the plunder into the mere selling points-into surface value, and finish chiefly. Goodyear Welted and priced on the sole, $3.50, $5.00.
