We will pass through the customs to-day a second shipment of one thousand Panama hats. direct from Central and South America

The prices asked by the native makers of Panama hats this year. are, because of the money stringency in the United States, remarkably low. These prices will probably never be touched again in the world's history.

Remember, a Panama is good for at least seven years of wear. A little mild soap and water, applied from time to time, makes it a new hat

The Panama, too, is always the "hat of quality." 1000 Panama Hats made to sell at $12 and $15 will arrive to-day $5.

TWO IN CITY'S DEBT FOR OVERCHARGED FEES!

Magistrate and Police Court Clerk Shouldn't Have Retained Certain Sums-Bail Should Be Free.

Magistrate Kingsford has been acting in Magistrate Kingsford has been acting in good faith and honesty in charging $1.25 for a bail bond, his honor, in a report sent to the city council yesterday, fol lowing an enquiry into the police court fee system, says he was entitled to charge only 25 cents for recognizance on each bond, and that he is at present owing the city $610.25. It is for the council to decide whether Curran Morrison, police court clerk, should return $4766 in fees, which should have gone to the civic fees, which should have gone to the civic treasury.

"The magistrate," says the report, "was not, in my opinion, entitled to charge in connection with the granting of bail a fee for hearing the case or for issuing a warrant for deliverance."

During 18 years prior to June 1 last Mr. Kingsford received in such fees $3051.25, which should have gone to the civic treasury, but, as the legal fee was $2 cents in each case, he is indebted to the city in that proportion only.

As to the police court clerk, on appointment in 1890 he was to receive $1200 a year and fees, but later the salary was reduced 5 per cent. and the fees cut off, but no return has ever been made to the city treasurer, as required.

Judge Winchester recommends that no magistrate should have to go to the stations to grant bail; that application be Applications should be made to the treasurer, J. K. Leslie. The number of tickets to be issued this year is considerably less than last year, and as there was some disappointment then to late comers, it would be wise if orders were placed as early as possible with Mr. Leslie. The tickets are good, as in former years, for admission and the stand all the time during the first week, and for admission all the time and the stand only in the afternoon of the second week.
